

MASTER OF MASONS IS NC SPEAKER

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

of historical development in the Town of Tarboro.

Worshipful Master Brown complimented district delegates for the very fine cooperation and support that they have shared with the top administration. He then reviewed the progress that the N. C. Jurisdiction has made in comparison with numerous other jurisdictions.

He admonished the delegations to accept changes in their annual and long-time programs. He encouraged the delegates to delete their negligible attitudes toward CHANGE, because it is only through this media that progress can materialize. The speaker predicted much of his emphasis upon better, more functional public relations in our programs.

The speaker who heads the 25,000 member fraternal organization, challenged the delegates to work toward improvement in our lodges and communities. He also encouraged the members to put on "Clean-Up Community" campaigns and to enliven our lodges with innovations as The Knights of Pythagoras, which is the Masonic Youth Program.

The delegation enjoyed a barbecue dinner served by the Order of the Eastern Stars.

The deputy closed the communication by challenging the delegates to convene at Scotland Neck for the 1962 communication.

R. WILLIAMS NOW COLLECTS AMMUNITION

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

the past with the national body of the NAACP because of his various militant statements. He has made two trips to Cuba since seized control of the country, and is reported to have flown the Cuban flag in his backyard.

Attorney Conrad J. Lynn, who represents Williams, said in New York last week that a meeting sponsored at Union Mutual Auditorium raised "several hundreds of dollars" for Williams' project. He said about 40 rifles were sent to this state as replacements for defective weapons which Williams had.

Although the NAACP official declined to confirm this, he said he expected "two or three hundred rifles at Chicago and New York."

Some of the money, he said will be used to buy steel helmets, gas masks and ammunition.

THREE BOYS SENTENCED FOR RAPE

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

City Detective H. L. Moore, however, testified the confessions were given voluntarily, as did Detective Fred C. Gregory.

Judge George Fountain ruled last weekend that the confessions of guilt which the State contends were given by the youths were admissible as testimony during the trial.

NC LEADS IN NUMBER ON STATE BOARDS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

ment of chemistry to the Advisory Committee on Atomic Energy.

In being named to the posts, the three join four other colored citizens on policy-making commissions and boards.

Dr. Harold Trigg, professor of education at Livingstone College, had been a member of the State Board of Education for 12 years.

Dr. Alan E. Weatherford, of North Carolina College, Durham, has served on the State of Rock Quarry Road is seen with a prize catch of fish, caught at the Tee Off Club, near Raleigh, last week. He used artificial bait. The largest catch, a bass, weighed 3 1/2 pounds. It was complimented by the others shown, weighing up to over 2 pounds each.

PRIZE CATCH—B. L. SANDERFORD

THE CAROLINIAN

"Covering the Carolinas"
Published by the Carolinian Publishing Company
518 E. Martin Street
Raleigh, N. C.

Entered as Second Class Matter, April 7, 1940, at the Post Office in Raleigh, North Carolina, under the Act of March, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Six Months $2.75
One Year $4.50
Payable in Advance. Address all communications and make all checks and money orders payable to THE CAROLINIAN.

International United Newspapers, Inc., 135 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N. Y., National Advertising Representative and member of the Associated Negro Press and the United Press International Chain Service.

The Publisher is not responsible for the return of unsolicited news pictures or advertising copy unless necessary postage accompanies the copy.

Opinions expressed by columnists in this newspaper do not necessarily represent the policy of this paper.

Recreation Commission since 1955.

Dr. Murray E. Davis, a High Point physician was named to the State Prisons Commission some years ago and William M. Rich of Durham is a member of the State Medical Care Commission.

William J. Kennedy, Jr., of Durham, who was the first Negro to serve on the Recreation Commission, was named a charter member of the State Board of Higher Education in 1955. This appointment was by ex-Gov. Luther H. Hodges, now U. S. Secretary of Commerce.

ODD-ENDS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

away that much of this city's tax money for the exclusive use of its white citizens. There is so much wrong with it that when this proposal goes before the Council Negroes should be there in large numbers to question the deal from top to bottom.

We know, of course, that it is wholly illegal to use public money for the construction, operating and maintenance of any facility where segregation and discrimination are practiced. We also know that through long, costly and tedious court procedures, such actions can be stopped. But why should we continue to subject ourselves to nerve-racking and money-consuming legal battles.

Wouldn't it be just a matter of using plain, old-fashion common sense for us to begin using an ounce of prevention instead of continuing to rely on a pound of cure?

This proposed new National Guard facility, like the N. C. National Guard, is naturally destined to be another anchor of segregation and discrimination. It isn't a matter whether or not Negroes may use it for different types of gatherings. The real question involved is, do we want to contribute further to the construction and maintenance of a facility designed primarily for the use of a discriminatory public agency.

The published breakdown on the cost of this new N. C. National Guard Armory shows that the $550,000 construction cost will come from three different tax sources: 75 percent from the federal government, 17 1/2 percent from the state and 7 1/2 percent from the city of Raleigh.

This of course means that all the costs of building this structure will come from the taxpayers pockets, and it is to be constructed primarily for the use of an agency of this state, the N. C. National Guard, that is so discriminatory in its practices within its ranks. Do you feel that your city government should appropriate $41,000 of your money for such a purpose? If you do not think so, go there and tell them so.

A GOOD USE FOR YOUR LEISURE TIME

This is for ladies only. Many of you have the good fortune of having several hours during the day, mornings or in the afternoons or evening hours, of leisure. Hours in which you have nothing particular to do, hours you would be most happy to contribute to some worthwhile, profitable cause.

To all of our good ladies who are so fortunately situated, we appeal to you to help swell our Negro voting list. It is a very simple

THREE APPEALS FILED

ASHEVILLE—Three appeals from assignments of Negro pupils to Asheville schools have been received by Asheville City Schools Sup. W. P. Griffin, he said Tuesday. He said the city school board would set a date for the appeals to be heard.

$20 THEFT REPORTED

RALEIGH—The Plainview Soda Shop on Raleigh, Rt. 4 was broken into early Wednesday morning and $20 was stolen from a vending machine.

Samuel Harris, Jr., the proprietor's son, was sleeping in the place. He told sheriff's deputies that he was awakened as someone crawled out a window about 2:30 a.m.

ODD FELLOWS LODGE IN STATE MEET

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 2)

Grand Master, Williamson, in charge of sessions.

Stone Square Lodge No. 1688 and Household of Ruth No. 264, Washington, will be hosts to the convention with registration of delegates at Beebe Memorial CME Church, Respass and Fifth Streets Tuesday morning. The Odd Fellows will be in session at Spring Garden Baptist Church while the Ruths will hold

DR. ATKINS RESIGNS POST AT WINSTON

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

He will occupy a special position on the school's faculty, set up by a Winston-Salem philanthropist.

"I have long cherished the hope that I might return to the classroom and render direct service to students as a teacher," Dr. Atkins concluded.

He is the son of the founding president, Dr. Simon Godwin Atkins.

BOY HANGS SELF IN JAIL CELL

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

led the end to the metal ceiling.

Cox was tried in Selma District Relations Court for failure to comply with a judgment rendered in May of 1960. On that charge, he received a four-month suspended sentence for larceny of a bicycle.

A capias was issued when he did not comply with the sentence.

Judge Leon Peedin presided over the Tuesday session.

HODGES MEETS TRADES GROUP IN WASHINGTON

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Farmers Bank of Durham, N. C.; Whitney Young, Executive Secretary Designate of the National Urban League, New York City; Lester Granger, Executive Director, National Urban League, N. Y.

CAROLINIAN NEWSPAPER VISITORS

The persons shown above visited The CAROLINIAN last week. Left to right are: Mrs. Peter G. (Mary Louise McLeod) Holden of New York; her daughter, Miss Laura Holden; and Mrs. Laura McLeod of E. Martin Street, mother of Mrs. Holden.

FRAZERS ARE LOCAL VISITORS

Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazer, Jr., and children, Wyatt Christian and Eva Louise are shown above. They are the house guests of Dr. Frazer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Frazer, Sr., of 121 East South Street. Dr. Frazer is a Raleigh native and Mrs. Frazer hails from the Baltimore area.

and easy task. It is most rewarding. It certainly needs to be done. Aren't you tired of living in a city where less than 1-5 of the Negro population is on the voting lists? Raleigh has a Negro population estimated to be between 25,000 and 30,000 persons. Raleigh's Negro voting population is less than 4,000 persons. You cannot be satisfied with a situation as disproportionate as this.

We know we do not have to tell you how vital, how needful and necessary it is to increase our voting strength here. There is no one asset the Negro possesses which can mean a much to him as the possession and use of the ballot. It is true that prayer changes things, but make no mistake: it is also true that voting changes things also. Many of the changes we long for and pray for can come to pass through the simple expedient of voting.

We need more votes, we need them desperately. You can help fill this need. We said it will be simple. There is a lady here in Raleigh who will be happy to tell you how simple it is. Please call Mrs. Bertha M. Edwards, VA 8-34446, tell her you have some time you could devote to voter registration. She will gladly give you the few needed instructions. Will you please do this. You will be glad you did.

STATE BRIEFS

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

to the school under a Federal Court mandate, and three more Negro pupils were assigned as a result of a school board meeting Tuesday night.

Gillespie was desegregated in 1957.

YOUTH ARRESTED IN BREAK-IN

RALEIGH—An 18-year-old Negro was arrested here Friday morning coming out of a self-service laundry in the 600 block of Fayetteville Street where officers said an attempt to break into a coin box had been made.

James Van Deloatch of 904 Manly St. was charged with damage to property, police said, after the lock which had been broken off the machine was found in Deloatch's pocket.

ANYONE FOR A SWIM?

Miss Bettye Pryor, a senior from Rocky Mount, is seen relaxing on the diving board at the N. C. College swimming pool at Durham. The pool is one of the main attractions for summer school students at the college.

YOUTH HELD ON MORAL CHARGES

CLAYTON—Police officers have arrested Leroy Pulley, 17, of Route 2, Clayton, and he is being held without bond on charges of raping Miss Lula Price, 16, also of Clayton, Route 2, Sunday night.

Miss Price was taken to a physician for an examination and the doctor advised her to take out a warrant, according to officers.

Deputy Eason reported that Miss Price related that Pulley asked her to go to a tobacco barn with him. When they got to the barn, she said, Pulley then took her to a wooded area.

After a preliminary hearing in Clayton Recorder's Court, probable cause was found and Pulley was reportedly bound over for trial in the Johnston Superior Court at Smithfield.

ON THE HOME FRONT

BY MAIRED MORRIS

(Items this week from Sampson, Rockingham, Wayne, Macon, Cabarrus and Camden Counties.)

TRY BOILABLE POUCHES

If you can boil water, you can enjoy your wife's cooking even though she may be out of town. Wayne Lee found that out when Mrs. Lee was away on a tour.

According to Mrs. Virginia Evans, home economics agent, Mrs. Lee prepared her husband's meals in boilable pouches. A complete meal can be prepared in a plastic bag and frozen. It can be heated by dropping the bag into boiling water a few minutes.

VITAMIN C RICH FOODS

How much vitamin C rich food do you need to conserve and how do you conserve it? Homemakers in Rockingham County have found in their study of vitamin C foods that rural people in North Carolina spent $275 million dollars last year for food which could have been produced at home.

Miss Isabelle Buckley, home economics agent, reports the local club women are improving their conservation practices so the quality and flavor of their food will be improved.

WINS SEWING MACHINE

The Grantham Home Demonstration Club members in Wayne County can now boast of having a new sewing machine for their club.

According to Miss Nancy Lewis, home economics agent, the club women collected $276.72 for the annual cancer drive as one of their community service projects. Since they collected the largest amount in the county, they were presented a new sewing machine.

CLOTHING LEADERS IN ACTION

Mrs. Nell Parsons, president of the Cullasaja Home Demonstration Club, reports their project leaders are active in Macon County.

When Mrs. Florence Sherrill, home agent, was absent from the club meeting, the two clothing leaders, Mrs. Fred Palmer and Mrs. Emma Jane Phillips held a demonstration. They demonstrated how to set in sleeves and put in a zipper.

DRIVE SAFELY

IN READING ROOM — Miss Barbara Vallet of Baton Rouge, La., is shown in the reading room of the James E. Shepard Memorial Library at N. C. College, Durham, last week. She is attending summer school at NCC.

RELAXATION PERIOD

A group of students (high school science and mathematics teachers) are shown relaxing between classes at North Carolina College, Durham, last week. They are attending an institute for teachers of science and mathematics this summer under a $78,000 grant. Dr. W. H. Robinson is in charge of the institute.

ANYONE FOR A SWIM? — Miss Bettye Pryor, a senior from Rocky Mount, is seen relaxing on the diving board at the N. C. College swimming pool at Durham. The pool is one of the main attractions for summer school students at the college.

Grant Bell, Sr. Funeralized At Greenville

GREENVILLE—The Cornerstone Baptist Church here was the scene of numerous glowing tributes paid by fellow-townpeople and fraternal leaders from over Eastern Tarheelia to Ulysses Grant Bell, Sr., 63-year-old business man, churchman, fraternal and civil leader of considerable note. More than 500 people filled to overflowing the church where Bell had served as a deacon for more than thirty years.

With much emotion several citizens testified to Bell's worth to the local community as he helped them build homes, the church, the East Tar River Credit Union and many other civic enterprises.

Mr. Bell's pastor, the Rev. J. E. Tillett of Edenton, was left little to say after the many testimonials were given from eleven organizations.

Rev. Mr. Tillett chose to speak briefly from Hebrew 13th chapter, 14th verse: "For here we have no continual city..." as he said, "I'd like to think of death as being 'moving day' because the 'moving van' will stop at our door some day. The question is will we be ready? For those who are ready—prepared—death for the believer will be a moving day."

N. C. IBPOEW (Elks) president, Rev. K. P. Battle, assisted the local Pitt Elks lodge No. 234, Heber Greene, exalted ruler, with the burial ceremony. Flower girls were members of the Elks temple with Mrs. Lottie Belcher as daughter-ruler.

The Knights of Pythian lodge and the Court of Calanthe as well as the Odd Fellows also participated in the rites. The floral tributes were numerous.

Survivors include three sons, the widow, Mrs. Rosa Gray Bell, of Greenville, nine grandchildren; and one daughter, Mrs. Iradell B. Battle, Hartford, Conn. The sons are Grant Bell, Jr., Filmore Bell and Charles Bell, all of Greenville, and their respective wives.

Among the grand lodge and state Elks attending the rites were: LeRoy Barnes and J. Lilly and the Antlered Guard unit of Pitt lodge; Julius Haywood, Raleigh; J. H. Graham, I. Greene and A. Mortel Scott of Goldsboro; E. Butler, Wilmington; Nat Gray, Tarboro; Grant Bell, Sr. had held many offices in Elksdom and was state treasurer when he passed.

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS CRAVEN

Miss Juanita Surles Becomes Bride Of Louis Craven Here

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Alonzo Surles of 23 Chatham Terrace, Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Craven of Rochester, New York are the bridegroom's parents.

Of Rochester, N. Y., was marriage by her foster brother, Paul Cole, Mrs. S. R. Nunley of Rochester, N. Y., was matron of honor. She is the sister of the bridegroom. R. C. Craven Jr. of Rochester was best man. He is the brother of the bridegroom.

The reception was held at the Community Building in Chavis Heights. Punch was served by Mrs. Bernice Anderson, 24 Chatham Terrace.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones of Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Nunley, Rochester, Mrs. R. C. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Craven Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones, all of Rochester.

The bridegroom is now serving in the 82nd Division Airborne at Ft. Bragg.

DON'T PAINT — CALL — Martin Millwork

Free Estimate On Aluminum Siding! 3 YEARS TO PAY! TE 3-1681

Free Transistor Radio with Each Roofing and Aluminum Siding Job.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

111 LINCOLN COURT — Mighty convenient and extra nice. The bath fenced back yard, 5 rooms with attic storage. Here's another 5 rooms—buy this one with $900.00 down and $46.00 per month, total cost $5,400.

HENBY FAUCETTE REALTY COMPANY
Dial TE 4-0731

Home Grown Tomatoes	lb. 9c
PURE LARD 3 Lb. Pks.	47c
PURE BLACK PEPPER 4 Oz. Can	29c
IDEAL TABLE NAPKINS 80 Ct. Pkg.	10c
RIB BEEF STEAKS	59c
FRYERS Grade A-Whole	lb. 20c
FORK NECK BONES OR 4 LBS.	17c
GOOD WEINERS OR 3 LBS.	39c
SLICED PORK STEAK	49c
RIB STEW BEEF	29c
Club or Sirloin STEAKS	lb. 65c
FRESH GROUND BEEF OR 3 LBS.	39c
STALEY'S PURE CORN OIL	59c
LARGE TARGE	31c
LINEN WHITE BLEACH 2 Qts.	29c

Open Friday Night Until 8 P. M.

HORTON'S CASH STORE

1415-17 SO. SAUNDERS STREET RALEIGH, N. C.

PRIZE CATCH—B. L. SANDERFORD of Rock Quarry Road is seen with a prize catch of fish, caught at the Tee Off Club, near Raleigh, last week. He used artificial bait. The largest catch, a bass, weighed 3 1/2 pounds. It was complimented by the others shown, weighing up to over 2 pounds each.

THE CAROLINIAN "Covering the Carolinas" Published by the Carolinian Publishing Company 518 E. Martin Street Raleigh, N. C.

Entered as Second Class Matter, April 7, 1940, at the Post Office in Raleigh, North Carolina, under the Act of March, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Six Months $2.75
One Year $4.50
Payable in Advance. Address all communications and make all checks and money orders payable to THE CAROLINIAN.

International United Newspapers, Inc., 135 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N. Y., National Advertising Representative and member of the Associated Negro Press and the United Press International Chain Service.

The Publisher is not responsible for the return of unsolicited news pictures or advertising copy unless necessary postage accompanies the copy.

Opinions expressed by columnists in this newspaper do not necessarily represent the policy of this paper.

CAROLINIAN NEWSPAPER VISITORS — The persons shown above visited The CAROLINIAN last week. Left to right are: Mrs. Peter G. (Mary Louise McLeod) Holden of New York; her daughter, Miss Laura Holden; and Mrs. Laura McLeod of E. Martin Street, mother of Mrs. Holden.

FRAZERS ARE LOCAL VISITORS—Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazer, Jr., and children, Wyatt Christian and Eva Louise are shown above. They are the house guests of Dr. Frazer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Frazer, Sr., of 121 East South Street. Dr. Frazer is a Raleigh native and Mrs. Frazer hails from the Baltimore area.

RELAXATION PERIOD — A group of students (high school science and mathematics teachers) are shown relaxing between classes at North Carolina College, Durham, last week. They are attending an institute for teachers of science and mathematics this summer under a $78,000 grant. Dr. W. H. Robinson is in charge of the institute.