Student At Ligon Gets Top Honor

An article entitled "It's Election Time" written by Miss Patricia Gill, a senior at the J. W. Ligon High School, was published in the November issue of Student Life, a magazine published by the National Association of Secondary School Principals of the National Education Association which has circulation throughout the fifty states.

The purpose of the publication is to encourage better secondary schools and to provide an outlet for students creative writing, art and photography.

Miss Gill, who is the state secretary for the North Carolina Student Council organization, wrote the page and one half article which includes pictures, describing Ligon's procedure and excitement when it is time to elect student council officers. The election is controlled by the student council under the supervision of Mrs. T. L. Daley, guidance counselor. Special recognition has been given the school several times before because of this annual affair.

The story submitted by her is only one of her many efforts in student activities. An honor student, she represented North Carolina at the 25th National Student Council Convention at Northwest Classen High School in Oklahoma the past summer.

Telegram Sent To Prelate

LAURINBURG — Bishop Raymond L. Jones, who presided over the 82nd session of the Central North Carolina Conference, AME Zion Church, made a blistering attack upon Bishop Nolan B. Harmon, of the Methodist Church, for a statement he is purported to have made in Charlotte recently.

The prelate joined the editors of a Methodist students' journal at Duke University, who registered a rigid protest about the desegregation of the pool at Lake Junaluska. Bishop Harmon is alleged to have said that he was against desegregating the pool and felt that it should remain racially segregated.

Bishop Jones sent the following telegram:

Bishop Nolan B. Harmon
First Methodist Church
Charlotte, N. C.

It is with deep regret that the members of the Central North Carolina Conference, AME Zion Church, in 82nd annual session, received the sad intelligence that you are reportedly against the desegregation of the swimming pool at Lake Junaluska. Let us say we deplore your statement and are utterly sorry that such an eminent scholar

Claims He Didn't Have A Weapon

MONROE—A jury deliberated for 15 minutes Friday and convicted a 20-year-old youth of wounding a police officer during a racial disturbance here in August.

Albert Rorie was sentenced by Superior Court Judge Allen H. Gwyn to 3 to 5 years in prison. His attorney, Conrad Lynn of New York, gave notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court and appeal bond was set at $2,500.

A second youth charged in the shooting, Jimmy Covington, 15, will be given a hearing Friday in juvenile court.

The jury of 11 white and one white woman consulted after hearing brief testimony from Rorie, Covington and Officer J. W. Rushing, the victim.

Rorie denied shooting the officer while Rushing and other officers were trying to quell a racial disorder near the Union County Courthouse on August 27.

"I didn't even have a gun," the clear-cut youth said.

Covington admitted he shot once during the disturbance, but said he shot over Rushing's head.

Rushing testified that both youths had guns and that both of them shot at him. He said he did not know whose bullet hit him in the leg. He was hospitalized but has returned to duty.

Man Faces 4 Charges In Killing

DURHAM—A six-year-old Durham boy was struck down by a truck and killed on a rural paved road about 6 miles north of here Sunday.

The boy was identified as Obbie Watson of Route 2. He was walking with three companions along the road when the incident happened.

Investigating Highway Patrolman William Brown said witnesses told him the truck left the road and struck the boy as he ran into a ditch to get out of its path.

The three other children ran to safety on the bank, Brown reported.

The driver of the truck, Trella Gentry, 39, of Rougemont fled from the scene after the accident, Brown said. He was later apprehended about a half mile from the scene in some woods.

Gentry was charged with drunken driving, manslaughter, driving without a license and hit-and-run driving. He is now in the Durham County Jail.

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

VERY UNFORTUNATE

It is very unfortunate that the only corrective measure the city manager of Raleigh knows how to use is reprisal. And when the reprisal has all the earmarks of discrimination, it becomes more and more unfortunate.

Because there was violence at the city auditorium during a dance participated in mostly by Negroes, Mr. Carper, Raleigh's City Manager, recommended to the City Council that pay dances be banned at this city owned facility.
