Icy Pond Takes 3 Kids

DROWNING VICTIMS — The three Sampson County boys who lost their lives in an ice-covered pond, near their home, Sunday afternoon, are shown as they lie in state at a Dunn Funeral Parlor. They are top, Joseph Beamon Williams, middle, George Lydell McLean and Raymond Lee Williams. Their frozen bodies were fished out of the pond about 9:00 P. M. and are believed to have been in there about four hours. The bottom picture is the pond in which they lost their lives. The McLean boy was the son of the sister of the Williams brothers. It was not determined whether the boys were skating on the pond or not.

Final Rites For 3 Youths

DUNN—Tragedy is the one aspect of the American way of life that goes beyond color, transcends any apparent discrimination and in many instances unfolds the true nature of human beings. That is the kind of spirit that has been manifested in and around the community where three small boys lost their lives in an icy pond, situated about one mile from the highway at the end of a murky road, in Sampson County, Sunday.

The final chapter was written Wednesday afternoon when the bodies of Joseph Beamon Williams, 12, and Raymond Lee Williams, his brother along with that of George Lydell McLean, their nephew, lay, side by side, in the Warren Chapel Church. A grieving mother, aforlorn father, a large number of brothers and sisters, nephews, nieces, school mates, and mourners of both races, gathered in the church and heard the minister say the rites.

Farm people of both races kept a continuous flow of traffic into the funeral home, all day Tuesday, where the three lads were viewed. Many curious white people wanted to know when the bodies would be brought to the church.

The CAROLINIAN gathered the story from many people. A brother of the two Williams boys related how the trio was missed long before night Sunday and due to the fact that it was not dark no alarm was made. But ere the shades of night began to creep over the little farm community and knowing it was the custom of the Williams to bathe around the fireside, on a cold wintry night, the household was disturbed.

The search began and the footprints of the three thru the snow, led to the pond, less than 200 yards from the newly-built shell home.

Upon reaching the pond, the searching party readily realized that the ice-covered pond had lured the boys into its frozen waters due to the fact that the coat of one of the boys was found on the bank. The alarm went out and it was not long before rescue squads and expert diver were on hand. The ice was broken and a boat was placed in the water and about 9:00 P. M., the three bodies were fished from a watery grave.

Kennedy Cites 1961 Advances

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy said Monday his administration has made more advances in the civil rights field in the last 12 months than were made in the previous eight years.

Kennedy declined at his news conference to answer specifically a question as to when he intended to issue an executive order barring racial discrimination in federally financed housing.

He reminded newsmen he had said previously he would issue the order when he thought it was in the public interest and when he believed it would make an important contribution to progress in civil rights.

Then with emphasis he said that more progress in this field had been made in the 12 months of his administration than in eight previous years.

Kennedy, who called in his State of the Union message for legislation to wipe out state literacy tests in voting and for other linked proposals, obviously was

Bishop Says To Continue Rights Fight

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Bishop C. E. Tucker pledged all the resources of the AME Zion Church to the cause of freedom here Wednesday when he delivered the sermon, at the opening of the Board of Bishops' and the Ministers' and Laymen's Association of the AME Zion Church, in Metropolitan Church, 4th Avenue and 10th Street, Dr. C. W. McMurray, pastor.

"If the Negro is to gain his freedom, as an American citizen, the church, through the program of Christian Education, must seek to free the mind of fear; the spirit of hatred and the image of the deadening feeling of inferiority. It must prepare him to fight until the last enemy of freedom has been erased from the American soil. We must fight until every American citizen has been given the opportunity to REJECTED — Carl T. Rowan, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, was rejected a membership bid from a Washington Club, the Cosmos Club. President Kennedy's application for membership was withdrawn in the process. The Cosmos Club is a private organization of the intellectual and social elite in Washington.

CRACKS COLOR BAR—James F. Chestnut, High Point, a senior in business administration at A&T College, was recently employed as a checker by the A&P Supermarkets in his hometown. It marked the first time that a member of his race has been employed as a checker by a major food chain in his city.

REV. COX GETS 'THREAT' NOTE

Rev. B. Elton Cox, militant High Point minister, revealed a threatening letter on his life, which he attributed to his forthright stand against segregation. The letter is said to be unsigned and bore a High Point post mark. The two-page note is said to have given Rev. Cox more concern than any he has ever received. It is believed to have been turned over to Federal authorities. The blue print of his program calls for complete integration, from the home to the state capital.

Muhammad Foretells USA's Doom

CHICAGO — Messenger Elijah Muhammad, spiritual leader and teacher of the Muslim movement in America, this week prophesied that the price America must pay for the evils done to her former Negro slaves is that suffered by Pharaoh of ancient Egypt and his people.

"The only difference," the little "Messenger of Allah" pointed out, "is that Egypt still exists while America will not. For she must reap what she has sown. She hates her black slaves. She takes pleasure daily in robbing, beating and killing them as though her black slaves once robbed and killed them (White American)."

Mr. Muhammad, whose followers now publish a national monthly tabloid newspaper with a circulation of more than 200,000, noted that America has never attempted to mistreat aggressive nations "and those who war against her in such evil manner as she does her helpless slaves (so called Negroes, who knowing nothing, only what their slave masters have taught them."

Alliance For Progress May Bypass Negro

NEW YORK CITY — Asserting that the darker people of the Caribbean could become easy prey for Communism, a leader of the nation's largest Negro fraternal organization, launched what he called "an observation tour" of the area to report its need for help under the Alliance for Progress program, which has been fostered by President John F. Kennedy.

Judge Hobson R. Reynolds, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World (IBPOEW) indicated that a neglect of the needs of the darker people of the area would invite the spread of communism from Cuba to the rest of the area, and although he was
