an interracial organization. Christian circles hailed it as a major step in bridging the gap that has separated the two races. There are those who feel that the church is the place to recognize men and measures first and say that when this practice becomes the rule that the capital will be a better place

REV. C. W. WARD

They point to the fact that many of the white churches have failed to recognize the ancient principle of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. They relate the fact that a white man walked out of a local white church, with would-be race worshippers that he would like to see them on the use his truck to run "them down. Other officers elected were: Rev

George Hale, St. Timothy Episcopal Church, vice-president; Rev. Collins Kilburn, United Church, secretary; Rev. Frank K. Bastian, First Evangelical Reform Church, treasurer. The executive committee is composed of Rev. D. S. Leader,

"God giveth the increase" OF DEEP SIGNIFICANCE

The news last week that four Negro colleges in North Carolina had met the accredition requirement of the Southern Association of Colleges and consequently are now on the accredited list of that body is truly of deep significance.

The North Carolina institutions are Livingstone College in Salisbury, Elizabeth City Teachers College, Elizabeth City, St. Augustine's College and Shaw University in Raleigh.

In an age when quality and excellence have become the criteria of performance for all groups, Negroes could hardly afford the costly luxury of inferior and inadequate training and preparation offered them in too many of their

GUILFORD COLLEGE-Dr. Grady D. Davis, Dean of the School of Religion, Shaw University, Raleigh, told the faculty and students of Guilford College, Saturday, that the goal to the image of social reform lies between a critical analysis of one's self and a motivation to activate a more dramatic and dynamic participation in the immediate arena of social change.

He said that it had become in creasingly clear that we had catapulted into a period of overnight revolutions, unparalleled in human history. The changes now taking place had removed the old orders of society and new ones are struggling to be born. He warned that human beings are rapidly divesting
