IN TRIUMPHANT MOOD — Garlanded with flowers, Julius Nyerere, slated to become the first Prime Minister of Tanganyika on May 1st, is carried by supporters at the close of a two-day constitutional conference recently. Tanganyika, a United Nations trust territory, which Britain has administered since 1919, is to become independent on Dec. 28th, 1961. The achievement of independence this year is a personal victory for Nyerere. (UPI RADIOTELEPHOTO).

WEATHER

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning Thursday, April 14, and continuing through Monday, April 17, is as follows: Temperatures will average near normal. The high and low temperatures expected are 71 and 48 degrees. There will not be much day-to-day change in the temperatures. ### Maid Shoots Another In Money 'Fuss'

WINSTON-SALEM (ANP)—Police said one maid shot another over a $5 debt on the third floor of City Hospital last week. Some 60 patients are quartered on that floor, but no one else was hurt.

Attorneys To File Again For A Writ

The State Supreme Court ruled that Elmer Davis, Jr. will not be executed, as planned, in the gas chamber here Friday. It was decided that Davis, a Charlotte resident, be granted a stay of execution so that his lawyers may carry another appeal to Federal courts.

Bi-Racial School Bd. Appointed

GRAHAM — The appointment of a bi-racial committee to oversee the operations of the new consolidated high school in Alamance County is looked upon by some as a step in the right direction, but whether this is enough is being questioned by many. The fact that a bi-racial committee was appointed to look after the operations of this one race school seems not to answer the decision of the United States Supreme Court. It could not be ascertained as to why the committee would not be asked to look after all the schools in the county. The special treatment to this particular school is said to have been made after a request was

ODDS-ENDS BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"Walk in the Spirit and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh." LEST WE FORGET "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord, "I will repay." We have always liked that scriptural text. Many times it has prevented us from trying to "pay back" those who had wrongfully misused us. We will never advocate doing evil for evil. On the other hand, we think

STATE'S NEW HOMEMAKERS HONOR THREE HERE — Shown above is a scene recorded during the annual meeting of the state's New Homemakers, which attracted some 1,500 members. Two of the state's most outstanding home economists and a vocational agricultural supervisor were honored in special ceremonies. ### Wheeler Comments On Hiring

WASHINGTON, D. C. — North Carolina will have a reformation in the hiring of Negroes by companies that have government contracts if it is within the power of John H. Wheeler, Durham, N. C., banker, who is a member of the President's Committee on Equal Job Opportunity. Mr. Wheeler met with the cabinet here Tuesday, at the White House and heard President John F. Kennedy say his Administration would work in "a generous spirit", but also "with firmness" to end "once and for all" discrimination in Federal employment and by firms doing business with the government. Upon leaving Durham for the meeting, Mr. Wheeler made a forthright statement that North Carolina has only to establish a
