Maple Temple Church News

BY MISS LENA M. EURE

On Sunday, March 26, morning service began at the Maple Temple Christian Church at 9:30 with Sunday School. Mr. Charles Haywood, superintendent, was in charge.

At 11:00 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. M. F. Booker, made the call to worship and the senior choir marched in singing "At the Cross." After the choir had taken its place, it sang "The Lord is In His Holy Temple."

We were then led in prayer by our pastor as Miss Bonnie Booker sang very beautifully "The Lord's Prayer."

The first hymn by the combined voices of the junior and senior choirs was "He Lives." The scripture lesson was then read by the pastor from the 11th chapter of the gospel according to St. Mark, verses 1-23. We were then led in prayer by Deacon Otis Whitley.

The mission offering was lifted as the junior choir sang "All Hail, Immanuel!" Deacon Eddie McBride asked God's blessings over this offering.

The announcement of the week and the introduction of the visitors then took place.

The general offering was lifted as the senior choir sang the anthem "The Lord is My Strength and Salvation." This offering was consecrated with the singing of the same hymn.

The theme of the pastor's sermon was "God cannot use you if you are tired."

Before the pastor began his beautiful Palm Sunday sermon, Miss Bonnie Booker sang "It Was Alone."

The pastor's sermon was centered around the second verse of the 11th chapter of St. Mark which reads "And saith unto them, go your way into the village over against you; and as ye shall find a colt tied, wherupon never man sat, loose him, and bring him."

This was a very wonderful Palm Sunday message and enjoyed by a capacity audience.

An invitational hymn was then offered by the choir.

With the singing of the doxology and the pronouncing of the benediction the morning worship service was ended.

On Sunday night, the senior usher board sponsored a program, "The Most Popular Woman of the Year" on the senior usher board. The two contestants were Mrs. Isabel Jackson and Mrs. Gladys Pretty. Mrs. Pretty was crowned "Woman of the Year" of the Maple Temple Senior Usher Board.

The junior choir furnished music for the occasion.

Sick and Shut-Ins: Mrs. Carolina Woods, Mrs. Texanna Robertson, Mrs. Mary Winters, Mrs. Avery Sanders, Mrs. Frances Lewis, Miss Minnie Douglass and Deacon Ed Reavis.

Maude Long of S. Bloodworth St., Mrs. Annie Glenn of E. Edenton St. and LeVern Hinton of Cotton Place.

Rush Memorial AMEZ Church

BY MRS. ANNIE H. THORPE

It was a beautiful Palm Sunday, and we can boast of a crowded house on last Sunday.

On Palm Sunday, Jesus entered Jerusalem, children and adults acclaimed Him king. They waved palm branches and shouted, "Hosanna! Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord. Then five days later, He was crucified. We, too, can crucify Christ afresh by being unbrotherly, unloving, or disobedient.

Promptly at 11 a. m., the call to worship was given by our pastor, Rev. T. H. Harris. Then the senior choir led the processional singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name". After entering the choir loft the Doxology was sung followed by the pastoral prayer and choral response.

The responsive reading was taken from the special reading "Palm Sunday." The Gloria Patri followed. Our 1st hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King," was sung lined by Rev. Harris. Scripture lesson was then read by Rev. Harris from St. Mark's gospel the 11th chapter comprising 15 verses.

Rev. Harris also led us to the throne of grace with his soul-stirring prayer as the choir sang softly "Jesus, I Love You." Our 2nd hymn "Come Sound His Praise Abroad" was sung, the congregation standing and joining in joyfully. Rev. Harris then chose his discourse from the same scripture read 9th chapter of St. Mark 11:9-10 verses. And they that went before, and they that followed cried, saying, Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, 10th. Blessed is the kingdom of our father, David, that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest. Theme: Jesus cometh into Jerusalem being fully assured of a complete victory.

As Christians we need to face life in the spirit of Jesus, to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. Then in the strength of the Lord we too can have victory over all our dark thoughts and fears.

Our thought for the week: This is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith.

Jeffrey's School News

The regular PTA meeting was held Monday night, March 14, with Mr. Calvin Hunter, president presiding. The Grade Mothers met at 7 o'clock with Mrs. Romelia Chavis, chairman and Mrs. A. L. Harrison, leader in charge.

The faculty regrets the passing of Mrs. Ellis' father. He was funeralized from the First Baptist Church of Zebulon where he made his home.

Everyone is planning a happy Easter Monday at home. Following this short Spring break we will return looking forward to all of our April activities.

The Science Fair will be held on April 11th. On that same evening the popular Rhythm Kids from the Blind school will give a concert. April 12, our annual pre-school clinic will be held.

Insects probably outweigh all other animal matter on the land areas of the earth.

It takes the combined efforts of 150,000 insects to make one pound of lac, basis of shellac.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called sons of God."—Matt. 5:9.

Whenever you find that there is inharmonious and discord in your environment, you can help to establish harmonious and happy relations by turning to God in prayer—and then allowing His love to express itself freely through you toward all other persons.

By making a big effort to see others through the eyes of God—with His love in your heart—you will then be able to recognize everyone as a child of the One Father, and consequently no one's behavior will have the power to make you unhappy or to disturb the peace in your world.

Regardless of how disagreeable conditions may seem to be in your work or how difficult you may be, we shall become so filled with you may be sure that persons and conditions cannot help but respond to the love you express toward them. Unhappy conditions are blessed through your being patient, tolerant, and understanding.

By keeping our attention close to God's presence within and about us, we shall become so filled with peace and calm that no condition, no situation, no problem in the world will cause us to be perturbed, fearful, anxious. As we stay near Him in prayer, He will speak words of assurance and comfort to us, and with these words in our hearts, we can transmit nothing but love and kindness to others.

In this way, we are doing our bit to help establish peace. The greatest good we can do for the world at this time is to keep our minds free from fear and hate, to trust in God, to know that He will care for His own.

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye in Jehovah."—Isa. 26:3, 4.

LIGON SCHOOL ITEMS

Miss Mary Smith, a graduate of the Raleigh public schools and Virginia State University, conducted the J. W. Ligon String Ensemble in a concert of delightful music recently in the school's auditorium. Miss Smith and her group performed before the senior high school section.

The string ensemble is made up of students in the 8th through 11th grades and their ability to handle the violins with such satisfying results was an amazing thing to see. They executed the different sounds with the confidence of a pro as Miss Smith reassured them with a smile and a waving hand to guide them on.

The entire audience responded with an enthusiastic applause. To further enrich the program Mrs. E. Maye Morgan Kelly, music director at Ligon, lead the voices of the Boy's Choir in a series of songs. Roderick Taylor, student director, conducted.

The theme of the program, "Music in our Lives", was a fitting topic as the music made one realize the importance of its existence. William Harris served as master of ceremony and narrator.

Insects are found in a greater variety of places and surroundings than any other class of land animals on earth.
