

Our Vote Decides Election: Wilkins

FIVE-DOLLAR HAIRCUT—Mrs. Mildred A. Flott testified before the Three-Member State Commission Against Discrimination, Oct. 6, that a Long Island barber tried to charge $5 to give her 8-year old son a haircut. Her son, Charles E. Flott, Jr., sat in the hearing room while Mrs. Flott told the commission that the barber shop has a sign reading "Kinky Hair Cut $5". (UPI PHOTO).

Many Witness Laundry Gunplay Here

THE CAROLINIAN

VOL. 20, NO. 1

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1960

PRICE 15c

100 Converge On Shaw's Campus As

Sanford Meets NC Leaders

NAACP's Secretary Va. Orator

RICHMOND, Va.—The 1960 presidential election will be decided by the Negro vote, according to Roy W. Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Wilkins told a citizens rally at the closing session of the annual meeting of Virginia chapters of the Negro Civil Rights Organization Negro voters would consider "the record of the two major parties on civil rights" in casting their ballots in November.

He indicated he himself prefers democratic nominee John F. Kennedy to Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP candidate. He also said the democratic platform was "slightly the stronger" on the civil rights issue.

Rating the parties and their national candidates on the civil rights question Wilkins said "... Kennedy emerges with

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

PARKING PRICES JUMP AT SERIES—Two hours before game time this parking lot found few customers for parking at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Pa., during the 1960 World Series between the Pirates and Yankees. The normal fee was one dollar a day earlier, but had gone to five dollars for the series. At CAROLINIAN press time the Pirates were leading the Yankees three games to two. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Prominent Tar Heels At Session

BY J. B. HARRIS

More than one hundred business and professional leaders of the colored race motored here from as far west as Charlotte and Asheville; and from as far east as Wilmington and Elizabeth City to greet Terry Sanford, Democratic governor-nominee, last week, as he spoke briefly, but with earnestness, to the assembly in the West Campus building of Shaw University.

Coming at the call of W. R. Collins, president of the North Carolina Teachers Association (NCTA), the ten-thousand-member educational group of Tarheels, the meeting was presided over by Dr. James T. Taylor, N. C. College at Durham instructor, with the assistance of Dr. John R. Larkins, N. C. Welfare Advisor, and Dr. W. L. Greene, secretary, NCTA.

Introduced by his fellow townsman, former Fayetteville councilman, Dr. W. P. DeVane, who praised the would-be governor as being an "honest politician, who can be depended upon", Sanford said: "I do not believe in playing group against group or race against race," because, basically, we all

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Wife Shot In Head, Survives

Many persons were in a laundry Tuesday afternoon when Charles Smith, 32, of 327 W. South Street, entered the "ironing room" of Raleigh Linen Supply Co. and shot his wife, one of the women employees while she worked at an ironing machine. He was caught nearby shortly thereafter by a patrolman.

Following the shooting of Mrs. Lenester Smith, 30, his wife, the man is alleged to have turned the gun on George Sloan, foreman of the firm and clicked the weapon in Sloan's face twice. It did not fire.

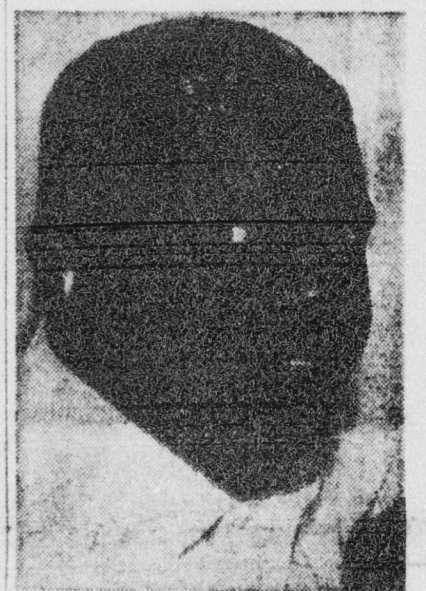

Mrs. Smith is described by officials at St. Agnes Hospital as being in fair condition.

She was hit by two bullets, one in the temple and the other in the knee.

Witnessed by a number of workers in the laundry, the shooting took place about 4:30 p. m. at the Hillsboro Street establishment.

Smith was apprehended by Motorcycle Patrolman W. G.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

JACKIE ROBINSON

Robinson 'Bull City' Orator

DURHAM — In order that local citizens might get an insight into many of the issues in the current political campaign, a Citizens Committee, headed by Rev. Melvin Chester Swann, pastor of St. Joseph AME Church, will present Jackie Robinson, famed Brooklyn Dodger baseball player, at the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, S. Roxboro Street, Sunday, 8:00 p. m.

The Rev. E. T. Browne will preside. The Rev. James S. Stewart will deliver the invocation, Alexander Barnes, candidate for the State Senate will speak on "The Importance of a TWO-PARTY System." Dr. Helen Edmonds, North Carolina College professor, will also speak. Bishop Frank Madison Reid, AME Church, is slated to be the final speaker. The Male Chorus of Mt. Vernon Church will furnish the music.

Jackie Robinson will come to Durham from Greensboro, after having addressed the North Carolina NAACP Convention. He is known to be highly interested in the civil rights plank of both major political parties and will discuss them freely. The meeting is open to the public. It is believed to be the first time the stormy athlete has appeared before a Durham audience.

Eight Die As Car And Truck Collide

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — A taxi loaded with six persons skidded out of control during a heavy rainstorm last week, hit the rear of a big truck and then crashed into another car. Eight persons were killed.

Police said it was the worst traffic accident in the city's history. All six persons in the taxi died in the wreck. The victims in the other car were Mrs. Shirley Dorsey, 31, of Minden, La., and her 1-year-old son, Bradford. Her husband, Carl Dorsey, 31, the only survivor, was in serious condition.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Raleigh Citizens Ass'n, Students Hold Meeting

The Raleigh Citizens Association met with student sit-in leaders from Shaw University and Saint Augustine's College in the absence of President John Fleming Dr. Grady D. Davis presided.

Reports were read from Raleigh's Mayor W. G. Enloe and from the student leaders regarding racial progress in the city.

In an earlier meeting with some of the Association's members, the students were urged to work closer with the organization.

The Raleigh Citizens Association was reactivated last February after the sit-in demonstrations began at lunch counters throughout the south. It has supported Shaw Uni-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News Brief

NAACP SETS OCTOBER MEET
RALEIGH — President John Williams, Jr., of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Cabbie's Act Aids Arrest

GREENVILLE, S. C. — Quick action by an observant cab driver Thursday night resulted in the capture of an armed robber within one hour of the robbery.

A Negro with a rag tied across his face in wild-west fashion entered the Atlas Oil Co. service station on 600 Rutherford Road shortly after 8:30 p. m., pulled a gun and demanded the money in the cash register for night Lt. F. W. Taylor ordered an all-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

93rd Baptist Convention To Wilmington Oct. 31 - Nov. 3

WILMINGTON—The 93rd Annual Session of the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, will convene with the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Wilmington, North Carolina, the Rev. J. Ray Butler, pastor, October 31-November 3. Meeting jointly with the parent body, the Laymen's League will hold its 11th Annual Session.

An interesting and potentially dynamic program built around the general theme, "CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP IN OUR TIMES," has been drawn up. As usual, this theme will be developed through sermons, addresses, forums and reports.

Worship leader for the Annual session will be the Reverend George W. Dudley of Rocky Mount. Other speakers include

Dr. Robert Wilson of Jacksonville, Florida; George L. Brown, E. L. Kirby, and President Strasser of Shaw University who will deliver sermons; Dr. R. M. Pitts, president of our state convention; Val Washington, Director of Minorities, Republican National Committee; James S. Steward, representing the Democratic Party; and Mr. Allen Jordan, president of the National Laymen's League who will deliver addresses.

Many others will participate as session theme speakers and panelists. Listening to them will be messengers representing 312,000 members of 1700

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Dr. Shepard Speaks At Raleigh's YMCA

"Vital Issues Now Facing The Nation" were discussed by the Honorable Marshall Shepard of Philadelphia, city councilman at large and pastor of the Mount Olivet Baptist Church here Wednesday at noon, at the Bloodworth Street YMCA.

A native of North Carolina, Dr. Shepard is nationally known and has delivered hundreds of addresses in many United States areas.

He has served as recorder of deeds in Philadelphia, and since 1955 has been city councilman at large there. He was also elected to several terms in the Pennsylvania State Legislature and was a delegate and speaker at the World Baptist Alliance in Copenhagen Denmark in 1947.

Approximately 100 ministers of Eastern North Carolina were present to hear Dr. Shepard.

Serving as chairman of the committee on arrangements was E. L. Rainford, executive secretary of the YMCA.

Dr. Robert W. Mance will be the Men's Day speaker at St. Paul AME Church here Sunday at the 11 a. m. worship hour. The Rev. L. S. Penn is pastor.

Robert Weston Mance, M. D., treasurer of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, was nominated by the Council of Bishops, and elected by the Financial Board to succeed the late Dr. A. S. Jackson, who died February 10, 1954. The treasurer stems from two generations of prominent African Methodist preachers.

His paternal grandfather was the Reverend Dr. Montgomery Mercer Mance, who was one of the charter trustees of Allen University in 1881, when it was Payne Institute at Cokesbury, South Carolina. His father was the late Reverend Dr. R. W. Mance. In early life he was a school teacher. When he entered the ministry he became an effective preacher, and Presiding Elder. He was at one time, president of Allen Univer-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Dr. Robert Wilson of Jacksonville, Florida; George L. Brown, E. L. Kirby, and President Strasser of Shaw University who will deliver sermons; Dr. R. M. Pitts, president of our state convention; Val Washington, Director of Minorities, Republican National Committee; James S. Steward, representing the Democratic Party; and Mr. Allen Jordan, president of the National Laymen's League who will deliver addresses.

Many others will participate as session theme speakers and panelists. Listening to them will be messengers representing 312,000 members of 1700

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Dr. Robert Wilson of Jacksonville, Florida; George L. Brown, E. L. Kirby, and President Strasser of Shaw University who will deliver sermons; Dr. R. M. Pitts, president of our state convention; Val Washington, Director of Minorities, Republican National Committee; James S. Steward, representing the Democratic Party; and Mr. Allen Jordan, president of the National Laymen's League who will deliver addresses.

Many others will participate as session theme speakers and panelists. Listening to them will be messengers representing 312,000 members of 1700

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Dr. Robert Wilson of Jacksonville, Florida; George L. Brown, E. L. Kirby, and President Strasser of Shaw University who will deliver sermons; Dr. R. M. Pitts, president of our state convention; Val Washington, Director of Minorities, Republican National Committee; James S. Steward, representing the Democratic Party; and Mr. Allen Jordan, president of the National Laymen's League who will deliver addresses.

Many others will participate as session theme speakers and panelists. Listening to them will be messengers representing 312,000 members of 1700

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Dr. Robert Wilson of Jacksonville, Florida; George L. Brown, E. L. Kirby, and President Strasser of Shaw University who will deliver sermons; Dr. R. M. Pitts, president of our state convention; Val Washington, Director of Minorities, Republican National Committee; James S. Steward, representing the Democratic Party; and Mr. Allen Jordan, president of the National Laymen's League who will deliver addresses.

Many others will participate as session theme speakers and panelists. Listening to them will be messengers representing 312,000 members of 1700

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

NCC Prof On Staff For Nixon

DURHAM — Dr. Helen Edmonds professor of history at North Carolina College, has been appointed as one of the 40 new members to the national advisory committee of women for Nixon-Lodge.

Function of the committee is to activate national women leaders in the fields of civic affairs, professions and business at the national level. They will serve as advisors to the three Republican co-chairmen on policy matters which cut across party lines to seek support of Democrats and Independents as

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"Be ye perfect, even as your father in heaven is perfect."
OFFICIAL EXPOSURE

Now that the N. C. Civil Rights Advisory Commission has pointed out the not too cleverly disguised scheme this state is using to circumvent the school integration mandate, it is to be hoped that this exposure will spur the efforts of

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

NKRUMAH SPEAKS IN HARLEM—Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah addresses crowd in front of the Hotel Theresa in Harlem. Nkrumah declared the 20,000,000 American Negroes constituted the strongest link between the people of North America and Africa. The rally was the last official activity attended by Nkrumah before he departed by plane for home. Police estimated the crowd at 1,000 persons. (UPI PHOTO).

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- Carolina Builders Corp.
- Caveness Insurance Agency
- 1-Up Bottling Co.
- Dillon Motor Finance Co.
- Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh
- Warren Memorial Hospital
- Fayetteville St. Baptist Church
- Deluxe Hotel
- Page 11
- Kretz
- Page 12
- Branch Banking & Trust Co.
- Brooks Appliance Co.
- Hankers Fire Ins.
- Community Florist
- Central Drug Store
- Nacon's Barber Shop
- Gem Watch Shop
- Standard Concrete Products Co.
- Raleigh Seafood Co.
- Acme Realty Co.
- Raleigh Funeral Home
- Dunn's Esso Service
- Hunt General Tire Co.
- Page 18
- Sunshine Bakery
- Carolina Power & Light Co.
- Gus Russo's Hairdressing & Cleaners
- United Rent-Alls
- O. E. Clothing Co.

BE SURE TO REGISTER. MONDAY, OCT. 16, IS THE DEADLINE