

Man Dies On Street After Being Threatened By Gang

PAUL, Minn. (ANP) — A riot almost caused here last night by the death of a 41-year-old man as the result of an attack allegedly caused by five youths who were reportedly beating Negro passersby.

Upon arrival at the scene, police officers found Roscoe Loup, apparently alive but unconscious. The officers checked but found no evidence of shot wounds. By the time the ambulance arrived Louis had died.

Rumors reported five white youths had been brandishing a pistol and driving through the neighborhood and were said to have either shot or struck Louis. But a surgeon's examination on the scene found no bullet wounds or contusions or bruises on the man's body.

The crowd became alarmed and accused policemen and doctors of trying to "cover up" for the alleged culprits in Louis' death.

A witness reported that several men had walked up to a car parked just in front of a house where Louis was sitting on the porch. One of the men in the car yelled "Nigger" and Louis jumped over the railing and ran towards the car. The car drove off and the witness noticed Louis on the sidewalk.
