Winters Seeks Council Post Rights Body Will Meet

JOHN W. WINTERS

Aspirant's Platform Revealed

John W. Winters, local contractor and builder, announced Wednesday his intention to run for a seat on Raleigh's seven-member City Council. Winters made his announcement official by paying his filing fee Wednesday afternoon.

A native of Raleigh, Winters has been engaged in the building of homes in the Raleigh area for the past several years. His work in this field has attracted local attention.

In addition to his building activities, he is the sales agent for Raleigh's first low cost, FHA financial housing project for Negroes. Realizing the need and the desire for homes for persons with higher incomes, Winters has just

HELD IN STABBING — Freddie Green, 18-year-old supermarket porter, is being held in jail in Memphis, Tenn., charged with a fatal attack on a 13-year-old white girl, whose body was found in the basement of the supermarket last week. Police said the youth admitted stabbing Miss Sharon Vaden, of Olive Branch, Miss., when she resisted his advances. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

To Discuss Reports On Equality

GREENSBORO—The North Carolina Civil Rights Advisory Committee will hold a meeting Saturday at 2 p.m. in the courtroom of the Duke University Law School in Durham.

Headed by McNeill Smith of Greensboro, the committee will receive reports of its standing committees studying equal protection of the law for all citizens in North Carolina with respect to voting, education, housing, administration of justice, and employment.

Smith said the meeting is open to the public and complaints if any, will be received.

He also said that all complaints should be in writing and that voting complaints are required by law to be both in writing and under oath.

Oral statements will be received as the agenda permits, Mr. Smith stated.

CORE Sued By Theatre Operators

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Lexington CORE and seven of its members were named in an injunction suit filed last week by the operators of the Strand Theatre to prevent stand-ins.

The theatre, owned by the Schine Circuit, contends that stand-ins by CORE members "have created a situation of danger and unrest that is likely to result in injury or bloodshed, if permitted to continue."

Charges Dismissed

Three days before the injunction was requested, six CORE members

"In all thy ways consider Him"

SHARING RESPONSIBILITIES: In announcing his candidacy for a seat on Raleigh's City Council, John W. Winters points to the fact that all of this city's citizens must share in its responsibilities.

This is true in more than one way. Although far too many of our group shrink their responsibilities by failing to register and vote, failing to take part or be interested

Mom Waives Hearing In Two Deaths

WINSTON-SALEM—Mrs. Jeanette Christine Higgins, 21-year-old mother, waived preliminary hearing Monday and was bound over to Superior Court on charges of manslaughter in the deaths of her two small children.

The children suffocated at their home February 19 while their mother was reportedly out on a date, officers said.

The woman, who is separated from her husband, arrived home soon after firemen had found the dead children, Victoria 3, and Richard Lee, 2. They suffocated from a smoldering mattress in the bathroom.

Mrs. Higgins told police that she

White N. C. College To Admit Congolese

DAVIDSON (ANP)—A Presbyterian college, Davidson, which refuses to accept American Negroes as students, in a surprise action, voted last week to admit three Congolese students for the fall semester next September.

Meanwhile, Wake Forest college in Winston-Salem, at the urging of its students, voted to admit an African student, but first voted to admit American Negroes.

In order to admit the three Congolese students, Davidson which has an enrollment of approximately 1,000 had to raise its limit of foreign students from 16 to 19.

It now has students from England, The Netherlands, Germany, Switzerland, Sweden, Argentina, Colombia, South Africa, India and Austria.

The action at Wake Forest resulted when students raised funds to provide a scholarship for an African.

Mother, 2 Children Stage Auto Sit-In As Bank Acts

SAN FRANCISCO (ANP)—Mrs. Donald A. Lewis took a page out of the book of the militant Negro students of the South here last week and staged a sit-in to prevent the repossession of her automobile.

A tow truck had already hitched up the car preparatory to hauling it away when Mrs. Lewis and her two children jumped in the car and refused to budge.

For four hours, bank officials and a policeman pleaded with Mrs. Lewis to leave the car. She rolled up the windows, smoked, read a magazine and ignored them. The two boys played in the back seat.

Hodges Says He Must Now Serve All

WASHINGTON (ANP)—Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges, told a group of North Carolinians last week that he had now begun to realize that in his position he must serve all people.

Speaking at a banquet given at the Sheraton-Park hotel by the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, the former governor of that state said it took him a little while to get accustomed to the fact that he was not serving North Carolina alone but all of the people.

As proof of his realization that all people must be served equally, the Commerce Secretary spoke highly of his newly appointed assistant director of public information, Franklin Whittaker, formerly with the Pittsburgh Courier, Secretary

State News Brief

INFANT'S BODY DISCOVERED — WILSON—The body of a premature baby was found in the city disposal sewage plant No. 2 here Friday afternoon. Men working at the plant, located on the Stationburg Road, found the body in the water and notified officers and Dr. R. E. Goudy, city-county coroner. The identity of the infant had not been made known at press time.
