SBI Probes Charges At Goldsboro

GOLDSBORO—Citizens of this city are anxiously awaiting a report from the State Bureau of Investigation into a complaint made by the North Carolina NAACP Conference of alleged misconduct of a white doctor at the Cherry Hospital with a 19-year-old inmate of the institution.

The incident was brought to the attention of State Solicitor Archie Taylor during the last term of Superior Court by a committee composed of Revs. B. R. Richardson and M. W. Morgan, Charles McLean and Mrs. Levi Hamilton.

The matter was brought to the attention of Roy Wilkins, executive sec'y of the national NAACP, while he was attending the state meeting, held here. Mr. Wilkins is said to have told interested persons that the matter was investigated thoroughly and that no stone should be left unturned in getting to the bottom of the rumor.

The Carolinian contacted Attorney Taylor and was told that he called the SBI in on the investi-

Begining Of New Interracial Elk Group Reported

BALTIMORE, Md.—From a news report released here recently, there is developing upon the horizon of fraternal worlds a new organization, which will include men and women of all races.

Such an idea stemmed from the fact that Herbert E. Jones, considered one of the leading figures in Elkdom, and Mrs. Pearl Brown, also active in the organization, made famous by the late J. Finley Wilson, met with a number of interested persons and organized the United Inter-Racial Fraternal Order of Elks of the World.

Lillington Rites Draw Huge Crowd

In death, as in life, Samuel Lee Harris, well-known radio announcer attracted wide attention here Sunday, when more than 3,000 persons attended funeral rites for him, at the Lillington Grove Free Will Baptist Church.

He met his death October 18 about 5:00 a. m. on route 401, near the community of Liberty Springs, as he rammed into the back of a trailer-truck, said to be owned by the Imperial Casket Company of Raleigh.

According to information obtained by The CAROLINIAN, he left his home about 4:30 a. m. and was on his way to radio station WFBG, Fuquay, where he has been broadcasting for an early show for about eleven years. It is alleged that he must have been traveling at a rapid rate of speed, due to the condition of his car and the damage done to the other vehicle. The impact is said to have broken two heavily built straps that supported the huge trailer-truck.

The steering wheel of his car, is said to have jammed his breast.

Last Rites For 4 Wreck Victims Held Tuesday

FUQUAY SPRINGS— This little farm town is still excited over the fact that the funeral of four wreck victims was held at St. Augusta Free Will Baptist Church, here on Tuesday.

It was like a calm after a storm when the four coffins were wheeled into the church and the Rev. J. M. Jackson started the familiar, "We brought nothing into this world and certainly we would carry nothing out". These intoning words seemed far more sacred and heart-rendering when one realized that three members of one family were being funeralized.

All of this came to Fuquay as the result of a race between gasoline and destiny, Saturday afternoon, and death won. The

Convicted Cop Killer Given Stay

Mellot Faust, of Charlotte, scheduled to die November 3 in the gas chamber for slaying a policeman, was given a 45-day stay of execution Monday by the State Supreme Court.

The action was taken to allow Faust's attorneys time to carry out further legal steps in an effort to save his life. The high court noted that if Faust's attorneys apply for a writ of habeas corpus or begin their proceedings in a Federal district court within the 45-day period the execution stay will be delayed further pending the outcome of the legal action.

Charles V. Bell, Charlotte attorney, requested the stay. The U. S. Supreme Court declined to hear Faust's appeal from a decision of the State Supreme Court which found no error in his conviction.

A Mecklenburg County Superior Court jury convicted Faust of murder in the shooting of Charlotte Po-

African Chieftain Awarded Nobel Peace Prize For '60

ODDS-ENDS BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"Let us search and try our ways and turn again unto the Lord."

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY
You can look at 20 years from one point of view and it will appear to be a very short time. The first twenty years of the life of an individual are relatively short years, usually they are pleasant, exciting and fruitful years of preparation for the fuller life ahead.

Newspapers, like individuals, have their life span. They are born, grow up, reach maturity, prosper and expand or wither and become useless. This month, the Carolinian celebrates its 20th anniversary. This 20th anniversary special edition commemorates this event.

A Negro newspaper or a newspaper published by Negroes, must like everything else that is a part of Negro life, wage an uphill battle not only to attain growth, but for its very existence.

He learned on Monday that he had won the prize when he came home from cutting cane on his 44-acre farm. He said that he felt that the Nobel Prize was meant for all Africans on the continent "who have tried to attain freedom along peaceful lines." He announced that he would seek permission to travel to Oslo on December 10.

The prize, worth 225,000, or $43,744, was belatedly awarded to Lutulu for working to ease the effects of racial discrimination in South Africa. The honoree is a Zulu Christian.
