

Pres. Kennedy, Local Judge Threatened

Ex-Patient Writes Note To President

FAYETTEVILLE—Robert James Evans, 19, a former mental patient, was charged last Friday with threatening the life of President John F. Kennedy in a note written at the bottom of a draft board notice.

The threat was mailed to the Selective Service Board No. 16, located in New York City. The board had issued the notice to the youth, who is the son of a part-time minister and janitor. Evans was committed to the State Hospital for Negroes at one time, but was released last year.

Agents of the Secret Service said the note said: "Why don't you start the 20th of this month (Jan. 20—the date of Kennedy's inauguration) with Kennedy the victim. I don't dig him. If

HARRASSED—Appeal of the breach of peace conviction of NAACP Field Secretary Philip Savage will be heard this week. Savage was jailed while securing first-hand information on food, clothing and housing needs of Haywood and Fayette County, Tennessee Negroes. He is still on duty in the crisis area.

NAACP of Region In S. C. Meet

BY J. B. HARREN

GREENVILLE, S. C.—This Palmetto State textile city is working hard to see to it that the 9th Annual NAACP Southeastern Regional Conference meeting here February 16-19 is a success and an inspiration to freedom-seeking race citizens.

Some five hundred adult and youth NAACP officers and members are expected to take part in the four days of seminars, panels and mass meetings to be held at the Springfield Baptist Church, 602 East McBee Street.

Mrs. Ruby Hurley, Atlanta, Ga., Southeast Regional Secretary, is director of conference. She will be ably assisted by the Rev. A. Leon Lowry, president, Florida NAACP Conference; and Atty. D. L. Hollowell, chief counsel in the University of

Jurors Indict Terrell

WINSTON-SALEM —An indictment was returned by the Forsyth County Grand Jury this week against Andrew I. Terrell, former business manager of Winston-Salem Teachers College, charging him with 26 counts of embezzlement and forgery.

Terrell, who acted as business manager of the college for 32 years, was charged with embezzling $2,273 from 1957 through 1959. The indictment also accused him of obtaining $1,176 by forgery from 1952 through 1959.

The indictment was returned Monday by the U. and Jury, shortly after the current term of criminal court began. Court officials say Terrell's trial may be taken up during the current two-week term.

Terrell resigned as business manager of the school after shortages were found in its books. Ten war-

'YM' Youth Will Hold Talks Here

Plans for a state-wide YWCA Youth Conference to be held in Raleigh, April 21, 22, 23 were discussed at the Bloodworth Street YMCA on Sunday. The three-day meet will be co-sponsored by the "Y" and the J. W. Ligon High School.

Around 100 youth leaders and their advisors from YM-CAs and schools throughout the state attended the planning session and discussed plans as presented by H. E. Brown, Principal of the high school and E. L. Raiford, general secretary of the "Y".

The conference theme adopted for the meeting is "The Role of Youth on the New Frontiers" and adult leaders in various fields will serve as resources for discussion groups. Other features will include the opening session with a nationally known key-note speaker, business sessions, social events, banquet, city tour and conference sermon.

Local citizens will be requested to open their homes to delegates who will come to Raleigh for the conference. Accommodations for around 300 boys and girls will be needed.

This Youth Conference was organized in Raleigh around 30 years ago and has met in annual session since its beginning.

Smith Hosts PTA Sessions At Charlotte

CHARLOTTE — PTA workers braved the snow, sleet and ice to attend the 1961 sectional PTA workshop held at J. C. Smith University, Saturday, Feb. 4.

Delegates re-evaluated and re-constructed goals, explored methods and ways of achieving appropriate solutions to many issues, problems as well as opportunities as attention was focused on the provocative and timely conference theme: "From Responsibility to Action Through Quality Parent-Teacher Associations."

Eleven PTA units were enrolled and the fuel for the one-day conference was generated by the par-

NEW MANHATTAN BOROUGH PRESIDENT — Domestic Relations Court Justice Edward R. Dudley (left) is sworn in by Mayor Robert Wagner at City Hall, New York, Jan. 31st, after the former was chosen Manhattan Borough president by a 4-2 vote of Manhattan City Councilmen. Dudley was the personal choice of Wagner, who pitted his political prestige against that of Tammany leader Carmine De Sapio. The latter favored Assemblyman Lloyd E. Dickens for the post. Dudley, 50, and Dickens, like discredited former Borough President Hulan Jack, are Negroes. (UPI PHOTO).

Fisherman's Death Is Big Mystery

THE CAROLINIAN

VOL. 20, NO. 18 RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1961 PRICE 15c

Three N. C. Cities Involved

Indians 'Mix' Schools

10 Indians Move From Dunn Area

DUNN — Ten Indian students, barred from white schools here, have enrolled in white schools in Raleigh, Greensboro and High Point, rather than attend schools in Sampson County, it was revealed this week.

Attending Ferndale Junior High School at High Point are two of the students. Two attend St. Pius X, a Catholic school in Greensboro, and six more are attending Cathedral Latin High School in Raleigh.

All are living temporarily with white families in the three cities while their cases are pending in the courts.

Indian students in Harnett Co. became known national-

STAGES GUN BATTLE—Tellus Fitch, center, is held by Patrolmen Charles Leary, left, and Edward Skrovinski at the Elizabeth, New Jersey police station last week. He was arrested after he staged a gun battle with police from his apartment in a public housing project. One patrolman was slightly wounded. Fitch was subdued with tear gas. (UPI PHOTO).

'NAACP Day' Endorsed By 15 Churches

Ralph Campbell, president of the Raleigh branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, reported this week that fifteen Raleigh churches will take part in "NAACP Day" observance Sunday, February 12.

Local ministers have assured the organization full cooperation in the celebration of the 52nd anniversary of the NAACP, said Campbell. Although a list of the churches could not be obtained from the NAACP president, it is believed that most churches in the city are involved.

Speakers at the churches will be members of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity of Shaw Uni-

Ex-Teacher Edward Dudley Named Borough President

NEW YORK (ANP) — A judge who claims he was accorded his first respect as a man by whites in New York is now Manhattan's top executive.

This happened when Domestic Relations Court Justice Edward R. Dudley was elected president of the Borough of Manhattan, succeeding Hulan E. Jack, convicted on conflict of interest charges.

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"God has not given us the spirit of fear."

SOME GAINS: The current fight on the local scene to bring about a better distribution of job opportunities is stepping up its pace.

Dudley, a native of Roanoke, Va., said he had never been accorded the respect as a man until he spent a summer in Long Island managing a club for wealthy white business executives.

They called him Ed instead of "boy" or "George" to which he had been accustomed in the South.

Was Bitter Contest

Dudley's election to the $25,000 per year job ended a lengthy and sometimes bitter contest for the post. It also was a victory for Mayor Wagner over his Tammany foe, Carmine De Sapio who had supported Lloyd E. Dickens, an assemblyman.

State News

—IN—

Brief

WAKE COUNTY TEACHERS MEET

METHOD — The Wake County Teachers Association met Wednesday, February 8, at the Berry O'Kelly High School here. The session began at 4:30 p.m. Each committee of the association reported. E. L. Sanders, Sr., president, presided.

FUND-RAISING LICENSES GRANTED

RALEIGH—During the month of January, licenses were granted by the State Board of Public Welfare to thirteen organizations to conduct fund-raising campaigns through public solicitations for the support

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Storekeeper's Burns Fatal; Wife Injured

FAYETTEVILLE—Reuben Melvin, 29-year-old man was killed and his wife was critically burned when fire struck their frame house in the Turnhill Community near here Monday.

Melvin operated a small store in the area. His 31-year-old wife, Mrs. Flora Mae Melvin, was burned critically over her entire body. She also received a deep gash in the arm when she dived through a window of the structure.

Roy Robinson, a neighbor, attempted to enter the house to rescue Melvin, but was driven back by flames.

Origin of the fire could not be

Night Spot Death Case Unsolved

WHITEVILLE — A fisherman from Louisiana, home between seasons, died of a bullet wound during a shooting spree at a night spot near Whiteville early Saturday.

Roosevelt Frink, 30, of the Chadbourn area was the victim. Investigators say he died of a bullet wound in the body which was inflicted during a fight at the "Black-And-Tan," one mile west of Whiteville on the Pinehog Road, sometime after midnight last Friday.

Law enforcement officers in Columbus County are still investigating, under the direction of Sheriff Ben Duke.

A native of Columbus County, Frink had been working as a fisherman out of Louisiana for several years.

Six Months Added To First Term

Jesse Lee Hinton, 20, who was found guilty in City Court Monday of intimidating a witness, had his sentence increased minutes later after officers said he threatened the judge.

City Court Judge Prewitt Winborne was told by Det. Sgt. W. F. Crocker that Hinton said, "Anything the judge can give me, I'll see that he gets it back doubled. I'll see that the judge gets taken care of."

He was involved in a case with Norman Jiles, local grocer, whom one witness said threatened him "Al Capone style" recently. This witness

NORMAN JILES

WEATHER

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning Thursday, February 9, and continuing through Monday, February 13, is as follows:

Temperatures will average 5 degrees below normal. There will be a slow warming trend during the first of the period and a little colder about Sunday. Normal high and low temperatures will be 52 and 32. Precipitation will be heavy and will average about an inch. Clearing is expected Saturday and Sunday.

STATE'S ONLY NEGRO WOMAN LAWMAKER — Democrat, Mrs. Bessie Allison Buchanan (above), assemblywoman from New York City's 12th District, is the first Negro woman to serve in either legislative chambers in the State's 187-year history. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2: Horton's Cash Store, Lisk Clothing Co., Capital Ice & Coal Co.
- PAGE 3: The Capital Coca-Cola Bottling Co., First Citizens Bank & Trust Co., Shoe Mart
- PAGE 5: Hudson-Belk Co., Town & Country Furniture, Mechanics & Service, O'Neal Motors, Inc., Turner's Florist, Devo Music Co., Brooks Appliance Co., Correll Coal Co., Firestone Stores, Sunshine Bakery
- PAGE 7: Eureka Realty Co., Inc., Tire Sales & Service, O'Neal Motors, Inc., Atlantic Seafood, Devo Music Co., Thomas Food Store
- PAGE 8: Colonial Stores, Lawrence Bros. Co., R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
- Modern Finance Corp., Taylor Radio & TV Service, C. Karl Lichtman, Washington Terrace Apts., Inc.
- PAGE 9: Cameron-Brown Co., Branch Banking & Trust Co., S. M. Young Hardware Co., Hum General Tire Co., Standard Concrete Products Co., Ambassador Theatre, Major Finance Co., Inc.