JOHNSON NAMED SAFETY TRAINER

Albert Johnson, teacher at Ligon High School and a Red Cross water safety instructor since 1938, has been designated by Red Cross as a water safety instructor-trainer. The certificate that was presented to him at a recent committee meeting by F. P. Bodenheimer, Vice President, First Citizens Bank and Chairman of the Red Cross Water Safety Committee, indicates that he is authorized to train Senior Life Savers as Water Safety Instructors.

This is a big step forward for the local water safety program at Chavis Pool and also means that Johnson can conduct the state-wide course held each year in Raleigh for instructors training.

RUSH METROPOLITAN AMEZ—It seems that discussion time has become a reality at our church and as a result more than 15 young people have joined within the last week. The services began Sunday at 11 a.m. with the senior choir in charge of the music. Following the call to worship the choir led the processional singing "Holy, Holy, Holy", kneeling prayerfully around the altar. Following the doxology, pastoral prayer and choral response, the responsive reading was then led by our pastor. Our 1st hymn, "Amazing Grace," was sung, lined by our pastor, Rev. T. H. Harris. Scripture lesson was read also by Rev. Harris. Bro. Thomas Davis offered the prayer. After singing "All Praise to our Redeeming Lord", Rev. Harris then chose his text from Isaiah 52:7. His theme was "The beauty and joy of peace." All of us know the joy and peace which comes through possession of fortunate circumstances. But the peace which Jesus gives depends neither on outward circumstances nor on control of our feelings. It comes from our depending upon God as our strength and stay.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

BY COLIN DOUGLAS
"Let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may edify one another."—Rom. 14:19.
If we have a sincere desire to live and work in ideal conditions and to be in perfect harmony and agreement with other persons, we must consider how we can create such an environment. If it happens that we have been resisting persons and conditions, let us open our minds and hearts to God's spirit of harmony and adjustment.

Apex News

BY MRS. LOUISE COLVIN
APEX—Worship service began at First Baptist at 11:00 a.m. Rev. Phillips gave the call to worship and opening prayer. The senior choir was in charge of the devotion. The pastor, Rev. W. T. Bigelow's scripture reading was from the 5th chapter of Acts. The basis of his sermon was centered around the 9-11 verses. It was the story of Unanias and Sapphira who allowed Satan to fill their hearts to lie to the Holy Ghost, the light and dark side of early Christianity. It was an informative message.

Starting the First Sunday in January, 1962 First Baptist will begin worship services each Sunday instead of the first and third Sundays, nearly five years ago. We felt that First Baptist made the wisest choice in the history of its existence in choosing the Rev. W. T. Bigelow as pastor of the church. Under his inspiring leadership, there has been progress for First Baptist right from the start. We feel more than fortunate to have him as our leader. We pray that God may continue to give him courage, wisdom, faith and grace to continue his outstanding leadership in this church and this community. Sick and Shut-ins Mrs. Effie Herndon, Mrs. Louise Horton, and Mr. Earnest Jones. Visitors are cordially invited.
