The Standard Printing Cb.

AFRICANS ADOPT CITY AS "HOMETOWN"-Shown above are the three African students residing here as guests of Raleigh residents. From left to right are: Gabriel Shamu, Mies Marie Nwanze and Elton Razemba. (See story on this page).

Raleigh Residents Are Hosts To Three Africans

their "parents" during visit to the Institute.
United States.

Miss Marie Teresa Nwanze of Asaba, Nigeria shares the home activities of Dr. Ellen S. Alston and Mrs. Primrose Jackson; Gabriel Shamu of Makwiro S. Rhodesia, Africa is living with Mr. and Charles G. Irving Sr., and Elton Razemba of Penhalonga S. Rhodesia, Africa with Mr and Mrs. D. M. Jarniagin.

The African students are mem- tional Living

BY ALEXANDER BARNES

ATLANTA, Ga.-Just as planned

in life, the body of John Wesley

Dobbs, high fraternal personage, campaigning politician and orator

par-excellent, made its way through

Auburn Avenue Saturday morning

At high noon, in true fraternal fashion, the last ceremonles for the fallen leader began.

He requested a short service walks of life.

dopted Raleigh as their "home- and women from 18 countries in town" and Dr. Ellen S. Alston. sub-Saharan Africa who came to the United States in August un Mrs. Primrose Jackson, Mr. and der three new American univers-Mrs. D. M. Jarnigin and Mr. and ity scholarship programs adminis-Mrs. Charles G. Irving, Sr., as tered by the African American

They will attend some 150 universities throughout the U. S. on full four year scholarships. Tuition is provided by the universities. room and board by the International Cooperation Administration and grants by their home govern-

The students were selected in Africa by African and American educators cooperating through the This visit is arranged by the African American Institute. They Experiment in International liv- traveled from Africa to New York ing. After this "learn by living on chartered planes and a student introduction to America the stu-ship with a shipboard orientation dents will enroll in mid September program arranged by the Council at Bennett College in Greensboro. on Student Travel. Now they are Morehouse College in Atlanta, Ga., living in communities throughout and Hampton Institute, Hamp- the country with families selected by the Experiment in Interna-

I. W. Dobbs. Masonic

By Jehovah's Witnesses:

World's End Predicted 10 Swim In N. C. State Park Pool

THE CAROLINIAN

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1961

PRICE 15c

. . . Elks daughter ruler

Hich Doctor's Willer S. Willer C.

Defendant Says Life Threatened

Rockingham resident with a reputation as a "witch doctor" was shot and killed as he allegedly advanced on the home of Johnny Houston, near here with a drawn pistol. Saturday.

Stanly County Sheriff Sam M. Dry said the killing took place at Houston's home on Shuford Burfarm, located four miles west

Dry stated that Houston reported that the "witch doctor" had a pistol when he opened the door and fired with a 22 caliber pistol.

The alleged "witch doctor," Vernon Haley, was found by officers ten steps from the doorway of Houston's home with four wounds, apparently made by a .22 caliber gun. Johnny Houston is being held in the Stanly County Jail in lieu of $10,000 bond on a charge of second degree murder. sheriff that Haley had previously

PEACEFUL INTERGATION IN ATLANTA—Here are the Negroes who successfully and as "His loyal followers," and His cefully integrated Atlanta Public Schools. August 30. Shown at a news conference after their "Visible organization on earth." peacefully integrated Atlanta Public Schools, August 30. Shown at a news conference after their first day at school, they are (front 1-r): Madelyn Nix, 15.; Mary McMullen, 16; Donita Gaines, 16; Willie Jean Black, 15; and rear (left to right): Rosalyn Walton, 16; Lawrence Jefferson, 17 Martha Ann Holmes, 17; and Arthur C. Simmons, 16, Not shown is Thomas Welch, 16. CUPI

Atlanta Praised For Peaceful Integration Of Four Schools

last week for peacefully and calmly schools. putting aside a 100-year-old tradition of public school segregation

Succumbs' At Hospital

HAMLET—Church people from throughout North Carolina, especially the Baptists, flocked here Saturday to pay a fitting tribute to one of its veteran leaders, the Rev. L. W Wertz, who was buried from the Monroe Street School Auditorium, at 2 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Werts died at the Hamlet Hospital August 28, as the result of a complication of diseases. The body was viewed at First Baptist Church, which he built and pastored for a number of years. The eulogy was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Ferguson. Rev. G. B. Gilchrist presided.

Top church leaders expressed their deep sorrow and fond devotion to a men who wrought well in the religious world. The procession was headed by Dr. W. R. Strassner, Shaw University. Others that officers went to her home on (CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

CAROLINIAN

ATLANTA (ANP)-Atlanta citi- | and accepting nine Negro students | volved. A dozen or more city pozens were praised across the nation into four previously all-white high > apparent successful school inegration was lauded by President Kennedy and the Attorney General. The President opened his news conference with a salute to Atlanta and Georgia citizens and officials for their "courage, tolerate, and above all, respect for Attorney General Robert Kennedy phoned congratulations to May-Will B. Hartsfield, Police Chief Herbert Jenkine and School Supt. John Letson.

There was no major disturbance at any of the four high schools in-

Elderly Woman Found Dead

SALISBURY—The pertially-de-composed body on an elderly woman was found at her river-side shack Thursday by officers who had been looking for her more than three weeks.

Poloice Chief Dave M. Shuler said the woman was reported missing about three weeks ago. He said

Address On 'World's End'

25,300 Hear

world has entered its last days," a Starksvilla. Jehovah's Witnesses leader told an interracial audience of more than 25,300 persons at a six-day district assembly at the Arena and Auditorium here last week.

Nathan H. Knerr, of Brooklyn, N. Y., said there was overwhelm evidence that these were the "last days" foretold by the Bible and added that Christendom stood in mortal danger because it was not unified in the name of Jehovah but only in the fear of atheistic com-

Knerr, president of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, explained in this situation the members of his order stood out clearly in biblical prophecy as "Jehovah's anointed remnant,' 'tabbed by Jesus He said that 1914 was the turning point in history and that since then chapter of old world history," facing a cataclysmic end within this generation, to make way for mil-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER.

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning Thursday, September 7th, and continuing through Monday, September 11th, is as follows:

Temperatures will average a few degrees above normal Rainfall is expected in the amount of one inch. It should continue to be warm with fair weather prevailing most of the time. Afternoon and evening showers are expected each day during the period

Daughter Elks Here

Smith of New York City is spending her vacation in the city, accompanied by Grand Dgt. Secretary Buena V. Kelly of Norfolk, Va. and Dgt. Lavinia Robinson, personal secretary to Mrs.

They are house guests at Starks villa Guest House, home of Dgt. Helen Starks. Grand Auditor of Grand Temple.

A banquet is planned in Mrs Smith's honor Thursday night at

They were met at the Seaboard Train Station by a delegation of Elks and Daughters: Bessie Wallace, daughter ruler; Bessie Chavis deputy; Evelyn Franklin, Catherine Gill, Ida Jones, Helen Starks, Exalted Ruler Bro. Junious Haywood; Brothers Alfonso Vance, State Deputy; Henry Atwater of Chapel Hill, state chairman, economnes dept. and James Phillips.

Baptists Open Meet; 2 Presidents

KANSAS CITY (ANP)-The 5million member National Baptis Convention USA. Inc. opened here this week, with two national presi-

Several area ministers last week presented a motion in Distric Court in Washington asking it appoint a monitor to supervise election of the organization's national officers.

Object of the motion is to avoid the confusion of last. year's convention in Philadelphia where the two presidents -the Rev. Joseph H. Jackson of Chicago and the Rev. Gardner C. Taylor of New York Citywere elected.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

"Chaos, wanton destruction of

important Notice Given On Draft

The members of Wake County Draft Board (Selective Service) urge that all men get their files up-to-date, as required by law. Every man born on or after August 30, 1922, is required by law to be registered, whether they have been in service or not. If he has not contacted his board within the past 6 to 12 months, do so immediately, either in person or

Every man is required by law to have in his possession at all times a registration certificate and notice of classification, and if he does not have these documents he should contact his board at once in order to

(CONTINUED IN PAGE 7)

Assault And Rapa Charges Claimed Here

A 29-year-old Garner woman told police this week that she was raped and robbed Saturday night by three

Mrs. Lee Mae Richardson, of Garner, Rt. 1, approached Officer Ralph Johnson about 5 a.m. Sunday on East Martin St. She said the 3 men accosted her about 9 p.m. Saturday. They robbed her of $40 and each raped her, she said.

Mrs. Richardson said the man didn't threaten her but she added that she was to frighten to resist them. Two of them left the scene. When the third went to sleep there, she left and went to look for a po-

The woman who admitted she'd been drinking, said that she could not recall where the incident hapand the two persons he selectd, Rev. H. L. Bearden, pastor of Big Bethel and his long-time friend, Dr. William Holmes Borders, presided and delivered the eulogy, respectively.

to Big Bethel AME Church, where loved "Sweet Old Auburn" so much it was viewed by people from all and had so many interesting experiences on it, until he wanted his body carried through there as his last tribute to the thoroughfare that he helped to make famous. It was he helped to make famous. It was on this street that he thundered forth so many times for the aid of his people and the hope of a better

> He was best known as Grand Master of the Prince Hall Masons and held that office for a number of years. He is said to have told his friends and associates that he would not be a candidate to succeed himself this time and is believed to

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

OLDEST WOMAN IN PEACE CORPS - Miss Madge Shipp, the oldest woman selected for the Peace Corps, admires the diploma she received August 31, at the close of her Peace Corps training at Iowa State University. Miss Shipp, a 55-year-old school teacher from Detroit, Michigan, will be sent to St. Lucis in the West Indies. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Head. Dies In Atlanta (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2) Facility ed the eulogy, respectively. "The Grand Master" as he was known throughout the state said ne loved "Sweet Old Auburn" so much

ALBEMARLE - Ten Negroes from Badin spent several hours Monday afternoon swimming in the public pool at Morrow Mountain State Park near here,

Park Supt. Cedric Squires said there were no incidents. He said it was the fourth time in the past month that Negroes had used the swimming facilities without incident. Previously, the pool had been used by white persons only.

"Nobody has apparently paid the Negroes much attention, at all," He said the group on Labor Day vas larger than any previous time

Six Negroes were in one group, four in another. Previously Used Pool Negroes previously had used the Acreew Mountain pool on Saturday, August 5; Wednesday, August 9, and Saturday, August 12. Attendance at the park, Squires said, has been off some this summer, but he said he did not know whether it could be attributed to the Negroes

State News

Brief

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS

MEET SET RALEIGH - The Raleigh Central Group of Alcoholics Anonymous will held a discussion meeting on the problem of recovery Wednesday at 8:00 p. m. at the Bloodworth Street YMCA. All persons who feel the need of help in overcoming the use of alcohol are invited to attend.

An open meeting for families and friends of alcoholics who desire help in understanding the problem are invited to attend the AA meeting to be helped on Friday evening 8:00 p. m. at the Y.

NCC PROPESSOR TO UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS DURHAM-The Board of Truseas of the University of Illinois has announced the appointment Tire Distribu (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

PAGE 2 Horton's Cash Store PAGE 3 Carolina Power & Light Co. PAGE S Efire's Associated Realtors Carter's, Inc.
Public Service Co., of ... C., Inc.
S M Young Hardware

PAGE & Thomas Food Market Siechanics & Farmers Sank Electrical Wholesalers, Inc. Fisher Wholesale Co., Inc. PAGE 7 Auto Diss unt Co. PAGE 3
C Karl Lichtman
Colonial Stores, one
Umstead's Grocery and Transfer
First Citizens Sank & Trust Co.
E & Quian Furniture Co. Taylors Radio & TV Service PAGE 3

A&P Food Stores Johnson-Lambe Co. Branch Banking & Trust Co. Standard Concrete Co. Gem Watch Shop Firestone Steres PAGE 32 loodworth St. Tourist Eldgeway's Opicians. Inc. 7-Up Bottling Co. Dillion Motor Finance Co.
Watson Seafood & PoutryDe're Hotel
Wa. or Memorials
Fepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Baleigh
PAGE 11
Joe Municipal PAGE II
Joe Munrick Promotion
PAGE II
Acme Essity Co.
Duan's Esso Service
Sunt's General Tire Co.
Pingly Wiggly Sure-Fit Sent Cover Center Lawrence Bros Lincoln Theatre

SCHOOLS ARE OPEN AGAIN School time is here again. That simple little statement has differ-BUY FROM THEM ent meanings for different people. The opening of school brings joy, frustration, confusion, work, hardship and headaches for some; pleasure, contentment and ease for others. The effect depends largely upon the part, you as an ye rly drama.

individual, have to play in this It is likely that practically all of the usual routine and mechanics of operation will prevail in the schools this year. There will be the usual classes, tests, examinations, sports, recreation and holidays. All of which are the basic ingredients of the overall school operation. These elements may change in degree but essentially, they remain the same, year (CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

licemen stationed at each school prevented crowds from forming.

2 Thieves

Flee Cops

After Wreck

A couple of our thieves jumped jumped from the car.

The car crashed into Larry's

Store at 318 West Lenoir Street.

Demage was estimated at $200 to the cer and $15 to the store.

Valued at $700. It was registered

708 East Lane Street.

of thine own eye."

LONG CONVALESCENSE - Carl Flood, 5, who wasn't supposed to live three years ago after swallowing a lye compound for cleaning sinks, is shown enjoying a meal of meat and potatoes. The lye burned his mouth and throat so badly he couldn't breathe or eat at the time. Since the time of the accident Carl has spent most of his time in hospitals undergoing operations on the throat. The youngster weathered numerous pneumonia attacks and discomforts during the treatments in Oakland, Calif. (UPI TELE-