

CHATHAM CHILD STOLEN

DR. MARTIN L. KING

M. L. King Predicts Utopia

NEW YORK — The Rev. Martin Luther King predicted today that in 25 years the world will "blush with shame to recall that, three decades earlier, a human being was graded by the color of his skin and degraded if that color was not white."

By 1967, the Rev. King added, "I would expect the Christian era to begin."

The Negro leader's remarks appeared in an article in the current issue of Look Magazine in which the magazine marked its 25th anniversary of publication and presented the predictions of leading world figures about the next quarter.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Lynchburg Minister In Contempt

LYNCHBURG, Va. — The plot grows deeper and the lines are getting tighter here as Corporation Court Judge O. Raymond Cundiff would like to know why Rev. John Teeter, pastor of a biracial church, did not show up in court Tuesday to answer to a hearing.

The so-called integrationist pastor was ordered to court to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of a state committee, investigating racial law suits. The complaint was filed by William King, counsel for the State Committee on Offenses against the Administration of Justice.

The contempt charge, however, was dropped, but Teeter's failure to appear in court brought Judge Cundiff's attention. Teeter, who has an unlisted telephone number in Lynchburg, could not be reached for comment at his church.

The original charge against Teeter.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER

The five-day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning January 4 and continuing through Monday, Jan. 8, is as follows:

Temperatures will average a little below normal, warmer first of the period, becoming colder by the end of the period. Frequent day to day changes in temperatures. Precipitation will average a quarter to half inch occurring mostly around Friday and Saturday.

New York Woman Accused

SILER CITY — Strange things can and do happen, but one of the strangest happened here last week when a New York woman, who found a home for a child, whom she alleges had been deserted by her mother, when she was three months old, suddenly disappeared with the child, now six years old.

The strange event began when Miss Ruby Dickson, who formerly lived in this section, went to the home of Robert Colson and asked that she be permitted to take the child to buy her some Christmas cheer. The Colsons consented and went away to visit friends. When they returned there was no trace of the child, nor Miss Dickson.

Sheriff J. W. Emerson was called in and began an investigation as to whether the child had been kidnapped. There was some conjecture as to a kidnap charge standing up, due to the fact that the Colsons had not adopted the child, legally.

The sheriff told the CAROLINIAN that he was working closely with District Solicitor Ike Andrews and Federal Solicitor William Murdoch in an effort to bring the child back to the Colson home.

The strangeness grows stranger when one considers the fact that Miss Dickson is alleged to have been the person who asked the Colsons to take the child and rear it. It is alleged that the mother did not want the child and she interceded for a good home. Miss Dickson is alleged to have not shown any special interest in the child and had not seen her since she was taken by the Colsons. Miss Dickson is a niece of Mrs. Colson. She is believed to have taken the child back to New York.

At press time, the CAROLINIAN was informed that warrants had

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Beaufort Woman Faces Manslaughter Charge

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Dorothy Long Lawrence is being held on a charge of manslaughter in the Beaufort County jail, subject to a $5,000 bond, in the death of three of her children, as the result of a fire that destroyed her home Saturday night.

Chief of Police Phillip Paul told the CAROLINIAN that he had the warrant drawn because he felt that she was guilty of neglect, in leaving the children alone in the house.

John A. Wilkinson, white attorney, who says that he is going to defend the accused woman, did not have the same view as the officer Mr. Wilkinson was prone to believe the woman, due to adverse circumstances, had to be away from home. She is alleged to have gone to the home of her sister to

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 21, NO. 11

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1962

PRICE 15c

Unravel 10 Year Killings

CAROLINIAN WINNER—Mrs. Judy Robinson, white, who gave birth to the first baby born in Wake Memorial Hospital, in 19-62. Jerry, shown in her arms, arrived at 1:44 p. m., January 1st. The mother and baby will receive a number of gifts from the twenty-five Raleigh merchants.

1st Wake Baby Gets Carolinian Awards

THE CAROLINIAN Baby of 19-62, arrived at Wake Memorial Hospital January 1, at 1:44 p. m. and was born to Mrs. Judy Robinson, white, 817 Hill Top Road. It was a boy and weighed 7-lbs., 6-ozs. When the youngster arrived neither he nor his mother knew what the CAROLINIAN had in store for them, through the courtesy of 25 Raleigh merchants.

It has been one of the many public service features of this newspaper to give to the first baby born, at St. Agnes Hospital, at the advent of the new year, a shower of gifts, furnished by cooperative merchants. Due to the fact that St. Agnes is no more, the place of birth was changed to Wake Memorial. The father, or mother, has only to come by the office, 518 E. Martin Street, and get the proper authority and then pick up the many gifts, from the merchants. The name and addresses of the merchants will also be furnished.

The feature has been one of the awaited events of the year and even though there is no knowledge of any special preparation being made to get the coveted prize, for any particular youngsters, there is always the anticipated hope of expectant mothers, who happen to be in line for it, to be the first to be delivered, as the new year rolls around.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

HEADS ZETAS — Mrs. Nora Lockhart, principal, Crosby-Gardner Elementary School, was elected to head the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, at its annual session held in Winston-Salem, during the Christmas season. Mrs. Lockhart is well-known in Raleigh circles and has made outstanding contributions to the life of the community. She is the Grand Titular, the titular head of the Greek letter organization. Persons close to the program feel that Mrs. Lockhart will administer the affairs with such accuracy that the Sorority will enjoy its most profitable administration.

Tobacco Worker Conceals Crimes

WINSTON-SALEM — The old saying that "time has its way" might be the case with a Winston-Salem man.

Robert Hall, 26, a tobacco worker, has been arrested and charged with fatally shooting a cab driver and a bill collector 10 years ago. He is being held in Forsyth County Jail without privilege of bond.

Hall is alleged to have shot and killed Floyd Emory Cline, 56, a cab driver, and Horace Groely Talbot, Jr., 46, a bill collector. The slayings occurred Jan. 4, 1952.

City and County officers said Hall admitted he shot Cline to death after Cline resisted his attempt to rob him. The shooting occurred on rural Mickey Mill Rd., where Hall allegedly had Cline to

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

New York Woman Heroine Of Fire

NEW YORK CITY — The fast life of New York City and the lure for the bright lights evidently do not affect a mother's love, when fire sweeps thru a house where her children are living.

This was proven Saturday when Mrs. Rosa Jenkins, 29, grabbed her infant son, and with the prowess of a tiger, leaped thru a third floor window, landing safely. She gently laid the baby down and caught her four year old daughter, Rosa Lee, as she tumbled from the same window.

Mrs. Jenkins is said to have landed on the roof of a shed when she made the jump, with her 13 month old Anthony, in her arms. The three were taken to Kings County hospital, where they are reported in fair condition. The mother suffered many bruises and cuts, while the children are reported to have suffered from smoke poisoning.

The origin of the fire was not determined and the mother was not too anxious to find out, after it was discovered. Her only desire was to get her children to safety. She demonstrated this by making her exit through the first opening she

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Domestics Prove Helpful

RICHMOND, Va. — Seemingly buoyed with a firm desire to obtain first class citizenship and proud of the fact that he had been able to recruit some white friends in his fight, John McFerren told a local audience that he helped to set up a "Secret Communications Pipeline" in Tennessee, that aided considerably to keep tab on the moves of white people, who were against the principles of true democracy.

Mr. McFerren is from "Tent City", Fayette County, Tenn., and one of the victims of the ruthless wrath of those who would deny Negroes the right to vote, in that section of Tennessee. He spoke to what could be termed a dedicated mixed audience, that braced the chill of New Year's Day to take part in the fourth annual New Year's Day, "Pilgrimage for Prayer and Interracial Progress."

The program has become part of an activated movement to dramatize the fight for first class citizenship in Virginia. It is held on the steps of the Mosque Civic Auditorium. It was estimated that upwards of 3,000 persons would attend the program, but a continuous snowfall is said to have kept the crowd low.

The speaker seems to have taken

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Charlotte Medic Determined

CHARLOTTE — Dr. Charles W. Williams, who has been the object of criticism by some of his fellow practitioners and suffered much embarrassment in his effort to join the staff of the city-owned Memorial Hospital, told the CAROLINIAN that all he was doing was to be able to give his patients better service.

Dr. Williams made news here last year when he accepted membership in the North Carolina Medical Society, as a prerequisite to medical staff privileges. Many of the local doctors are alleged to have censured him for what they called second class membership in the society.

When asked by the CAROLINIAN if he thought he was accepting the membership on that basis, he gave a distinct no. He said that it was only a means to an end. The doctor is very desirous of practicing as a staff member of the city hospital. He says that he will leave no stone unturned and will close up all loop holes, so that when he re-applies for staff duty, at the hospital, he will have met any and all requirements and should be permitted, be on par with any other doctor.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2 Horton's Cash Store
- PAGE 3 Town & Country Furniture Co. The Fabric Shop Mother & Daughter Southern Bell
- PAGE 5 Hudson-Baik — Efrid's Auto Insurance Service Central Drug Store Gem Wash Shop Firestone St. res
- PAGE 6 Community Florist S. M. Young Hardware Company First Citizens Bank & Trust Co. Thomas Food Market McCloud, Watson & Lanier
- PAGE 7 James H. Brown Auto Mount Company
- PAGE 8 Colonial Stores R. E. Quinn Furniture Co. Taylor Radio & TV Service Acme Realty Company
- PAGE 9 Shoe Mart A&P Food Stores Standard Concrete Products Co. Dunn's Esso Service Hunt General Tire Company Branch Banking & Trust Co. United Rent-All
- PAGE 10 Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh Watson's Seafood & Poultry Co., Inc. Dillon Motor Finance Co. Seven-Up Bottling Company Carolina Builders Corp. Ridgeway's Opticians, Inc. Blodgett's St. Tourist Home Deluxe Hotel Warner Memorials
- PAGE 13 Lincoln Theatre Joe Murnick Promotions
- PAGE 16 Raleigh Seafood Company Higley Wigly Mechanics & Farmers Bank Raleigh Funeral Home

World In Pictures

PROTEST TESTING — Students from Arden, Mount Holyoke, Smith, University of Mass, Harvard and Columbia, are shown marching in front of the White House, Washington, D. C. Christmas Day protesting their opposition to renewed atmospheric testing by the United States.

STIMULATES RALLY — These 8 men gave $10.00 each to the N. C. NAACP conference at Goldsboro to stimulate the Freedom Fund collection, in answer to the challenge of president Kelly Alexander, who led the offering. (Front row, left to right), are: Dr. O. R. Stovall, Dr. R. O. Weathers, Charles Irving, E. L. Smith and A. C. Crowder. (Back row): Ben A. Brewington, W. R. Saxon and Thomas Pettway.

HUMBLE GIVES UNCF $50,000 — William J. Trent, Jr., executive director of the United Negro College Fund (in photo third from left), is shown receiving a check, one of the largest ever to be granted by the Esso Education Foundation, for $50,000 from Alex A. Duffey, general manager of Humble Oil Co., Eastern Division. This fund will be used to help meet operating expenses of 32 private member colleges and universities in 12 states. Shown also are Wendell P. Alston, left, and James S. Avery, public relations representatives for Humble.

DRIVING IN — Iowa's Andy Hankins (25, center), collides with Penn's Sid Amiral (33, left) and Dave Robinson (40, right) as he was driving in for a shot, in the final period of the Penn-Iowa game, during the Quaker City Tourney during the holiday season. Iowa won, 72-64.

NOT A SHADOW OF A DOUBT — Debra Hill, 8, was born with an open spine, since repaired, along with other defects of the spinal column. National Foundation-March of Dimes specialists examine x-rays of the child's spine as the little girl looks on. March of Dimes funds were responsible for Debra's good fortune.

TRAPPED HAWK — Foul play? Not on your life. This is good square guarding, but close, man, close. Cincinnati's Adrian Smith encircles Hawk Cleo Hill's arms to keep him from making a "free throw." Hill tried, but the ball bounced off the backboard into the Royals' possession. Action took place in second period of St. Louis-Cincinnati game in St. Louis, Dec. 26th. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

BACK FROM SOVIET — Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, of Newark, N. J., greet their daughter, Huldah, 14, (c) as she returns from school in the Soviet Union for the Christmas holidays Dec. 22nd. Her father declined to let Huldah speak to newsmen but he said he had sent her to Russia "to escape Jim Crow." (UPI TELEPHOTO).

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)