NCC Student Newspaper Is Rated Tops

DURHAM—The North Carolina College student newspaper, the "Campus Echo," has been rated "excellent" by the Associated Collegiate Press, national rating agency at the University of Minnesota.

On the basis of this evaluation, the "Campus Echo" was declared "First Class" among college monthlies in the United States.

Cynthia Jarman, a senior from Trenton, N. C., is editor of the North Carolina College newspaper, which has not been rated below "First Class" in seven years.

The "Echo" was especially cited for its front-page make-up and content, earning the top score of 200 ("superior") in this category. It also received favorable attention for its feature stories.

The editor, Mss Jarman, was selected as a panel participant in the annual meeting of the Associated Collegiate Press in Chicago last November.

Miss Jean Norris, instructor in English, is faculty adviser to the prize-winning "Campus Echo."

A NEW QUEEN — Mary Payne, Rogersville, Tenn., a student in the School of Nursing at A&T College, is crowned "Miss Joint Air Force-Army Corps", by Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, president of the college. The action took place last week at the annual ROTC Ball.

Odd Twists In The News

"THAT WOULD BE HEAVEN ON EARTH!"

PHILADELPHIA (ANP)—An inquiring reporter for a local newspaper last week interviewed a forlorn-looking citizen who had just paid his income and property taxes. He asked the disgruntled individual what changes he would like to make for him to be completely happy and let a smile of joy replace the frown on his aching brow.

The elderly citizen replied: "I'd like to have the wages of 1961; the food, clothing and rent prices of 1923; the stock dividends of 1926 and the taxes of 1910. That sure would be Heaven on Earth!"

"STOP BEEFING ABOUT FOOD PRICES IN U. S. A.!"

MOSCOW, USSR (ANP)—A New Yorker, visiting here last week, was 'fed up' with the lack of fresh meat, milk butter and eggs and the abundance of dried fish and canned meat. Only fresh meats, fruits and vegetables available, at Moscow's Central Market, came from the private lands of peasants, who charged top prices for their products.

The visitor wrote a friend in Manhattan: "Stop beefing about prices in food chain stores. You get your choice of T-Bone, Sirloin, Round or Porterhouse steaks; eggs three dozen for $1.25; butter at 65 or 75 cents; fresh chickens, cut up, 25 or 30 cents a pound, and other foods to suit your fancy. Here's what I get: rough cuts of third-grade beef—with the bone left in, at $2 a pound; eggs, 16 cents apiece; lamb—out; fresh chickens—out; milk and butter, also out. But brother, all the FRIED FISH YOU CAN EAT!"

INDIANS STRIKE 'PAY DIRT' IN FARAWAY OREGON!

LAMATH FALLS, Oregon (ANP)—Merchants here, handling all types of commodities, are still chucking gleefully over the tidal wave of prosperity brought to them, fortnight ago, when the United States paid out 12 million dollars to 300 Klamath Indians, in payment for their reservation of 500,000 acres. Each Indian received $43,000, and then the spending and saving spree started.

One bank reported an increase of $2,500,000 in deposits in 48 hours; an auto dealer sold 15 new cars for cash; some bought new homes, hunting rifles, fishing tackle and home furnishings; one started a checking account with $5,000, then, two days later a check 'bounced, marked NSF' and the Indian promptly deposited $5,000 more. But the prize celebrant was the one taken into 'protective custody' by police who found him in a drunken stupor at a bar, tightly clutching $40,000 IN A SHOPPING BAG!

PRISONER HIDES HIMSELF "HIDING EGGS!"

YUBA CITY, Calif. (ANP) — Elbert Taylor, 46, was back in Cutter County jail last week, after escaping more than a month ago when he was sent out to hide eggs for a community Easter egg hunt. He told deputies that while hiding the eggs he got thinking about his own children in Modesto. "I just had to see them," he said.

And why was Elbert jailed? He got a nine-months sentence FOR FAILURE TO SUPPORT HIS CHILDREN!

FIRED COPS, REHIRED IN 30 MINUTES!

HEARNE, Texas (ANP) — This town is governed by a City Manager, and last week, to show that he is really 'the Boss of Hearne,' officials fired all six of the city's policemen—then 30 minutes later, hired them all back.

Mayor H. C. Kelly said the move was to establish the City Manager's AUTHORITY OVER THE POLICE DEPARTMENT!

High Court Frees Cleric Of Sentence

WASHINGTON (ANP)—The Rev. Lewis Lloyd Anderson of Selma, Alabama, was exonerated by the Supreme Court, Monday, of the charge of manslaughter.

The Alabama minister had been convicted for fatally striking a pedestrian with his car, and was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

The case was appealed to the high court which unanimously reversed the manslaughter conviction on the grounds that no Negroes were serving on the jury which tried him.

It was learned that no Negro has served on a petit jury in Dallas County, Ala. in modern times and only one on a grand jury, even though 53 percent of the males over 21 in that county are Negroes.

The Alabama attorneys argued that the officials had made no efforts to exclude Negroes from the jury. Few are called on each jury panel, they said but they are usually excused by the trial judge.

In its one-sentence decision the Supreme Court cited three cases that held that a defendant is denied his Constitutional rights if Negroes are "systematically excluded" from the jury.

POET'S CORNER

TO MOTHER

What can I say and what can I do
To prove, dear Mother, how much
I love you.
I love you first for giving me
birth and suffering all the pain;
And in spite of all you went through for me, you loved me
just the same.

I thank you for all the love you gave
When I was just a helpless babe.

It was you who taught me how
to walk.
It was you who taught me how
to talk.
It was you who taught me my
first prayer.
And your love is far beyond
compare.

Although now I am a man
I could not have made it without your helping hand.
And time has made your hair
turn gray,
But I love you more from day to day.

And all that I am and ever intend to be
It's you, yes, you, dear Mother,
who made me.

I'm giving you your flowers while
you can smell them;
I don't want to wait 'til after
you've passed away.
For then I will be giving them to
an old house of clay.
But with love so kind and with
love so true
I thank God for giving me a Mother like you.

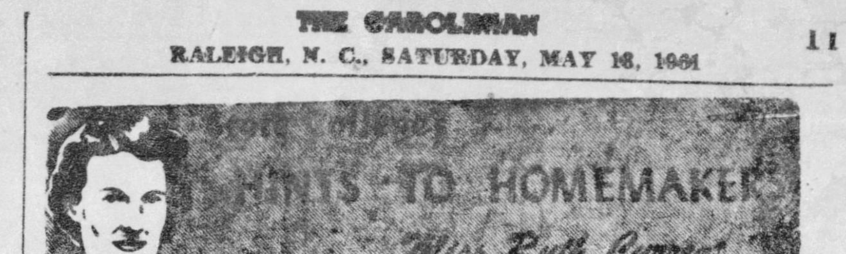
"I suppose you called me in to present me with a handsome refund?"



SPRING CLEANING — Eliminate the annual upheaval known as "spring cleaning." This you can do by scheduling a cleaning job a week the year round so that each room in the house is thoroughly cleaned every six weeks or so. If you will do this, your home will look its best at all times.

Of course, there are certain seasonal chores that you will do in the spring and fall such as closet cleaning, putting away winter clothing and bedding, etc. A constant and continuing program of house cleaning will eliminate the period of complete turmoil once dreaded by every family.

APPETIZERS—Like a hat for a costume, we choose an appetizer to dress up a meal, to key the meal to a certain occasion, give it timely interest and zest, or make it more complete. The appetizer must complement the meal in appeal and flavor and it should whet the appetite for what is to come.

IMPORTANT—Chill fruit juicies and fruit appetizers well! Serve a generous wedge of lemon with tomato juice or fish. Remember, first-course fruit cups should be tart, not sweet. So use little sweetening and plenty of lemon, grapefruit, or orange juce, cranberry pineapple. No heavy syrup fruits.

Soups should be steaming hot with several fresh crisp, crackers, toast sticks, or croutons served to acocmpany them on passed at the table.

"Just look at my lawn! Isn't it a mess?" It sure was, and for good reason.

After a little questioning, I learned that the lady had applied fertilizer a few days before I saw her lawn. I suspected this from all appearances. She had used an 8-8-8 (granular) material, which was all right. However, she had thrown the fertilizer in big handfuls all in spots. The whole lawn was spotted with alternate areas of dead grass.

When fertilizing your lawn, be sure to apply the mixture evenly. If a spreader is used the operation is simple. If you spread by hand, it is a good plan to divide the material in equal parts, for a given area, and apply half in one direction and the other half at right angles to the first. This gives even distribution and will reduce the possibility of burning to a minimum.

Always apply fertilizer when the grass is dry. Use about 20 pounds of an 8-8-8 per 1000-square ft. Top dress with about 10 pounds of nitrate of soda, or its equivalent, per 100 square feet as needed. The number of top dressings will depend upon your soil type, general condition of sod and competition from tree roots.

The best control for weeds in the lawn is a thick stand of grass. If weeds and wild onions persist, spray with 2, 4-D. This material is very effective in controlling most of the weeds and repeated sprayings will get most of the wild onions. Mix solution according to instructions and spray on a calm day, as spray drift is harmful to many ornamental plants.
