Wanted To Collect insurance

BURLINGTON - A Reidsville Negro pyhsician was ordered held under $2,000 bond Thursday on charges of giving two Negroes anesthetics before they cut off their fingers to collect insurance money

Dr. I. K. Bass denied he knew either of the men planned to have their fingers amputated. He told officers he gave the anesthesia for medical purposes.

Dist. Sol. William Murdock signed the warrant against Dr Bass. charging him with aiding and abetting in the plot by five Negroes to collect insurance claims. Bond

Child Killed

HALIFAX - A 2-year-old Negro boy was fatally injured Saturday night when he ran into the path of a car driven by a Norfolk. Va. woman.

Highway Patrolman J. G. Rhodes identified the victim as James L Green of Halifax. He said the child ran into the path of a car driven by Isabella Jesse Coley about 300 feet north of the town limits.

No charges have been filed a gainst the woman.

SHOT DEFENDING STORES-White troops and civilians help wounded Africans from a truck after they were shot while defending their shops from looters in Bulawayo recently. African riots in recent weeks in major Rhodesian cities have cost the lives of at lease a dozen Africans. Security forces have been expanded to deal with any future outbreak of violence in the British colony. The discord was blamed on deterioration in race relations. (UPI PHOTO).
