PHILADELPHIA (ANP) - The refusal by singer Etta James to perform at the Blue Moon Club in controversy over money recently triggered a wild, bottle-throwing riot by angry fans who felt they were short-changed in the deal. So infuriated were the fans, that they stoned "the joint", demanding their money back. Miss James and her combo were forced to flee for their safety. And it took State Troopers, local police, deputy sheriffs and firemen to restore or-

The whole controversy, including the riot, was blamed on a doorman who made off with the cash collected from fans paying $2 a head to hear Miss James sing. According to police report, this

Meanwhile it was learned that the money was gone. A certain man collecting faces at the door had vanished with the receipts and has not been seen since.

This, however, could not be explained to the satisfaction of the fans, who paid to see a show and expected to. The riot ensued and, in the melee, six persons were arrested for disorderly conduct and later fined a total of $521.

Students Now Studying In Monrovia

Howard University medical students arrived in Africa this week for six weeks of training in tropical medicine. They are Glenn Bynum of 291 E. Canfield St., Detroit; and George Nolan of 2640 Highland Ave., Kansas City, Mo. Both are recipients of scholarships from the Cardiovascular Research Laboratory at Howard, and were selected for the awards as a result of high scholastic averages. They will study at the Firestone Hospital in Monrovia, Liberia.

Under the grants, they will receive training in parasitic and nutritional diseases, as a part of the hospital's medical clerkship program. A clerkship is a part of the curricula which is required of medical students at Howard. In Winston-Salem, December 26-30, Monrovia, the students will work in hospital wards, write reports lem Teachers College in the and conduct physical examina- North Carolina city.
