Wilmington Restaurant Is Target

WILMINGTON, Delaware — The 134th annual session of the Philadelphia-Baltimore Conference, A. M. E. Zion Church, the first ever held here, will go down as one of the most remarkable for the cause of freedom ever held. This will be due to the fact that the presiding prelate, Bishop R. L. Jones, and the BISHOP READS LETTER OF APOLOGY — The above picture shows Bishop R. L. Jones, 2nd Episcopal District, AME Zion Church, who presided over the 134th annual session of the Philadelphia-Baltimore Conference, at Wilmington, Delaware, last week, as he reads a letter of apology from Mayor John E. Babiak, who looks on. The apology was made as the result of a telegram sent him by the conference, protesting the refusal of a Wilmington restaurant to serve them. Mayor Babiak also vowed to use the influence of his office to make it punishable by fine and/or imprisonment to deny any person service due to race or color. Bishop Jones is a North Carolina resident.

BURNED-OUT BUS — Passengers who were aboard a Greyhound bus sit disconsolately outside the gutted hulk of the vehicle after it was burned by a howling mob of whites outside Anniston, Ala., last week. A mob met the bus carrying a bi-racial integrationist group, stoned it and slashed the tires and then followed the bus out of town and tossed gas bombs in it when it stopped for repairs. Hecklers, Including Tar Heel, Break Up NY NAACP Rally

NEW YORK (ANP) — A small group of hecklers demanding an end to Negro pacifism broke up a Harlem rally last week marking the seventh anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court's school desegregation ruling. Eggs were thrown at Roy Wilkins. Jeers, chants and shouts drowned out speaker after speaker, including Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP. A clergyman was struck by an egg. Wilkins gave up after a few minutes of trying to shout over the din, and the rally came to a noisy close.

The agitators started their heckling soon after the meeting started. They demanded that one of their number, Robert Williams, be permitted to speak. Williams was called to the ro-

Mecklenburg City Scene Of Clashes

CHARLOTTE — Police reported Wednesday of this week that about 175 Negroes and whites gathered near Johnson C. Smith University Tuesday night, but no injuries were reported. The crowd was dispersed with the aid of Dr. Rufus P. Perry, university president. It had been reported earlier that a group of students from the university would join the "Freedom Riders" testing interstate segregation in bus travel in the South. The "Riders" are now in preparing to leave Alabama and

WILL AMERICA FIGHT FOR THE NEGRO? We want to emphasize in the beginning that we cannot in the least, subscribe to the teachings of the self styled, "Black Muslims." What we have heard and seen of them cause us to classify the group as religious fanatics. There are times, however, when the most fanatical will make statements calculated to provoke profound, rational thinking. For example, last week a spokesman for the Muslim group was asked during a TV interview, would the Muslims fight for America. The

WEATHER

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh beginning Thursday, May 25, and continuing through Monday, May 29, is as follows: Temperatures will show a warming trend and will average a little below normal. No large day-to-day change is expected. Normal high and low temperatures will be 82 and 61 degrees. Rainfall through Monday will be above normal and should occur as showers Friday night and Saturday.

ANOTHER PLAN THWARTED—Rev. B. Elton Cox, left, of High Point, the spokesman for the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) traveling through the south to test integration progress, boards a plane last week. Rev. Cox and his companion, along with 15 others, left the plane when a bomb threat caused Eastern Airlines to cancel the flight to New Orleans. (UPI TELEPHOTO)

FIRST TO RECEIVE HONORARY DEGREES AT ST.
