AACP Survey Shows 6,708 Secured B. A. Degrees In '61

NEW YORK (AP) — An NAACP survey released last week indicates that 6,708 Negro youth secured bachelor degrees from 50 institutions participating in the tally last spring.

September issues of Crisis, official NAACP organ.

The study includes information from Negro colleges only, since "mixed schools" no longer keep official records of their students by race.

Additional graduates received 485 various master's degrees and 210 doctorates. Of these, Howard University in Washington, awarded 91 master's and 182 doctorate degrees
