

Many Speakers To Be Heard:

Ministers To Hold Scout Meet Here

THE CAROLINIAN

VOL. 20, NO. 49

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1961

PRICE 15c

Trio Killed In Collision

Future Lack Of Manpower Cited:

Bias Charged In Job Training

Only One Survivor In Wreck

PINNACLE—A car carrying two couples swerved across a highway and crashed head-on into a tractor-trailer truck here Friday night.

Those killed were Armigo L. Edwards, 24; Manny J. Graham, 25; and Miss Ola Mae Bennett, about 24.

Miss Barbara Rutledge, 17, was listed as critical at a local hospital with a head injury. All of the victims were from Winston-Salem.

Eye-witnesses said the car had been swerving back and forth across the road for several hundred yards. The truck driver, Ralph Gunter, was un-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Relationship Conference Planned

The Raleigh Ministerial Alliance will sponsor a "Relationship Conference" for the Wake Division of the Oconeechee Council, Boy Scouts of America, on Thursday, September 21.

The Reverend W. A. Perry, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be the main attraction at the meeting which may not be working directly with scouting.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

FACES DRUNK RAP—A slow-moving comedian who starred in a series of motion pictures with the late Will Rogers stepped out of character in Indianapolis, Ind., last week.

CLIENT KIDNAPS ATTORNEY — Irving Powell (right) is escorted into Greenwich police station Sept. 13th by Detective Walter Fogg after he was arrested early Sept. 13th at his home.

Local Man Held In Knife Death; Victim Dies As Officer Arrives

Raleigh Detective Sgt. Jeff Stoudemire, answering a complaint that a man had shot at Willie Watkins, 26 of 714 South Bloodworth Street, found Watkins as he stumbled out of 39 West South Street, bleeding profusely and the officer tried to save him with a tourniquet.

The victim died about five minutes after the officer arrived Sunday morning, however.

Detective Stoudemire managed to handcuff Herbert Coleman of the South Street address in the confusion over Watkins' death. Coleman is facing a charge of murder.

Coleman, said to be drunk, told conflicting stories about events leading up to Watkins' death. The alleged facts of the case are:

A group of men began playing cards at Coleman's house at noon Saturday. The game continued until about 4:30 p.m., when an argument began.

Watkins reportedly started a fight in which Coleman was slightly cut. Coleman then proceeded to go out and get a gun.

Coleman is alleged to have come back with the gun and shot at Watkins in the South Carolina residence, but missed both.

The two then went to the police station and signed a warrant against Coleman for assault with a deadly weapon and

WEATHER

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning Thursday, September 21, and continuing through Monday, September 25, is as follows:

State News Brief

EX-CONVICT FACING TRIAL ROXBORO—Sam Evans, 32-year-old parolee faces trial on charges of rape, kidnaping and assault with a deadly weapon in the abduction last week of a young girl.

INDICTMENTS WERE RETURNED AGAINST EVANS by the Person County Grand Jury and Sheriff C. C. Holleman said he probably will be tried at the October 30 term of the Person County Superior Court. The incident occurred last week.

DRIVER DIES IN WRECK ENFIELD — A compact car pulled out to pass a wrecking truck on U. S. Highway 301 Friday and slammed into a truck loaded with bricks. The returned to Coleman's house. When Coleman found Watkins starting into his home, (Someone had taken his pistol away from him), it is at this time that the fatal stabbing took place.

The detective walked in, at that point to serve a warrant on Coleman for assault, ironically.

ENROUTE TO EUROPE FOR VACATION — Congressman Adam Clayton Powell and his wife prepare to walk up gang-plank leading to the SS United States Sept. 14th prior to their sailing for a European vacation. (UPI PHOTO).

J. H. Wheeler Sees "Sad Harvest"

Their excuse for not giving certain types of training to Negroes is that they are not ready for it, commented John H. Wheeler Wednesday when he was interviewed by The CAROLINIAN for further comment on his appearance before the N. C. Advisory Committee on Civil Rights here Saturday.

"The State should take positive action to invite Negroes to train in its growing system of industrial training schools," said Mr. Wheeler who is president of the Mechanics and Farmer Bank of Durham and Raleigh.

A member of President John F. Kennedy's Committee on Equal Job Opportunities, Wheeler told the group that there is evidence that the industrial program is bowing to a "desirable attitude" in denying Negroes training because there is no job opportunities in the field for which they train.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord." WOULD'NT YOU THINK? We think that persons who deliberately spread alarm and seek to upset and disturb people unduly are engaged in a very dangerous and useless activity.

We are not alarmists, we believe, however, that a calm appraisal of facts concerning any situation is always in order.

We don't suppose any normal, intelligent person will deny that this nation is now facing

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

DR. TRENT IS BANQUET SPEAKER — Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director of the United Negro College Fund, was the main speaker last week at St. Augustine's College's Faculty-Staff Banquet. Shown, left to right are: A. E. Brown, Dr. Trent and Dr. James A. Boyer, college president.

Executive Director Of UNCF Is Speaker At Faculty-Staff Meet

The Faculty and Staff Orientation and Planning Conference ended at St. Augustine's College on September 14th with Dr. William J. Trent, Jr., executive director, United Negro College Fund, New York, N. Y., as guest speaker at the Faculty and Staff Banquet.

St. Augustine's president, Dr. James A. Boyer, introduced Dr. Trent.

Dr. Trent spoke on "Negro Church-Related College In The South and Its Responsibilities". He stated that leadership on the part of the faculty and staff was necessary to challenge the minds of the students—these young minds must be exposed to the thought of the ages that will prepare them to meet the challenge of this changing society.

Dr. Boyer announced the expectation of top enrollment this year at St. Augustine's College. Others appearing on the program were: Miss Vivian Irving, Rev. and Mrs. D. N. Howard and A. E. Brown.

Dr. J. A. Tinsley, Prominent Physician, Dies At Weldon

WELDON — Dr. James A. Tinsley, who had practiced medicine here for the past 45 years, died in his sleep late Saturday night or early Sunday morning.

Funeral services for the 72-year-old physician will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the First Baptist Church here. Interment will follow in Woodlawn Cemetery.

A graduate of Shaw University's famed Leonard Medical School, he is a former president of the Old North State Medical Society. In 1960, Dr. Tinsley was presented the "Doctor of the Year" award. He was also presented the Distinguished Service Award as General Practitioner by the National Medical Association in 1960.

The Rocky Mount Academy of Medicine honored Dr. Tinsley for his service to the community and the Garden Club of Roanoke Rapids this year honored him for outstanding contributions in that field.

Two Wake 4-H'ers Win Top Prizes

VARINA — The grand champion dairy animal at the Fayetteville District Show last week was shown by Howard Hood of Rt. 1, Varina. Hood also won first place for having exhibited the most complete record book on his animal and placed third in showmanship competition.

Miss Annette Johnson of Route 1, Apex, won first place in the Milking Contest when she milked 35 pounds of milk in two minutes. She also placed second for having the best fitted animal.

Boys and girls from sixteen counties competed in the District Show. It is sponsored annually by the Fayetteville Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce.

Wake County blue, red and white ribbon winners were: BLUE, Miss Annette Johnson, Route 1, Apex, and Howard Hood, Route 1, Varina; RED, Donald Hodge and Amos Perrell, Route 2, Wendell, and Wayne Burton, Route 2, Fuquay Springs; WHITE, Herbert Sneed, Route 1, Fuquay Springs.

The Wake delegation was accompanied by W. C. Davenport, County Agricultural Agent, and M. W. Askew, Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Council On Health In Session

ROCKY MOUNT — In keeping with Governor Sanford's program of Quality Education, the North Carolina Joint Council on Health and Citizenship is pleased to announce the opening of its Second Health Education Seminar for Teachers. The course is designed to provide a type of inservice training whereby teachers may broaden their scope of knowledge in order to better participate in the whole program of quality education.

The course content is geared mainly toward improving health and science instruction in the schools. However, there will be a close consideration of some of the current concepts of basic education. Great emphasis will be placed on

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Probation Given In Man's Death

Mrs. Viola Faison, 41, of Wendell was given a suspended prison term in Wake Superior Court Thursday for involuntary manslaughter.

She pleaded guilty to the charge of fatally shooting Frank Hodge, 37, who was described as her boy friend by officers, last March 4.

Testimony by the defense showed that Hodge had beaten her severely with an insect spray gun prior to the shooting. Judge C. W. Hall then sentenced her to from three to five years imprisonment, suspended for five years of probation.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Women To Support Memorial

The National Council of Negro Women held its first meeting of the season at the home of president, Mrs. Gila Harris, Sunday, September 17.

The business transacted included the naming of committees and chairmen for the year. Special projects of the Council will include the Brotherhood Food Festival of which Mrs. Ada Jargin is chairman; Founders Day Observance with Miss J. E. Hicks as chairman; and support of the Mary McLeod Bethune Monument Committee with Dr. Ellen S. Alston as chairman.

The election of the Bethune Memorial is a national project. Planned are the erection of a monument

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS

- BUY FROM THEM
PAGE 2: Horton Cash Grocery, Gem Watch Shop, Capital Ice & Coal Company, Inc., Electrical Wholesalers, Inc., Washington Terrace Apartments, Inc., Anderson's Upholstery, Raleigh Tire Terminal, Umstead Transfer & Grocery Co., Mechanics & Farmers Bank, Dunston's Texaco Service, Raleigh Loan Office, Hudson-Bank, Larry's Cut Rate Gro. & Mkt., Thomas Food Market, O. W. Dodd Roofing & Sheet Metal, American Home Products, Capital Vacuum Store, O'Neal Motors, Inc., Joy's American Grill, The Mart, Capitol Bargain Store, Raleigh Loan Office, Newsome Roofing Company, G. & Tucker & Brothers, Inc., Sufisloe & Company Builders, Freezer Fresh, Browning Barber Shop, Auto Discount Company, Colonial Stores, C. Karl Lichtman, Tire Distributors, Taylor Radio & TV Service, First Citizens Bank & Trust Co., R. E. Quinn Furniture Co., A&P Food Stores, Tire Sales & Service Company, Standard Concrete Products Co., Town & Country Furniture, S. M. Young Hardware Company, Branch Banking & Trust Co., Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh, Watson's Seafood & Poultry Co., Inc., Dillon Motor Finance Co., Carolina Bottling Company, Carolina Builders Corp., Ridgeway's Opticians, Inc., Bloodworth St. Tourist Home, Deluxe Hotel, Warner Memorials, Home General Tire Company, Dunn's Ezzo Service, Acme Reule Company, Lincoln Theatre, Ambassador Theatre, Raleigh Seafood Company, Rhodes Furniture, Discount Used Furniture, Lawrence Brothers Company, Casco (Salem-Berlin), Champion Artists Tire Center, Raleigh Funeral Home.

Dr. Tinsley had served in several state positions, having been appointed by governors. The physician was a trustee of First Baptist Church. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Gladys T. Greene and Mrs. Hortense T. Anderson; two sons James A. Jr., and Reginald Tinsley; and one granddaughter.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Stewart

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Funeral services for Mrs. Ruby Sula Stewart, wife of Bishop W. A. Stewart, 5th Episcopal district, A. M. E. Zion Church, who died at her home Saturday, after an extended illness, were held at Union Wesley A.M.E. Zion Church, 23rd & L. Streets, northwest, Tuesday, 1 P. M., with Rev. George L. Smith presiding.

Bishop S. G. Spottswood delivered the eulogy and pointed to the fact that she represented true Christian living and her life was one that could well be copied by those who followed after her. He told how she reared seven children and was the wife of a struggling young minister.

Mrs. Stewart was born in Monroeville, Ala., and attended

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Virginia Speaker To NC Sunday

DURHAM — The women of St. Mark A.M.E. Zion Church will celebrate Woman's Day September 24, when Mrs. Medis G. Warren, Supply Captain, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, Portsmouth, Va., will be the guest speaker at the 11:00 o'clock morning service.

The plans call for an all out effort on the part of the women to promote a program that will focus attention on the needs of Latin America.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)