HIGH COURT HEARS SIT-IN APPEALS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Supreme Court last week heard the first appeals of three sit-in cases, all originating in Baton Rouge, La., after striking down two school laws passed by Louisiana's legislature earlier this year.
The court heard argument in the first three sit-in cases to reach Washington. The cases stemmed from the efforts of students at Southern University, Baton Rouge, to integrate three lunch counters.
Sixteen students were arrested and convicted of breach of the peace. Each was sentenced to 30 days in jail plus a $100 fine or, in lieu of the fine, another 90 days. All are asking the high tribunal to reverse their convictions.
The students are being represented by Jack Greenberg, New York attorney and recent successor to Thurgood Marshall as chief counsel of the NAACP's legal defense and educational fund.

Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. —(Matt. 6:12)
The more we let God's love reign in us and forgive through us, the more we come to see that there is less and less to forgive. We come to see that the only need is to love.

The Roving Reporter

BY REV. D. N. HOWARD

ON THE CAMPUS OF BENNETT COLLEGE, Greensboro, QUESTION THIS WEEK:
What are your plans to help your community and the nation a better place in which to live?
MISS RANDOLPH JOHNSON, Greensboro: My field is social psychology. I hope to be able to help those in mental health enjoy a more full and happier life. I am also interested in the research field, thru my biology experience this would be possible.

MISS BETTYE POOLE, Raleigh: Inasmuch as I am majoring in Social Science I would like to help make the political life of our nation better. I would like to see the relationship between all races and nations improved. A better understanding of each other will help a great deal.

MISS CORINE WHITTINGTON, Columbia, S. C.: To become a better person. In becoming a better person myself, I will be able to help others to be better citizens. I am planning to teach in the public schools giving guidance and leadership to many people for better living.

Gila Harris as president and the following program committee members, Miss J. E. Hicks, Mrs. Ada Jarnagin and Mrs. Harriet Jones have included on their 1961-62 Calendar of event 100 per cent support of the Mary McLeod Bethune Monument to be erected in Washington, D. C.; a clinic on voting, a study of the 1961 report to the Commission on Civil Rights from the State Advisory Committee; a seminar on the Problems of Africa; a review of the City and Government Officials and a Brotherhood Food Festival.

Other officers of the Raleigh Chapter are vice-president, Mrs. Mozella D. Merritt, Mrs. Millie D. Veasey, secretary, Mrs. Ada Jarnagin, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Vivian T. Brown, treasurer and Dr. Ellen S. Alston, chairman of the Mary McLeod Bethune Memorial.

NCNW Less Than Year Old Here

The Raleigh Chapter of the National Council of Negro Women, less than one-year-old, has a membership of 64.

This organization was founded by Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune and the historic meeting was attended by 35 of the most widely known Negro women leaders in the United States who came to consult on the need for united planning and concerted action by women's organizations.

The influence of NCNW extends across the nation and the world. It has united women from all walks of life who are concerned with planning and acting for the economic, social, educational and cultural welfare of women on national and international levels.

The program of the National Council is carried on through its several program departments which function at national and local levels, these program departments include Education, Human Relations, International Relations, Youth Conservation, Labor and Industry, Library and Museum, Public Relations, Religious Education and Social Welfare.

There are four classes of memberships, Organization, Individual, Life and Associate Memberships. Among the 25 National Affiliates are the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Daughter of BPO of Elks, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, National Association of Beauty School Owners and Teachers, National Beauty Culturists League, National Association of Jeanes Supervisors, Phi Delta Kappa, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Women's Auxiliary to the National Medical and Dental Associations, Women's Missionary Society of the AME Church and the Zeta

MISS PATRICIA MURRAY, Washington, D. C.: Through the field of Sociology, I hope to learn more about people and their way of life. To understand them better and to help them understand others. I sincerely believe that getting along with people is a great factor in achieving world peace.

MISS GERALDINE CAFFHART, Raleigh: I am planning my future work in the field of Elementary Education. I will take as much French as possible in order to increase the interest of other youth in the foreign language department.

Phi Beta Sorority. The Raleigh Chapter, with Mrs. Gila Harris as president and the following program committee members, Miss J. E. Hicks, Mrs. Ada Jarnagin and Mrs. Harriet Jones have included on their 1961-62 Calendar of event 100 per cent support of the Mary McLeod Bethune Monument to be erected in Washington, D. Oberlin Baptist Church

The Oberlin Baptist Church was burned to the ground in January 1955. At that time the property was valued at $15,000. Less than six months later a new church valued at $80,000 was constructed by this progressive membership. In addition the same year (1954) the church bought an apartment house valued at $40,000.

I prefer to miss even the echoes of a domestic row, and retreat to my solitary cave as fast as I can run.

My Neighbors

"I suppose you called me in to present me with a handsome refund?"

The beautiful new church has completed educational classrooms and other facilities to take care of its needs.

Membership has grown from 125 to more than 200 in recent years. Oberlin Baptist is very active in community activities, such as Boy Scouting, NAACP, voting, Citizens Association and many other helpful projects in the community.

The Reverend Grady D. Davis has been the pastor for the past eight years.
