Williams In Cuba, Blasts JFK

Monroe Man Sought By FBI Talks In Cuba

HAVANA—Robert F. Williams, of Monroe, N. C., wanted for the kidnaping of a white couple in his hometown, told newsmen here this week that President John F. Kennedy had "personally ordered his arrest."

Williams, 36, who last week was granted asylum by the Castro regime, told a news conference on Monday that he "fully supports the Cuban revolution" and will try to inform the American Negro population of "the truth about Cuba."

A grand jury in Union County, N. C., indicted Williams in August on a charge of helping to abduct a white couple for several hours during a racial disturbance. He said here that he actually freed the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Stegall and protected them during the rioting in Monroe. He said that he gave the Stegalls refuge in his home and had been wrongly accused of abducting them.

Williams said that when he was told that National Guardsmen had been ordered to attack him and his followers, he decided to escape because "alive I would be more useful to our cause." He said that an order had been issued to shoot him on sight.

He said further that if American...

Howard Homers As Yanks Win

NEW YORK—Elston Howard and Bill Skowron, both scored home runs to back up Whitey Ford's stellar pitching performance as the New York Yank defeated the hard-pressed Cincinnati Reds 2-0 before 42,397 paid spectators in the first game of the 1961 World Series in Yankee Stadium here today.

The Yanks' runs were scored when Howard hit a home run in the fourth inning and Skowron hit a homer in the sixth inning.

The winning pitcher was Whitey Ford and the losing pitcher was Jim O'Toole, who was in the box when both runs were scored. The Yanks scored two runs, six hits, and no errors and the losers scored no runs, two hits, and no errors.

Tuskegee's L. A. Potts To Aid Ag Sec'y

Dean Lawrence A. Potts of Tuskegee's school of agriculture was named Wednesday as a special consultant to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

In announcing the appointment, the Secretary said Dean Potts will advise him on methods of more effectively implementing the Department's policy of equal employment opportunities. This will include, the Secretary pointed out, (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

See Senator Eastland Opposition To Marshall's Court Appointment

WASHINGTON (ANP)—An early adjournment of the Senate will delay until next year an expected fight over the nomination of Thurgood Marshall to the Second U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Chief counsel for the NAACP and one of the nation's strongest voices for racial equality, Marshall will square off with Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) an equally strong defender of the cause of segregation, when his name comes up for confirmation.

Eastland heads the powerful Senate Judiciary committee which gets the first shot at U. S. judicial appointments. It is public knowledge that there is no lost love between Eastland and Marshall.

Marshall, 53, has been a key leader in the legal fight for desegregation of public schools in the south. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

NAACP Prexy Says School Head Unfit

CLINTON—George Foreman, local NAACP leader, filed a formal protest with Bishop Vincent Waters, who presides over North Carolina Catholics, for alleged treatment afforded him, by Father Alden Davis, who lives in Kinston. The protest was in the form of a letter sent to Bishop Waters in Raleigh. Foreman, charged in the letter, that he went to the Kinston school, which is operated by the Catholics, and asked for the records of Jannette Boyd, his granddaughter so that he might enter her into Elizabeth City State Normal. He further charged that when he told Father Davis what he wanted that Father Davis told him about her going to St. Francis in the first place and that Jannette had "enough education to do washing and ironing."

Foreman, reached by telephone, by the CAROLINIAN, Tuesday, said that he felt that Father Davis should no longer head the school and that he had asked Bishop Waters, in the letter, to discharge him. He further stated that a man who displayed such an attitude was not fit to promote the welfare of children.

Jannette is said to have had nine years of training in Catholic schools. One year was spent at St. Francis, Powhatan, Va.

SCHOOL HEAD AWAY—Father Davis could not be reached at the school in Kinston. A reply to the telephone call said that he was away and Sister Hildegarde who says that she is the principal of the school said she had no direct knowledge of Jannette having gone to the fact that she had only been there a few years.

Jannette is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Boyd, who live at 102 Miller Street, Kinston. Sister Hildegarde said that (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Story Of Minority Progress Reply To Red Propaganda

WASHINGTON—The answer to Soviet propaganda about racial discrimination in the United States is to tell the story of progress being made by racial minorities in this country.

That was the suggestion given Thursday to United States Information Agency workers by John G. Field executive director of the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity. Mr. Field addressed the U.S.I.A. Forum at the agency office.

"We hear everyday that stories of racial discrimination in the United States are the best propaganda weapon the Communists have," Mr. Field told the group. "Conversely, the true story of progress being made by racial minorities is the best weapon to offset such propaganda."

"I do not contend that racial discrimination does not exist in this country. If that were true, there would be no need for agencies such (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

FAYETTEVILLE—A 31-year-old Fayetteville woman and a 22-year-old Robeson County man were killed by gun blasts Sunday in two separate homicides.

Police arrested James Dixon, 56, on a charge of murder after Mrs. Elizabeth Alford was found dead of a shotgun blast in her apartment in downtown Fayetteville, Sunday afternoon.

Cumberland coroner Alph Clark, who investigated the incident with city detectives, said that Dixon admitted shooting the woman in the upper chest with a single barrel 12-gauge shotgun loaded with birdshot. Clark said that the woman was seated on a bed clad in her slip when shot. Death was instantaneous, he said.

Witnesses said that they saw Dixon walk into the house where the apartment is located and saw him leave with the gun after hearing a shot. Although police arrested Dixon a few moments after the shoot- (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Disc Jockey Held For Rape

DALLAS, Tex. — A 22-year-old British girl who said she served a month in a Jackson, Miss., jail as a freedom rider, was held in Dallas Saturday as a material witness against a Negro disc jockey charged with raping her.

Police Captain Will Fritz said he put the girl, Pauline Kathleen Sims, in jail as a kindness, because she had no other place to go.

The YWCA told her it needed her room "for someone else" and she telephoned the NAACP. She said the NAACP told her a room would be provided at the all-Negro Oakland Terrace Hotel.

Huldah came to Russia earlier this week because it was the opinion of her father that the schooling available to the girl in the U. S. was not as good as that in Russia. (UPI TELEPHOTO)

Diggs Denies Fraudulent Charges In Insurance Suit

DETROIT (ANP)—Congressman Charles C. Diggs, Jr. has denied charges filed in Circuit Court by a policyholder that he and his father have mishandled thousands of dollars in operation of the Detroit Metropolitan Assurance Company.

The suit filed in Circuit Court by Lida Glover, charged that Rep. Diggs had charged political campaign expenses to the company along with hotel bills, travel expenses and clothing bills.

It charged that his father, Charles C. Diggs, Sr. had used $28,000 in company funds for airplane trips to Africa and other places, $11,000 to remodel his summer cottage and $2500 for a portrait of himself.

ASKS FOR ACCOUNTING—The suit asked for an accounting of the funds of the Detroit Metropolitan Assurance Co., and also seeks to block merger of the firm with the Mammoth Life and Accident Insurance Co. of Louisville, Ky.

Diggs said: "Anybody can bring a lawsuit and bring charges. It is another thing to prove it."

LESS THAN ONE HALF

All the citizens in Raleigh, both colored and white should be concerned about the fact that less than 50 percent of last year's graduates of the Ligon High School are enrolled in a school of higher education.

That 53 percent of last year's graduating class who for possible various reasons are not back in school this year, unless they eventually return to school, will never be able to make their fullest contribution to the community's economy, they will never be able to reap for themselves the fullest possibilities of which they are potentially capable.

It is more than likely that economic reasons are chiefly responsible for the failure of these Negro boys and girls to enter college this fall. We believe that many of them, had they possessed the foresight, the initiative and the proper motivation, would have found some way to continue their education. On the other hand, many of these young people, come from homes where the total family income is so low that it is a day to day struggle to try to make ends meet. It is very probable that many of Ligon's 1960 graduates became so disillusioned by the hardships they had to con- (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

People Everywhere Want Dignity, Says Fisk Head

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—"People everywhere are sick and tired of being denied the simple right to live in dignity as human beings," Dr. Stephen J. Wright, Fisk University president, has told the convocation opening the university's 95th academic year.

The convocation also gave recognition to 10 ranking Fisk students and heard traditional greetings from neighbor institutions, Meharry Medical College, Tennessee A&I State University, and American Baptist Theological Seminary.

Speaking on the subject, "Education for Survival and Freedom," Dr. Wright said "the ferment taking place in Africa and Asia and Latin America is not going to stop until the peoples of these countries find some relief from their unspeakable poverty, ignorance and humiliation."

"Whether we like it or not," he added, "our country cannot be neutral or indifferent to the forces moving at this very moment to determine the kind of world in which you will live—if indeed there is to be a world at all."

YOUTH RIOTS IN NEWARK — Firemen spray hoses on rioting school youngsters Sept. 27 as police keep an eye on the proceedings. A mob of between 600 and 800 predominantly Negro youngsters, chanting "let's jump the cops," attacked police with fists and rocks outside a junior high school and a police station in Newark, N. J. Police had been called to break up a fist fight between two boys in front of the West Kinney St. Junior School. The melee lasted two hours before police and firemen, using the high pressure hoses, were able to disperse the juveniles. (UPI PHOTO)
