CARNEGIE AWARD TO MRS. STITCH

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) June 5, in an attempt to save apprentice boxer Charles L. Oliver, 25, from the Ohio River. Stitch, had been previously awarded the Silver Medal earlier this year for saving a fisherman from drowning. Stitch is the third double award winner for heroism in the 56-year history of the commission.

Oliver and Stitch were wading along the concrete sill of a dam in the Ohio River when Oliver lost his footing and was washed from the still into the river, pulling Stitch with him. After becoming separated, Oliver, inert, sank near a pier of the bridge.

Stitch swam 100 feet to the spot where Oliver had disappeared. Leaving wadeable water close to the pier, the courageous Stitch made a surface dive and then reappeared some 10 feet in the deep water. Again Stitch submerged only this time time he did not return. Several hours later both bodies were recovered.

As a fighter, Stitch had won 27 of 34 fights, 13 of them by knock-

CLINTON- The Social Studies Department of the Sampson High School sponsored an African Studies Workshop recently

The Workshop lasted for three days, at which time, Dr. S. M. Broderick, a Fulbright visiting professor at A&T College in Grensboro, from Sierra Leone, Africa served as consultant.

The theme of the workshop was "Enrichment Through Study and Research'. The purposes were as follows: 1. To enhance the interest of students, parents and teachers in African Studies. 2. To create among the students, parents, and teachers a better understanding and more appreciation for African Culture and way of life. 3. To form an outline to serve as a guide in the workshop of African Studies.
