

Two Ham And Egg Shows End:

CAROLINIAN Buys Johnston's Prize Ham At Event

14th Show Staged At Smithfield

SMITHFIELD—Fourteen dollars per pound ham and $62 per dozen eggs should make a breakfast for anybody, but down here Friday the CAROLINIAN newspaper paid just that for "Grand Champion Ham" while Uphurch Pharmacy purchased the "Grand Champion Eggs." All of this happened at the 14th annual Ham and Egg Show and Sale.

ALEXANDER BARNES ... with award and ham

The ham was produced by Jasper Simms, Rt. 4, Selma, while the eggs were exhibited by Mrs. Esther Mitchener, Rt. 1, Smithfield. The successful bidding by the CAROLINIAN for the coveted ham was the first time that a race institution has

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

300 YMCA Leaders In Meet Here

More than 300 YMCA Youth leaders are expected in the city on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, April 21, 22, 23 to attend the Youth Conference to be sponsored jointly by the J. W. Ligon High School and the Bloodworth Street YMCA. The group will be officially welcomed at the opening session Friday evening by Mayor W. G. Enloe, H. E. Brown, Ligon High principal, Billy Robinson, president of the YMCA Hi-Y and Carol J. Hall of the YWCA. Response on behalf of the Conference will be given by Freddie Hicks, conference vice-president.

The keynote address will be given by Tom Lambeth, administrative assistant to Governor Terry Sanford. He will discuss the conference theme: "The Role of Youth on the New Frontiers."

Activities to be conducted during the three-day meet will include: Group discussions, business sessions, city tour, banquet, prom and sermon on Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church where the address will be delivered by A. T. Spaulding, president of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company.

MASS MEETING SPEAKER — Katanga President Moise Tshombe waves his arms, above, as he declares a general mobilization and exhorts thousands of Katanganese to march on the airport. Following this mass meeting, a mob, armed with spears and clubs, marched on the airport and tore down the U. N. flag as Swedish troops of the U. N. retreated. (UPI PHOTO).

C. Sifford Tops 136 Golfers

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 20, NO. 28

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1961

PRICE 15c

Makes History In South:

"Scared" Man Kills 2

Another In Hospital At Durham

DURHAM — A man was jailed here Sunday night following the fatal shooting of two men and the wounding of another.

James Atkins Webb, 50, was arrested for investigation in connection with the slayings of William Henry Booze, 35, and Ralph Cousins, 27.

The third victim, Prummer Mitchell, 63, was reportedly hit by a stray bullet and is reported in fair condition at a local hospital.

Webb was quoted by police as saying he was standing in the hall of his duplex apartment when Booze and Cousins came into the house and he

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

H. Riddick New Ligon PTA Prexy

Hilton Riddick was installed as president of the J. W. Ligon Junior-Senior High School Parent-Teachers Association Monday night as the final meeting was held in the school's cafeteria. J. C. Washington, outgoing president, congratulated the new president as he came forth to accept the duties of his new office.

Riddick immediately announced the new slogan for the year 61-62 as "Better Than Ever" and began setting up committees. Some of the other officers installed were: Mrs. Catherine Robinson, vice-president; Mrs. Mirale Blakely, secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Allen, assistant secretary; and Mrs. Effie Yeargin, treasurer.

H. E. Brown, principal of Ligon, indicated the progress made this

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CROWDS VOTE IN PRIMARY — Raleigh citizens are shown above preparing to vote at Precinct No. 26, Lucille Hunter School Tuesday as the primary for city council election is held. See story this page. (STAFF PHOTO BY CHAS. R. JONES).

Raleighites Will Honor Harrison Library Staff

The committee on "The Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency", from the Omicron Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., is spear-heading a project to recognize the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Richard B. Harrison Library in Raleigh.

On Tuesday, April 25, at seven o'clock in the evening the Saint Augustine's College Dining Hall will be the scene of a testimonial dinner in honor of the eleven staff members of the public library and its branches.

The honorees include: Mrs. Mollie H. Lee, Mrs. Annie E. Robinson, Miss Maude L. Young, Mrs. Beatrice R. Hamlin, Mrs. Dorothy Jeffers, Sterby L. McFayden, Richard Hunter, Mrs. Augusta Carver, Mrs. Louise Colvin, Mrs. Theroetta Curtis and Mrs. Bernice Rainbow.

Several individuals and many groups and organizations have joined the promoters to make the occasion possible. The following groups and organizations are co-sponsors: Shriners, Kabala Temple No. 177, Friday Evening Book Club, Apex PTA, Baptist Headquarters, Scripps Medical Society, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Garner PTA.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- State News
- IN—
Brief
- SMITH PREXY FOUNDERS' DAY SPEAKER
FAYETTEVILLE — Featuring Dr. Rufus P. Perry, President of Johnson C. Smith University, as the guest speaker, the annual Founders' Day program went forward in the historic Seabrook auditorium Sunday. Dr. Perry spoke to an overflow audience of alumni, former students and friends who came to pay tribute to the institution's founders.
Principal Thomas Williams.
(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)
- PAGE 2
Horton's Cash Store
Lincoln Theatre
PAGE 3
Varina Wholesaler
PAGE 4
Hudson Belk
PAGE 5
Ice Off Club
Lawrence Bros. Co.
S. M. Young Hardware Co.
Sunshine Bakery
Dove Music Co.
Mechanics & Farmers Bank
Carolina Power & Light Co.
PAGE 7
Washington Realty Co.
PAGE 8
Washington Terrace
Lawrence Bros.
C. Karl Lerner
Lawrence Bros.
R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
Modern Finance Corp.
PAGE 9
A&P Stores
Correll Coal Co.
Bankers Fire Insurance Co.
Standard Concrete Products Co.
First Citizens Bank & Trust Co.
- PAGE 10
Ridgeway's Opticians, Inc.
1-Up Bottling Co.
Dillon Motor Finance Co.
Watson's Seafood & Poultry Co.
Bloodworth St. Tourist
Deluxe Hotel
Warner Memorials
Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh
PAGE 11
Raleigh Savings & Loan Ass'n
Cameron-Brown
Lawrence Bros. Co.
Electrical Wholesalers, Inc.
Capital Ice & Coal Co.
PAGE 12
Johnson Lambie, Inc.
Firestone Stores
J. W. Winters & Co.
Thomas Food Store
PAGE 13
Realty Co.
Raleigh Funeral Home
Hunt General Tire Co.
Lawrence Bros.
Taylor Radio & TV
Fighly-Wigly Stores
Ambassador Theatre
Dunn's Esso Service
Raleigh Seafood
Branch Banking & Trust Co.

Thousands Cast Votes In Primary

When the polls closed Tuesday night and the machines at Raleigh's 32 voting places were checked it was revealed that John W. Winters, prominent real estate dealer, had pulled up 8th in a 29-man race for the City Council.

Veteran politicians say that this left Winters in the best position any racial candidate has ever enjoyed since they decided to aspire to help run the affairs of the state's capital city.

N. Dean was no trouble for Judge S. Pretlow Winborne and those who find themselves in the toils of the law, for the next four years, will have to tell him the reason why.

Fourteen anxious candidates must await the May runoff, when the voters will again trek to the polls to pick seven of this number.

A close study of the returns proved that the sentiment of the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

JOHN W. WINTERS ... placed 8th in primary

WEATHER

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning Thursday, April 20, and continuing through Monday, April 24, is as follows: Temperatures will average near or a few degrees below normal. Rainfall should average one-half inch during the period. Slowly rising temperatures are expected with rain likely over the weekend, followed by cooling trend. The normal high and low temperatures will be 73 and 58.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Pro Places Fourth In Greensboro Tournament

Greensboro Hosts 2nd Auctions

GREENSBORO — Charlie Sifford, 36-year-old Charlotte native, made history in southern sports last weekend, although the Greater Greensboro Open Golf Tournament was won by Mike Souchak, who plays out of Grossinger, N. Y. One-hundred and forty golfers entered the tournament.

He paced the tournament on opening day (Thursday) by using 68 strokes to take the first-round lead in the $22,500 tourney. This marked the first appearance of a Negro in a major PGA event in the south.

When the tournament ended Sunday, Sifford had finished fourth by teeing with Canadian Stan Leonard at 285. Each won $1,300.

Sifford rolled in a 35-footer on No. 8 for a bird, his first of the day. He bogeyed Nos. 1 and 3 on missed greens and took a double bogey six on No. 4 when he drove into the trees and three-putted

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CHARLIE SIFFORD, RIGHT, WITH CADDY

Local Man Named To Government Position

Dr. Bunche Condemns Muslims

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A Raleigh man was among two welcomed Tuesday as Labor Department employees, under a program to make more federal jobs available to Negroes.

Those selected and greeted by Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg Tuesday were Samuel T. Gibson, Jr., 23, of Raleigh, and Obie Pinckney, Jr., Columbia, S. C.

Formerly a student at Howard University, Gibson is a graduate of North Carolina College, Durham, and Pinckney is a mathematics graduate of South Carolina State College, Orangeburg.

Following graduation from school this spring, Gibson will become a personnel assistant at $5,355 annual salary and Pinckney a social science analyst at $4,345.

Secretary Goldberg, as vice-chairman of President Kennedy's Committee on Equal Opportunity in the federal government and on federal contracts, heads up a drive to find additional Negroes for the offices.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Rev. Cox To Speak For Elks

The Rev. B. Elton Cox, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of High Point, will speak at the Elks Home during the second Civil Liberties meeting Sunday at 4 p. m.

A graduate of Livingston College, Salisbury, Rev. Cox is well known in High Point and in the state as a militant leader. He is also a graduate of Howard University, School of Religion, Washington, D. C.

As chairman of the youth committee of the NAACP, he has led in the fight for the desegregation of buses.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"No man cometh to the Father but by me."

WE THINK IT IS A DISGRACE — In the City Council Primary John Winters received a total of 3,952 votes. About 2,500 of those votes came from Negroes. Since we have roughly about 5,000 Negroes registered here, the 2,500 votes represents about 50 percent of the total Negro registration.

Winters received around 1,500 votes from white supporters in the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Local Man Named To Government Position

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A Raleigh man was among two welcomed Tuesday as Labor Department employees, under a program to make more federal jobs available to Negroes.

Those selected and greeted by Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg Tuesday were Samuel T. Gibson, Jr., 23, of Raleigh, and Obie Pinckney, Jr., Columbia, S. C.

Formerly a student at Howard University, Gibson is a graduate of North Carolina College, Durham, and Pinckney is a mathematics graduate of South Carolina State College, Orangeburg.

Following graduation from school this spring, Gibson will become a personnel assistant at $5,355 annual salary and Pinckney a social science analyst at $4,345.

Secretary Goldberg, as vice-chairman of President Kennedy's Committee on Equal Opportunity in the federal government and on federal contracts, heads up a drive to find additional Negroes for the offices.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CITED FOR SAVING OFFICER'S LIFE Adding his own personal appreciation to the honor already bestowed by 7th Inf. Div. Commander Maj. Gen. Francis T. Pachler, 1st Lt. Edward J. Murphy (left), Levittown, Pa., thanks and congratulates Sp-5 Clarence Carnes of Paxville, S. C., for saving his life on a mountain ledge last month. Carnes, a senior aid man for Co. B, 7th Medical Bn., used a bayonet to pry open the locked mouth of the 1st Battle Group, 32nd Inf. platoon leader when Murphy was in danger of choking to death on his own blood after falling from a mountain peak. The lieutenant left a hospital bed in Ascom City to be present for the awarding of the Army Commendation Medal to Carnes. (U. S. ARMY PHOTO).

The Primary Is Now History. Don't Forget The May Election