GOD BLESSES THE WORKERS

ROCKY MOUNT—Most of us are familiar with the altruism. "God helps those who help themselves." That holds true for all areas of life and self-progressiveness, particularly where our people are concerned in their fight for economic and political equality.

We have heard about it on TV and radio. Some have read it in the race newspapers and NAACP CRISIS. But those who still doubt and think nothing of it should read the story in September 18 issue of Life, showing the gallant fight which many of our more courageous citizens — youths included — are putting up over the South as they amaze white folks and startle their colored elders in their drive to register and vote and get equal lunch-counter service where they spend their money for other merchandise.

When fifty or more "rank and file" Negroes wait patiently with grim determination to register where none of their race have voted in 82 years, this is what we call PROGRESS in big letters. Even though watched and intimidated by a burly deputy sheriff they wait for hours while the angered white officials registered "less than 40" during an entire week in Haywood County, Tennessee where there are 15,000 colored people. Fayette County was even worse with both counties using all kinds of reprisals against Negroes to deter them from voting.

Tarheelia and most counties of other Southern states are not that bad. Nevertheless, thousands of us in these states and counties where pressures are not brought to bear are just too indolent (lazy) and irresponsible to go to the polls and register and vote when we could easily do so. Many whites heretofore even beg us to vote, particularly when they have an issue up they want to win.

But we should be active enough to vote for our own good, personal pride and citizenship status, because any man or woman who does NOT vote is certainly NOT classed as a REAL CITIZEN OR RESPONSIBILITY AND COMMUNITY WORTH, regardless of how big the auto he drives or the fine clothes he wears.

Look AGAIN at the picture of those colored would-be voters — men and women of a new generation and day — with even a child along to catch the never-to-be forgotten scene much as the writer did when as a lad of eight years he accompanied his school-teacher father to the polls at the white school house and he (Dad) was the only colored voter present.

Doesn't the five senses of small colored children in a r e c h i n g BRAVELY off to integrate a 'white' school for the first time give you a thrill while at the same time make you feel ashamed that you have failed to exemplify even a little of that courage by registering to vote and helping to get others to do likewise?

God bless (He will bless him) that preacher who led his boy to the Texas school. See how nice the teenage girls look as they walk unafraid to the Virginia school ahead of disdainful whites.

Observe, if you please, the ten young college students — among them young ministers — as they surround Martin Luther King, Jr., truly a minister looking for much more than a Cadillac and high-priced clothes for himself and all the money the people will give him. King is a prophet REALLY trying to lead his people out of the darkness. Sadly too, only a few preachers are willing to follow him and help elevate our race. His voice — not even the echo of it — has reached the preachers of Eastern Tarheelia yet.

Look at the students as they stand doggedly determined to wait for their rights at the lunch counter. And they came! Notice the forlorn Dime Store official before his "boycotted counter". He learned that green dollars from brown hands bought as much as the dollars from white hands.

Then the unique "training" course the dedicated students have intelligently employed to condition each other for enduring the torture of segregationist ruffians so as not to be provoked to strike back and cause violence. This is CULTURE and REFINEMENT. They note the calmness and soldierly march of the black-arm-banded, neatly dressed pickets as they "March on 'till victory they won."

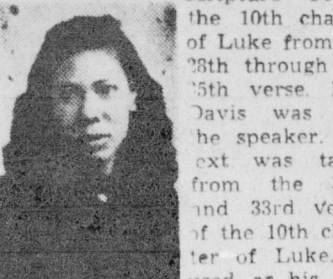

This story and the moral thereof should strike home to every preacher and community leader to go and do likewise — either lead the voters and instruct them; or organize and lead the youths into the NAACP where they can be properly guided, and help those who try to help others.

BY MRS. LOUISE COVIN

APEX—Sunday morning, Sept. 18, the 11:00 worship service began at First Baptist with Deacon W. N. Beasley giving the call to worship. The junior choir was in charge of the devotion.

The Rev. William Davis of Raleigh, formerly of Apex, read the scripture from the 10th chapter of Luke from the 28th through the 35th verse. Rev. Davis was also the speaker. His text was taken from the 32nd and 33rd verses of the 10th chapter of Luke. He used as his subject "Going in the Wrong Direction."

MRS. LOUISE COVIN

It concerned the Jericho Road which he described as the road of sin, and the good Samaritan as Jesus Christ. It was a wonderful message and gave all under the sound of his voice something to think about. In what direction are you going?

On Sunday evening at 8:00 p.m. a program was given at First Baptist, sponsored by the April Birth Month Club. Sponsoring the program was Mrs. Doria Evans, Mrs. Elma Thorpe and Deacon W. L. Lackley. Rendering the music was the Christian Home Church chorus, the Apex Gospel Chorus and the junior choir, both of the First Baptist Church. A special feature of the program was Mrs. Doria Evans' reciting of "God's Creation." It was enjoyed very much by all. Visitors are always welcome to attend worship services.

CHURCHES

St. James AME
METHOD—Rev. D. H. Jackson, pastor of St. James AME Church, preached a fine sermon Sunday morning on "Love for one Another." The message was timely and well delivered.

Reverends Mrs. Mary G. Ganl, Mrs. Mary Frazier and Mrs. Riddick were Rev. Jackson's pulpit associates. Rev. Mrs. Riddick is serving as matron at Kittrell College this year. The junior choir furnished music with Mrs. Carter of our school faculty at the instrument.

The choir rendered music for a program in the city in the afternoon.

Oak City Baptist Church
Revival services began at the Oak City Baptist Monday night, Sept. 19th, and will continue until Friday night. An able guest minister will fill the pulpit with Rev. C. R. Trotter, each night. The public is strongly urged to attend these services.

Young People's Services
ACE and BTU meetings are held each Sunday evening at St. James and Oak City Churches. All young and older people are invited to attend them.

Prayer Service
Attend prayer service at Oak City Baptist Church each Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Sick
Our sick are convalescing at this writing. We were very glad to see Mrs. Wilbertine H. Sills at service Sunday morning. She has been ill but looks fine now.

Berry O'Kelly School
Our school has opened and let us be real parents and patrons of it by helping in every way possible to assist our faculty in carrying out their program.

The Ladies Willing Workers Community Club will celebrate Mrs. Flossie Grant's birthday on Sept. 29th at her home.

Holly Springs News

BY MRS. THELMA McLAIN

HOLLY SPRINGS—Sunday, September 18, the Holly Springs Christian Church held its regular worship service which began at 11:30 a.m. with the pastor, Rev. J. W. Albright, in charge. His topic was "What Is Baptism?" taken from St. Mark, 1st chapter, 8th verse.

The speaker stated that we have so many faiths and orders and have spread ourselves out that we have become weaklings. We can read better and more than our forefathers but we are weaker, and left standing on a threshold which is surrounded with so many "isms" that one hardly knows whom to follow. He suggested that we follow Jesus Christ.

Eight new converts were united into the church. The service also marked the 26th anniversary of the pastor at this church for which we are all grateful.

Notice
Women's Day will be observed at the First Baptist Church of Holly Springs on the 4th Sunday in September. The public is invited.

There were many visitors present from Manly Street Christian Church, Raleigh, Sunday.

Sick List
Mrs. Goldie Usher, Mr. Donnie Prince, Sr., Mr. Rex Adams, Mr. Frank Thomas, and Mr. Cecil Leslie.

Employed colored citizens for nine months of each year. The venture is also looked upon as a chance for local citizens to prove themselves (both races) in the matter of equal job opportunities since a similar plant opened here last year which would only employ white women, even after several colored individuals bought stock in it.

Last In A Series:

Constitution Of North Carolina

Editor's Note: This is the final in a series of articles containing the Constitution of North Carolina. The CAROLINIAN through twenty-one articles has presented the entire Constitution of North Carolina.

ARTICLE XI (Continued)

Corporations Other Than Municipal
Sec. 4. Houses of correction. The General Assembly may provide for the erection of houses of correction, where vagrants and persons guilty of misdemeanors shall be restrained and usefully employed.

Sec. 5. Houses of refuge. A house or houses of refuge may be established whenever the public interests may require it, for the correction and instruction of other classes of offenders.

Sec. 6. The sexes are to be separated. It shall be required, by competent legislation, that the structure and superintendence of penal institutions of the State, the county jails, and city police prisons secure the health and comfort of the prisoners and that male and female prisoners be never confined in the same room or cell.

Sec. 7. Provision for the poor and orphans. Beneficent provisions for the poor, the unfortunate and orphans, being one of the first duties of a civilized and Christian state, the General Assembly shall, at its first session, appoint and define the duties of a board of public charities, to whom shall be entrusted the supervision of all charitable and penal State institutions, and who shall annually report to the Governor upon their condition, with suggestions for their improvement.

Sec. 8. Orphan houses. There shall also, as soon as practicable be measures devised by the State for the establishment of one or more orphan houses, where destitute orphans may be cared for, educated, and taught some business or trade.

Sec. 9. Inebriates and idiots. It shall be the duty of the Legislature as soon as practicable, to devise means for the education of idiots and inebriates.

Sec. 10. Deaf-mutes, blind and insane. The General Assembly may provide that the indigent deaf-mute, blind, and insane of the State shall be cared for at the charge of the State.

Sec. 11. Self-supporting. It shall be steadily kept in view by the Legislature and the Board of Public Charities that all penal and charitable institutions should be made as nearly self-supported as is consistent with the purpose of their creation.

ARTICLE XII

Militia

Sec. 1. Who are liable to militia duty. All able-bodied male citizens of the State of North Carolina, between the ages of twenty-one and forty years, who are citizens of the United States, shall be liable to duty in the militia: Provided, that all persons who may be adverse to bearing arms, from religious scruples, shall be exempt therefrom.

Sec. 2. Organizing, etc. The General Assembly shall provide for the organizing, arming, equipping, and discipline of the militia, and for paying the same, when called into active service.

Sec. 3. Governor commander-in-chief. The Governor shall be commander-in-chief, and shall have power to call out the militia to execute the law, suppress riots or insurrections, and to repel invasion.

Sec. 4. Exemptions. The General Assembly shall have power to make such exemptions as may be deemed necessary, and to enact laws that may be expedient for the government of the militia.

ARTICLE XIII

Amendments

Sec. 1. Convention, how called. No convention of the people of this State shall ever be called by the General Assembly unless by the concurrence of two-thirds of all of the members of each house of the General Assembly, and except the proposition, convention or no convention, be first submitted to the qualified voters of the whole State, at the next general election, in a manner to be prescribed by law. And should a majority of the votes cast be in favor of said convention, it shall assemble on such day as may be prescribed by the General Assembly.

Sec. 2. How the Constitution may be altered. No part of the Constitution of this State shall be altered unless a bill to alter the same shall have been agreed to by three-fifths of each House of the General Assembly. And the amendments or amendments so agreed to shall be submitted at the next general election to the qualified voters of the whole State, in such manner as may be prescribed by law. And in the event of their adoption by a majority of the votes cast, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the Constitution of this State.

ARTICLE XIV

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Indictments. All indictments which shall have been found or may hereafter be found, for any crime or offense committed before this Constitution takes effect may be proceeded upon in the proper courts, but no punishment shall be inflicted which is forbidden by this Constitution.

Sec. 2. Penalty for fighting duels. No person who shall hereafter fight a duel, or assist in the same as a second, or send, accept, or knowingly carry a challenge therefor, or agree to go out of the State to fight a duel, shall hold any office in this State.

Sec. 3. Drawing money. No money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and an accurate account of the receipts and expenditures of the public money shall be annually published.

Sec. 4. Mechanic's lien. The General Assembly shall provide, by proper legislation, for giving to mechanics and laborers an adequate lien on the subject-matter of their labor.

Sec. 5. Governor to make appointments. In the absence of any contrary provision, all officers of this State, whether heretofore elected or appointed by the Governor, shall hold their positions until their appointments are made by the Governor, or, if the officers are elective, until their successors shall have been chosen and duly qualified according to the provisions of the Constitution.

Sec. 6. Seat of the government. The seat of government in this State shall remain at the city of Raleigh.

Sec. 7. Holding office. No person who shall hold any office or place of trust or profit under the United States, or any department thereof, or under the State, or under any other state or government, shall hold or exercise any other office or place of trust or profit under the authority of this State, or be eligible to a seat in either House of the General Assembly: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend to officers in the militia, notaries public, justices of the peace, commissioners of public charities, or commissioners of special purposes.

Sec. 8. Intermarriage of whites and Negroes prohibited. All marriages between a white person and a Negro, or between a white person and a person of Negro descent to the third generation, inclusive are hereby forever prohibited.

CARY—On the opening day of school, the assembly was held in the new gymnasium. Instructions and plans for the school year were given by the principal, Prof. E. F. Rayford. A large number of parents were present. On the following Monday the new lunch room was opened. The new dietitian is Mrs. William Hicks. Mrs. Othalia Boyd is back again as a lunchroom assistant. Mrs. Juanita Sanders is part-time secretary and lunchroom helper. Miss Alreese Devane of Raleigh is part-time librarian.

We are happy to have all teachers back again. We are sure with our staff, President Alton Matthews of the PTA and parents this school year will be one of the best.

CHURCH NEWS

Union Bethel AME

Sunday school opened at 10 a.m. with a nice attendance. Service began at 11 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. B. F. Pickett, delivered an inspirational and timely message from St. Luke, 12 chapter and 22 verse: "Therefore I say unto you." Subject, "Know." Pulpit guest was Rev. James Patterson. Among other visitors was Mr. Robert Hooker from Lincolnville AME Church.

On Sunday afternoon Rev. William Spain, Jr., of First Baptist Church, Raleigh, was guest speaker at Union Bethel AME Church. This program was sponsored by Mrs. Lucy Bell. Among the visitors at this service was Mrs. Mary Alston of First Baptist Church, Raleigh.

ROY JONES, WRECK VICTIM

ROCKY MOUNT—The family of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jones, 610 N. Raleigh Street, Rocky Mount, were saddened last week by the almost sudden death of their only child, Roy Alexander Jones, age 29, and a resident of Winston-Salem for many years. Jones was employed by a construction company and was enroute to his job when another vehicle allegedly ran a stop sign hitting and fatally injuring Jones who died a few hours later.

Funeral rites were said here from the Seven Springs Primitive Baptist Church Thursday with Elder William Maryland in charge. Assisting were Elders George Sumner and Arrington; and the Rev. E. N. Hill. Interment was in Northeastern cemetery.
