The Man Christ

EDITOR'S NOTE—In keeping with the holiday season, The CAROLINIAN is passing on to its readers a selected poem on the Christ Child. This poem has been widely read and it is acclaimed as one of the best ever written about Jesus.

He built no temple, yet the farthest sea
Can yield no shore that's barren of His place
For bended knee.
He wrote no book, and yet His words and prayer
Are intimate on many myriad tongues,
Are counsel everywhere.
The life He lived has never been assailed,
Nor any precept, as He lived it, yet
Has ever failed.
He built no kingdom, yet a King from youth
He reigned, is reigning yet; they call His realm
The kingdom of the Truth. —THERESE LINDSEY
