

Photo Faces

LEONIDAS HAYWOOD, principal of the Oberlin Elementary School for several years, has resigned his post. Haywood's resignation becomes effective this week. Mr. Haywood's resignation has been received in the office of the Superintendent, Jesse O. Sanderson, and has been accepted. There has been no reason given for Mr. Haywood's resignation.

ANDREW T. HATCHER, Associate Press Secretary to the President of the United States, will speak at Shaw University at a special assembly on Friday, January 12, at 12 noon in Greenleaf Auditorium. He is married to the former Ruth Avery. They have seven children ranging in age from three to thirteen.

NATHANIEL QUILLER, 29, who was sentenced to a six-month term in the stabbings of John Marsh Fort, 46. The stabbings allegedly occurred because Fort refused Quiller a drink of wine. Quiller's appeal bond was set at $200. Fort was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital and released.

REV. B. ELTON COX of High Point, Field Secretary for CORE, has returned from Baton Rouge, La. where he was arrested and jailed for 10 days following a protest rally at the East Baton Rouge Parish Jail. Rev. Cox said Louisiana has a State Law against picketing except for labor unions.

DR. GRADY D. DAVIS was elected for a second term as chairman of the Raleigh Citizens Association at a recent meeting held at the Bloodworth St. Y.M.C.A. Plans for installation services for the newly-elected officers are now underway and will be announced at a later date.

Cox Freed From La. Jail

High Point Pastor Put On $6,000 Cash Bond

HIGH POINT — The Rev. B. Elton Cox, field secretary for CORE, has returned to this city following his release under a $6,000.00 bond from the Baton Rouge, La. jail.

Rev. Cox was confined to the La. jail for 10 days following his arrest for participating in a rally staged at the East Baton Rouge jail. This rally, held on Dec. 15, was a demonstration against the Dec. 14 mass arrest of Southern University students for picketing Baton Rouge segregated lunch rooms and bus terminals. According to Rev. Cox, Louisiana laws bars all public picketing except done by labor unions.

In an exclusive interview with the CAROLINIAN, Rev. Cox gave this story regarding his La. experiences. "As Field Secretary for CORE, I was sent to Baton Rouge to aid students of Southern University in their negotiations with 12 department and variety stores with their efforts to bring about the desegregation of the lunch counters in these stores and to secure more employment for Negroes."

"After two weeks of fruitless talks, we decided to use other tactics. Sit-ins were staged at the lunch counters which did not serve Negroes. Block-ins were used where the counters were segregated." (A block-in meant that stu-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Holmes All "A" Student At U. Of Georgia

ATHENS, Ga. (ANP) — Hamilton Holmes and Charlayne Hunter, the two who broke the school segregation barrier in Georgia, have just completed the fall quarter at the University of Georgia.

The University has notified a record in all courses taken during the fall quarter. The serious-minded young pre-medical student made A plus in physics, A plus in economics, A in zoology, and A in German.

Holmes is the same young man who was described by attorneys for the University and state of Georgia as not qualified for admittance to the University. A federal judge ordered the admittance of Hamilton and Miss Hunter in January, 1961.

Holmes has been on the honor roll at the University every quarter that he has been enrolled at the school. Miss Hunter posted a B-average during the fall quarter, but she made the honor roll during the spring quarter with a B plus average.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Rev. Ward Installed

Rev. Charles W. Ward, pastor of the First Baptist Church, presided at the first meeting of the Raleigh Ministerial Association for 1962, Tuesday.

Rev. Ward is an A. B. graduate of Morehouse College in Atlanta, Ga., and earned his B. D. degree from the School of Religion at Howard University in Washington, D. C.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Associate Press Sec'y To Speak At Shaw

Andrew T. Hatcher, Associate Press Secretary to the President of the United States will speak at Shaw University at a special assembly on Friday, January 12, at 12:00 noon in Greenleaf Auditorium.

Hatcher has been active in politics since 1950. He went on leave from his job as Assistant Labor Commissioner of California to take part in the Kennedy campaign. For seven years before this he was court attaché and clerk to Federal Judge Oliver J. Carter in California. He was at one time a newspaper man and was editor of the Sun Reporter in San Francisco, in 1947-50.

Mr. Hatcher was born in Princeton, New Jersey, thirty-seven years ago. He attended the public schools there, and was also a stu-

Daddy Grace's Successor Faces Contempt Charges

PHILADELPHIA (ANP) — Bishop Walter McCullough, controversial head of "Sweet Daddy Grace's" multi-million dollar United House of Prayer for All People faces contempt charges for refusing to step down as leader of the cult.

District Judge George L. Hart has given the prelate, who claims he was legally and officially elected after balloting by the church's hundreds of elders, until this month to show cause why he should not be held in contempt of court.

The court had ordered Bishop McCullough to relinquish his position last Aug. 31, after disgruntled members in Washington, D. C., refused to ac-

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 21, NO. 12

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 13, 1962

PRICE 15c

Local Principal Quits

No Reason Given At Press Time

Leonidas Haywood, principal of the Oberlin Elementary School for several years, has resigned his post. It is understood that Mr. Haywood's resignation becomes effective as of this week.

The school principal's resignation was conveyed through a call made by The CAROLINIAN to the office of School Supt. Jesse O. Sanderson. Mr. Sanderson's secretary, Mrs. June Driver told The CAROLINIAN that Mr. Haywood's resignation had been received at the superintendent's office and had been accepted.

When asked why Mr. Haywood quit his school post during mid-term, the superintendent's office said that full information concerning the matter would be released at a later date.

In a telephone call to Mr. Haywood's home Wednesday morning, the principal said he had not resigned and that he could give no reason for the rumors being circulated concerning his stepping down. It is understood that Mr. Hay-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Citizens Ass'n Elects Davis

The Raleigh Citizens Association, acting upon the recommendation of a special nominating committee, has elected its officers for 1962.

Officers elected during the Association's meeting Thursday evening, Jan. 4 at the Bloodworth St. YMCA were, Dr. Grady D. Davis,

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ROADSIDE COMFORTER — Mrs. Isabella Miller, Newark, N. J., a passing motorist, comforts Lawrence Barlow, Jr., 6, and his sister, Florence A., 3, after they were injured in an accident recently on Garden State Parkway, near Union toll plaza, Hillside, N. J. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Greensboro Mortician Indicted

GREENSBORO — Nathaniel C. Hargett, Sr. was indicted Tuesday in Guilford County Superior Court by a grand jury on a charge of false pretense. Hargett's burial practices had been under investigation by state and county agencies.

Hargett was indicted on information supplied authorities by the family of an infant buried in Hargett's crude rural cemetery located about 12 miles east of here.

An intensive investigation of the wealthy funeral director was launched Dec. 18 when the accidental discovery was made that one of the graves contained a cheap pine box instead of a coffin. A further investigation showed there were five bodies stuffed inside and wrapped in newspaper.

The false pretense charge concerned the burial of one of these five.

Hargett's son is scheduled for a hearing in municipal court on charges of causing false information to be broadcast over a police radio.

Nathaniel E. Hargett, Jr. was arrested at a rural house southeast of here on land owned by his fa-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER

The five day weather forecast for Raleigh, beginning Jan. 11 and continuing through Monday, Jan. 15 is as follows:

Temperatures will average 15 degrees below normal, with about one-half inch precipitation Thursday through Monday. Cold with only a small change in temperature throughout the period. Snow ending Wednesday night, with rain or snow again about Saturday and possibly Monday.

NNPA Workshop Is Set For D. C.

CHICAGO — The National Newspaper Publishers Association will hold its 1962 Mid-Winter Workshop in Washington, D. C., January 25-27, at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, it has been announced by John H. Sengstacke, NNPA president and head of The Chicago Daily Defender and the Defender Publications.

Mr. Sengstacke will keynote the conference on its theme, "The Challenge of 1962" as a lead-off to a variety of sessions on matters of concern to members of the publishing business. Treatments of the Russell Awards and National Negro Newspaper Week are also scheduled for the first session with Thomas W. Young, publisher, The Norfolk (Va.) Journal and Guide and Washington, D. C., PR firm head Moss H. Kendrick, respectively.

chairing the discussions. William O. Walker, publisher, Cleveland Call and Post, is chairman of the Production Session, programmed to consider new processes and techniques. Dr. C. B. Powell, publisher, The Amsterdam

News, New York, and president of the recently NNPA-formed Amalgamated Publishers, Inc. will direct advertising session with a report on API. This session, set for Friday afternoon, will be further concerned with the "Outlook for Increased Advertising" and "Cooperation of Publishers in Selling Advertising."

Boards of Directors meetings for NNPA and API will be held Saturday morning. Other program participants include P. L. Prattis, Pittsburgh Courier; Claude Barnett, Associated Negro Press; Daniel Day, NPA-Press bureau chief; John Jordan, Journal and Guide; Howard B. Woods, St. Louis Argue; Chuck Stone, Washington Afro-American; Frank L. Stanley, Louisville Defender; Fred D. Sengstacke, Chicago Defender; John Oliver, Baltimore Afro-American; L. M. Quinn, Michigan Chronicle; C. C. Dejoie, Louisiana Weekly; E. Washington Rhodes, Philadelphia Tribune; James Murphy, Afro-American; Kenneth O. Wilson, Chicago Defender; Sydney Smith, API and Kelvin Wall, Amsterdam News.

Youthful Freedom Fighter Visits City

Edward Myers, 23, New Orleans, La., senior transfer student from Southern University, Baton Rouge, La., now-enrolled at Howard University, Washington, D. C. and past chairman of the Finance Committee of the New Orleans branch of CORE is currently visiting in this city.

Mr. Myers, a prime mover in the student sit-in movement, has participated in sit-ins in New Orleans, Savannah, Ga., Houston, Texas, an Albany, Ga. He was jailed in each of these cities with the exception of Houston for his participation in the sit-down demonstrations.

His longest jail stay was in Albany, Ga. where he remained five days. The Albany jail experience, according to Mr. Myers, was

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Peace Corps Needs 500 Home Economists

WASHINGTON (ANP) — The Peace Corps needs 500 home economists for programs slated for the next 12 months. R. Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps, has announced.

In a letter to Dr. Dorothy S. Lyle, president of the 27,000 member American Home Economics Association, Shriver explained:

"The range of skills that the newly developing nations desire from the Peace Corps has assumed a definite pattern . . . A substantial and important part of this pattern is the skill of the home economist. Most of the nations we will serve are asking for home economists."

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

PAGE 2
Horton's Cash Store
Auto Insurance Service
Thomas Food Market
PAGE 3
The Cave
Tire Sales & Service
Mechanics & Farmers Bank
PAGE 5
Hudson-Bell — Efford's
Raleigh Savings & Loan Association
Carolina Power & Light Company
S. M. Young Hardware Company
United Rent-Alls
PAGE 6
American Credit Company
Chavis Drive In
Seven-Up Bottling Company
Heilig-Levine
Browning's Barber Shop
Capital Bargain Store
Bookers Cleaners
Joy's American Grill
Shoe Mart
Major Finance Company, Inc.
Raleigh Paint & Wallpaper Co.
PAGE 7
Auto Discount Company
Weaver Brothers Rambler

PAGE 8
Colonial Stores
R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.
Taylor Radio & TV Service
Acme Realty Company
PAGE 9
A&P Food Stores
Standard Concrete Products Co.
Dunn's Easo Service
Hunt General Tire Company
Branch Banking & Trust Co.
PAGE 10
Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Raleigh
Watson's Seafood & Poultry Co., Inc.
Dillon Motor Finance Co.
Seven-Up Bottling Company
Carolina Builders Corp.
Ridgeway's Opticians, Inc.
Bloodworth St. Tourist Home
Deluxe Hotel
Warner Memorials
PAGE 16
Rhodes Furniture Company
Gileigh Seafood Company
Piggy Wiggly
Raleigh Funeral Home
First Citizens Bank & Trust Co.

World In Pictures

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Johnnie Jones and others of Riviera Beach, Fla., shake hands with President John F. Kennedy, Jr., at St. Mary's Hospital. The President was leaving the hospital after visiting his father, former Ambassador, John P. Kennedy.

NEW YORK — For the fourth successful day, pickets of the Drug and Hospital Employees Union and police clash outside Lower Fifth Avenue Hospital. The pickets are protesting loss of jobs because house-keeping duties at the hospital have been given to contractors.

GREENSBORO — Lewis J. Carter (left) Employee Relations Specialist for the Philco Corp., chats with Lee Williams, Armand Richardson, associate professor and professor of Electrical Engineering; Dr. Donald Edwards, Chairman of Physics, all of A&T College. Mr. Carter visited A&T in search of prospective engineers.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Principal speakers at the Alpha Phi Alpha Public Meeting in Louisville, Ky., were: Dr. William H. Hale, Fraternity President; Mayor William O. Cowger; Ghanian Ambassador W. M. Q. Halm and Lt. Governor Wilson W. Wyatt. Ambassador Halm received the Alpha Medal of Honor.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Cordie King, nationally known professional model of Indianapolis, Indiana, was the chief attraction of the Style Show given for the ladies attending Alpha Phi Alpha Conclave held in Louisville recently. Miss King modeled fashions from Renee's Women's Apparel Shop. She displayed some "fabulous" gowns, and was proclaimed by man to have been at her very best. 500 women from over the nation attended.

3 OF A KIND — Mrs. Walter Morgan of Nashville, Tenn., gave birth last year to these bouncy and bright-eyed triplets. Doctors at Vanderbilt University Hospital pronounced all three perfectly normal. Then suddenly David (1) at 14 months ceased trying to walk and his head began to enlarge. Medical scientist at the University suspected excess fluid on the brain, one of the significant birth defects.