Badly Lacking In Talent, Lily-White Washington Redskins Lose 32 Games

PITTSBURG (ANP) — Owner Preston Marshall Monday was still sticking tenaciously to his lilywhite policy for the hapless Washington Redskins, despite the fact that the team was in the throes of one of the longest winning streaks in National Football League history. The stubbornness of Marshall to integrate his team with at least one Negro player is made all the more ridiculous by the fact that the Redskins are making only a pretense of playing good professional football. Last Sunday (Oct. 15), for instance, the team suffered its 32 straight loss in a 20-0 whitewash at the hands of the Pittsburgh Steelers. It was the first victory for the Steelers in the young football season and the fifth straight loss for the 'Skins in season play. PICKET 'SKINSED CLEVELAND The previous Sunday the 'Skins lost to the Cleveland Browns, 31-7, in a game that was picketed by Cleveland Freedom Fighters. The pickets carried signs denouncing the team's lilywhite policy and passed out literature appealing to fans not to spend their money supporting discrimination. It is not known that the steady campaign by Negroes and intermittent attacks on the team's policy by the Interior Department has any great effect on fans attendance, but last Sunday's Steelers-Redskins game was played before the smallest field in about a decade. The Interior Department has repeatedly threatened to deny the use of the spanking new city stadium to the 'Skins unless Marshall drops the lilywhite policy and hire at least one Negro player. It is rumored that Marshall has a tentative agreement with Interior Secretary Stuart Udall to hire a Negro player, but so far he has not complied. Meanwhile, the pickets, their lines constantly growing, are continuing their march against the team.

Hollywood & People Of Color

BY ANDY RAZAF (Author of "Honeysuckle Rose", "Memories of You" and other Ballads) LOS ANGELES (ANP)—Because TV enters many millions of American homes and is viewed by adults and children alike, it has become a most important and powerful media for entertainment, education and better racial understanding. Thus the responsibility of this fast growing industry increases as each day goes by. In this vital period of world affairs when people of good will are striving for better human relations, the objective script writer and producer can perform an invaluable service to our country. To begin with, let's take the usual "Jungle" and "African" films we see. In almost every case, the same childish, unauthentic formats are used. Whether these false and misleading portrayals of the African stem from a desire to "not offend southern exhibitors", (AS IN THE CASE OF THE AMERICAN NEGRO) or prejudice or plain ignorance of facts, I do not know. However, you can always expect some "white queen" or "great white doctor" (who knows more about Africa than the Africans) to rule and wield the power of life and death over some tribe. The "natives" are bound to fall on their faces at the sight of them, and in battle, drop their spears and run like frightened deer at the sound of a gun in a white person's hand. African "chiefs and witch doctors" usually acts like blackface comedians in a minstrel show. In short, no wisdom, virtue, dignity or courage can be expected of Africans despite the facts of history which prove to the contrary. Let's hope that in the not too distant future, writers and producers will seek a combined art with integrity, when dealing with the Black man in general. In public libraries and book stores (NOT OUR SCHOOLS) can be found the writings of unbiased authors, which will supply those who seek the truth, with material enough to write a thousand fascinating films about the Africans, who had great civilizations when many whites were savages, roaming the European forests with painted bodies. Not to mention the many brilliant and distinguished Africans of the present day it would be an eye-opening experience to read up on the lives of such African leaders as Moshesh, Chaka, Cetewayo, Tippu Tib, Lobengula, Menelik and many others. Here's hoping that TV leads the way.

Huge Homecoming Crowd Sees Team Capture Win

BY BOB WHITE The J. W. Ligon Little Blues scored three touchdowns and a two point conversion in the first half and made it stand up as they trampled the Mary Potter Rams of Oxford 20-8 before an overflowing homecoming crowd in Raleigh's Chavis Park Friday night. The only Ram score came in the final moments of the last quarter. James Dickens, Ligon halfback, out faked the Ram defenders to catch a 20-yard pass from Willie White for the first TD. The Blues scored again in the second quarter on a ten-yard plunge by sophomore quarterback White to climax an extended drive. The final Ligon tally came a few minutes later on a pass interception and runback that covered 40 yards by Roy Hicks. The only extra point was scored by fullback Andrew Horton who plovered over the middle after the first score. The heralded passing attack of the Rams never really started until the last quarter. But it was passing that got them into scoring position late in the final quarter to allow George Lyons to score from three yards out and prevent a shut out. Garland Whitherspoon ran over the extra point. Mary Potter had an edge in total yards gained by picking up 55 yards in the air to Ligon's 29. They had an overall total of 116 to 95 for the Blues. Friday night, the Blues will have their hands full when a strong team from Georgetown High of Jacksonville comes to Raleigh's Chavis Park. They'll bring a 5-1 record to compare with Ligon's 5-1. Last year Raleigh racked up a 28-12 victory over the Georgetown team. Game time is set for 8:00 p.m.

Aggies Whip Gridders Of Winston-Salem TC, 27-20

GREENSBORO—Down six points with two minutes to play, the A&T College Aggies struck with fury to score twice and whip Winston-Salem Teachers College, 27-20, in a thrilling football game here Saturday afternoon. Two sophomores turned the trick on the come from behind coin. Willie Ferguson, a 6-1, 175 pound quarterback from Waycross, Ga., handled the lead role in the contest. He threw two home run balls to his sophomore classmate, Ronald Hart of Suffolk, Va., one in the second stanza and the winner in the fourth period. The Winston Teachers gave the Aggies many anxious moments in the contest. They led twice in the thriller, 8-7, in the second quarter and 20-14. With these fatal two minutes left, Dame Luck looked the other way and the A&T sophomore duo rose to the occasion. Winston scored two of their TD's on Aggie errors, one a blocked punt and another on a pass interception, both deep in A&T territory, but the final one came on the end of a 60-yard march. The Aggies hit the scoring column in the first period as Dick Westmoreland raced over with a 51-yard touchdown sprint. On 4th down, Westmoreland broke away from a fake kick formation for the distance, catching the Winston defenders off guard. Gene Cambridge split the uprights for the extra points. A blocked punt set up the Teachers' first TD. A Winston lineman broke through to smother Westmoreland's kick on the Aggie 18. Five plays later Nelson Guthrie cleaved end on a six-yard scoring play. On the identical play, Guthrie shot around end for the extra point to put his team ahead, 8-7. Winston scored again in the second quarter as Guthrie hit across from the 9-yard line. On the previous play Guthrie had intercepted a pass by Willie Ferguson. A running attempt for the extra points was short. The Aggies knotted the count in the final seconds of the first half as Ferguson passed to Hart on a 51-yard scoring play. Cambridge kicked the extra point and the score was 14-all as the two teams went to their dressing rooms. Winston went ahead 20-14 with two minutes left in the ball game as Richard Souels, substitute quarterback, passed to Robert Jackson, end, for 10 yards. A pass attempt for the extra points fell harmlessly to the ground. The final tally was made by Joseph Flood, Aggie center, who intercepted a desperation pass by Souels. Flood took the ball on the Teachers' 25-yard line and covered the distance, untouched.
