TERRY SANFORD

JOHN F. KENNEDY . . President-elect

VOTING HEAVY IN RALEIGH - This is a scene recorded at Raleigh precinct 26 Tuesday, located at J. W. Ligon School, as voters turned out in large numbers to cast their ballots in the general election. (STAFF PHOTO BY CHAS. R. JONES) maintains that denial of membership denies him a number of privileges, including that of practicing

Attorneys for the socities argued that Dr. Hawkins failed to establish denial of constitution-

The NAACP, which is supporting Dr. Hawkins' action, says the case is the first civil rights test

The suit maintains that the den-state society elects members of the State Board of Dental Examiners.

both sides to submit written briefs not later than Dec. 1. "I'll rule on them a short time after that," he

Carolina, held its 93rd Annual Session at the Ebenezer Baptist Church of Wilmington, October 31-Novem-

Warlick instructed attorneys on of practices by professional organi-al rights by the societies.

Judge To Decide Dentist's Suit

Judge Wilson Warlick will rule la- nald A. Hawkins, who contends ter this year on a motion for dis- the societies denied him membermissal of a Charlotte Negro den- ship because of sace. Dr. Hawkins tist's suit for membership in local and state dental socitities.

The motion was made last Monday by attorneys for the societies.

Terrorists Nabbed By Tenn. Cops tal societies, in effect, assume a state administrative function. The claim is based on the fact that the MEMPHIS. Tenn. -A gang of about 25 youths, armed with shotguns, clubs and bricks, terrorized a neighborhood near downtown Memphis Friday night, but scattered when police converged on the Six of the persons were arrested.

Police said one of them, Robert Stovall, 27, carried an old-fashioned muzzle loading shotsup and well-Six of the persons were arrested. muzzle loading shotgun nad yellthat "I'm going to kill every white person in this neighborhood. At least two shots were fired, but apparently hit nothing. Ed Scott, 19, told officers Stovall broke into his house about 10 p.m. Friday night and stole the shotgun. The area, consisting largely of apartment buildings, includes both Negro and white residents.

One of the white residents said the youths were members of a socalled "Bandaid gang", who wear ual signififance and financial sup- in Reidsville and High Point, readhesive strips on their faces for port. identification purposes.

The gang is said to have hurled elubs and bricks at several resi-

"I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not." IT'S NOW UP TO YOU

Maybe your candidates won last week, maybe they did not. Really, that's not too important now. What is important is the fact that the winners won whether you voted for them or not and they will be your governing officials for the next several years. These newly elected officials are no more inclined in your behalf than their predecessors were. In fact, if they are allowed to, they will ignore your needs, your rights, your liberties and your very citizenship if you allow them to do so. Thats' the way it has always been, nationally, regionally and

However, this is a new day, you are now awake, you know that party candidates and pre-election promises mean nothing. You have learned to go to bat for the things that are rightfully yours, knowing that as long as you fight the right kind of fight for the things freely given to every other racial group you can be sure that your heaven- had presented his credentials in a ceremony in Flagstaif House, Accre, Ghana. (UPI TELEPHO-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Kennedy, Sanford Victorious As

Demos Win In Nation, State

Precincts Report Record Voting In Wake County

Raleigh's three predominantly Negro voting precincts reported heavy balloting Tuesday as Sen. John F. Kennedy became President-elect of the United States and Terry Sanford won out as governor of North Carolina. Both men are Over 70 million votes were reported cast throughout the nation with North Carolina casting some wo and one-half million votes. In Raleigh, precinct 20, located at Lucille Hunter School. counted 897 votes for Kennedy and 130 for Nixon. Precinct 25, Junior-Senior High School, gave Kennedy 1,013 votes and Nixon 209. At pre-Building, Kennedy garnered 364 votes to 96 for Nixon. The Vice-President was expected to concede defeat at CAROLIN-IAN press time Wednesday.

Kennedy's victory was apparent Wednesday morning after California swung its electoral votes to him. As late as 9:30 am. Wednesday he lacked 8 electoral votes for the 269 needed to win.

Republican candidate for governor. Robert L. Gavin, conceded defeat to democrat Terry Sanford at 6:30 a.m.

Long lines of voters were (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 20, NO. 5

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1960

400 Parents Seek Ouster Of One Raleigh Student

an Drives Truck Over Brother

Accompany Principal, Tutor:

Two Ligonites On Anniversary Panel

School, Mrs. T. T. Daley, counselor and two honor students took part in North Carolina Coleige's fiftieth anniversary celebrat.on by serving on panels Wednesday, November 9 at the College's auditorium and Education Puilding.

The two honor students, Misses Lloydine Perry and Brenda Dawson were discussion leaders, with several other select high school students. Miss Perry, daughter of Ligon's

Are My Hopes and Aspirations in Terms of Education Beyond High, School." Miss Dawson's topic was "To What Extent Do I Feel That College Can Help Me Realize My Goal?" Mr. Brown served with A. H. in Winston-Salem on a panel in the Education Building at 2:00. The top-(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ry, talked from the topic, "What

MISS BRENDA DAWSON

Of North Carolina's Baptists

Under the leadership of the pres- dent W. R. Strassner of Shaw Uniident, Dr. R. M. Pitts, this session versity; Reverends E. L. Kirby and was unusually successful in spirit- George Brown, pastors of churches

Baptist State Convention of North four-day session. The sermons and Church, Jacksonville, Florida.

addresses were soul-stirring and thought-provoking. Inspirational messages were delivered by Presiectively; and by a guest minister.

DRINK TOAST - Major Mesfin Begashet, left, the Ethiopian ambassador to Ghana, drinks toast to Ghana-Ethiopian solidarity with Ghana President Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, after Begashest

Many addresses on various subjects, ranging from religion to the national election, were heard. Among these were the president's annual address; and adresses by Val Washington and J. S. Stewart, representing

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

MISS LLOYDINE PERRY

"Accident" Claimed By Defendant

HAMLET-W. F. Leviner, 30, has been charged with murder in the death of his brother, whose body was found on Highway 381 last Deputy Sheriff E. B. Terry said the man admitted running over Anderson, principal of Atkins High A. L. Leviner, on the night of October 22, but that the defendant said his brother's death was an ac-

Terry said Leviner's death followed an argument between the two men over the attentions of Mrs. Martha Leviner. who is no relation to either

Mrs. Leviner told a preliminary hearing last Friday that she started to leave the two men after the ar-CONTINUED ON PAGE 29

Teachings In State Criticized

JACKSON, Miss.-An organization of Methodists complained Sunday that Mississippi Methodist students were subjected to pro-integration teachings at a recent church conference held in North Carolina. The Mississipp Association of Methodist and Laymen, an unofficial group, said in its monthly publication that it was informing 'our readers of the dangerous trends that are developing within a segment of our church."

It said an "informant" who attended the Wesley Founda-(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Intervention Sought By Dr. M. L. King

RICHMOND, Va. - Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., called for strong federal intervention to break down segregation barriers in the south last week

Dr. King, who made headlines two weeks ago when he was sentenced to four months in a Georgia prison on a traffic charge, told newmen the end of sergegation "depends on the vigor with which the next administration acts."

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News

LOCAL NAAOP ANNOUNCES

RALEIGH-President John Williams, Jr., announced this week that the monthly meeting of the Raleigh branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be held Sunday. November 20 at the Fayette-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 1)

PASSENGER ON ILL-FATED PLANE-California Poly technic College football player General Owens, Jr., a passenger on the team-chartered plane that crashed last week killing 22 otners on reads a newspaper account of the accident while in Mercy Hospital, Toledo, Ohio. Ironically, prior to the team's departure for Bowling Green, Owens' teammates pasted pictures of plane crashes on his locker, teasing him over his dislike of flying. (UPI

250 PTA Workers Attend Convention

ent-Teacher Association, along with delegates, gathered at Scotland Neck last Saturday for the convention of the North Carolina Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers' District Three. Brawley High School was the scene of the session. J. C. Bias is principal of the school. The conference, under the direction of its new president, Mrs. Lillian S. Freeman of Raleigh, chose as its theme, "Quality Parent-Teacher Associations For Optimum Growth. The program began at 10 a.m. with a brief devotional period, including music by the Brawlev High School giee club, under the direction of B. L. Tayfor. Among those extending greetings were the superintendent of Halifax County Schools, W. Henry Overman.

The speaker for the day was Dr. Grady Davis, dean, School of Re-

Marine Killed NEW WERN-A 29-year-old

Marine, walking in the center lane of U. S. Highway 70 was killed last Friday when he was struck by two automobiles. Highway Patrolman T. M. Herring said Sgt. Robert Hollier was struck first by a car driven by William L. McCabe of Morehead City. A few seconds later, a car driven by Thomas Tick of Cherry Point ran over the muss. No charges were filed pending a completion of in-

SCOTLAND NECK-More than ligion, Shaw University, Raleigh. 250 interested workers in the Par- Dr. Davis spoke from the subject: "The Holistic approach to personality, growth and development." "The home, the school, the church and the community, all have vital parts to play in the development

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

John Wolfe, Marion County sheriff, said police were unsue cessful in using tear gas to flush Graham from the house, but did set the frame dwelling tranged wife.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Integration

At Murphey

Is Opposed

7, from Murphey Elementary

School is being sought by more

Young Campbell is the only Negro student attending a previously

The parents asked the Raleigh School Board Tuesday to reassign the second grade student to another school. No other school was specified in the Acting as spokesman for the parents was James H. Pou Bailey, &

Raleigh lawyer. Segregationist Dr.

I. Beverly Lake, unsuccessful candidate for governor, also was pres-

The matter was taken under consideration by the Board and if any action comes it will be during the

Campbell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Sr., 804

E. Edenton Street. He attended

St. Monica's Catholic School last year, and was admitted to

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Irate Man

Kills Wife,

GLADE SPRINGS, Va .- Police officers laid siege to a home here

Monday where a man fled late

Sunday ngiht after allegedly killing three persons, including his es-

Douglas Winfield Graham, 36, described as "just a mean fellow."

held off several state and local officers with a hing-powered rifle all-white school in Raleigh.

petition, however.

ent at the meeting.

December meeting.

than 400 parents.

CAROLINIAN .

Poluxe Botel
PAGE 12
Person St. Crown Station
Smith Coal & Oil Co.
Public Service Co. of N. C.
S. M. Young Bardware
PAGE 12
Property Barber Shop PAGE 3

Earton's Cash Store
Carolina Buick Co.
C. Karl Lichtman
PAGE 3
John W. Winters & Co. Micchanics & Farmers Bank Maus Piano Co., Inc. Firestone Stores PAGE 5 Baleigh Savings & Loan Ass'n PAGE 6 Carolina Power & Light Co. City Finance Co.

O. K. Clothing Co.
Brooks Appliance Co.
Dove Music Co.
Electrical Wholesalers, Inc.
Sunshine Bakery

PAGE 7 Sanders Motor Co. PAGE 8
Colonial Stores, Inc.
First-Citizens Bank & Trust Co.
Taylor Eadlo & TV Service R. S. Quinn Furniture Co., Modern Finance Corp. PAGE 9 Efird's of Raleigh AAP Food Stores PAGE 10 Bloodworth St. Tourist Home Ridgeway' Opticians Carolina Builders Corp.

Caveness Insurance Agency 7-Up Bottling Co. Dillon Motor Finance Co. Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh Warner Memorials

Fayettsville St. Baptist Church

PAGE 13 Browning Barber Shop Sherman's Gulf Service G. S. Tucker Bros. The Capitol Bargain Store Sky-View Drive-In Sky-View Drive-in Restful Pines Country Club & Motel
City Finance Co.
Heilig-Levine Furniture Co.
Macon's Earber Shop Mac's Esso Servicenter
Davidson Sundries & Associates
Guick-Clean Washerette
Theim's Record Shop
Raleigh Furniture Stork
Long Meadow Farma
The Shoe Box
Rajor Finance Co.
Dunston's Texaco Service
Charles Dept. Store
Joy's American Grill
Thomas Food Market
The Shoe Mart
Union Finance Co. Mac's Esso Servicenter Union Finance Co. Union Finance Co.
FAGE 16
Ambassador Theatre
Rhodes, Inc.
Runt General Tire Co.
Dunn's Esso Sorvice
Ealeigh Feneral Home
Acme Mostly Co.
Ealeigh Seafcod Co.
Gene Watch Shop
Standard Concrete Products Co.
Esranch Sanking & Trust Co.