Boy, 13, Is Victim:

Stray Bullet Kills Boy

Bystander Shot; Man In Custody

FOREST CITY — James Hampton, 13, of Forest City died last weekend in a local hospital after being hit by a stray bullet. Police are holding a South Carolina youth in connection with the slaying of the youth who was passing by a group of persons arguing after a basketball game. Officers said young Hampton was shot in the head by a stray bullet from inside a dance hall, Alonzo Littlejohn, 20, of Gaffney, S. C., was charged in connection with the slaying. Deputy Sheriff Miles Cooper said the argument developed at a dance hall after a high school basketball game at Spindale. He quoted witnesses as saying that a group ranged up on a companion of Littlejohn, who went to his car, got a pistol and returned to the hall. He then began firing, it was reported. His companion was wounded in the shooting.

Uprisings Staged In Many Areas

ELISABEVILLE, Katanga— The death of Patrice Lumumba, 35, ex-premier of the Congo, was announced by the Katanga government Monday. The government defied the United States or anyone else to do anything about it. President Moise Tshombe's office said the deposed Lumumba's body lies in an unmarked grave and the village tribesmen who slew him are going to receive $8,000 as a reward for capturing a criminal. Tshombe was an arch foe of Lumumba. Following the announcement, rioting broke out in many areas, including Russia, where African students are studying. Crowds converged on many embassies, including those of the United States in
