BANK PREXY SPEAKS ON MONEY MANAGEMENT BY SARAH HOUSTON

On Feb. 14, the Family Living Class of Mrs. Toole had a guest speaker, Mr. J. J. Sansom, who discussed money management.

Mr. Sansom discussed the importance of a savings and bank account. "Having a saving or bank account is essential and necessary in many ways because if there is sudden death, illness or other emergency, you will have the money to pay the emergency bills and other needs that might arise."

"If you decide to save money, you should take out what you are going to save before you spend any of your pay check, instead of saying you will save what you have left."

Also Mr. Sansom, stated that a person who makes good money and doesn't know how to spend it accurately is a poor money manager. "Likewise if you keep putting off the date of saving money or changing the time to put it in the bank, you are a poor money manager," the banker affirmed.

To save money properly you should have a budget and a time schedule to help you to determine how much you have to pay and when the students were told.

LIGON PTA HOLDS MONTHLY MEETING

Founder's Day was celebrated by the J. W. Ligon Jr.-Sr. High School Parent Teachers Association Monday night in a meeting held in the school's cafeteria.

son, public school nurse who was being brought to us by the Health Committee. Mrs. Johnson spoke briefly on pre-school clinic, and stressed the importance of immunizations and boosters. She then introduced the film to be shown, "Journey In Health." The film provided evidence to support the fact that regular physical check-ups for children and adults may avoid many illnesses and handicaps which would otherwise go unnoticed until the advanced stages are reached or a permanent injury has resulted.

The principal, Mrs. Lockhart, then re-emphasized the pre-school clinic to be held on March 7. She then presented Mrs. V. K. Newell who spoke in behalf of the NAACP. The members of the Health Committee are: Mrs. Norma Hayward, chairman, Mrs. Coarlean Morgan, Mrs. Lillian Lassiter, Mrs. Josie Tyson, Miss L. L. Perry, Mrs. Marie Dunston, Miss C. E. Christman, Mrs. M. R. Swain, and Miss L. L. Hartsfield.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

BY COLIN DOUGLAS

"He that is spiritual judgeth all things, and he himself is judged by no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct Him?" — I Cor. 2:15-16.

There are times when some of us expect other persons to follow our ideas of how they should live their lives. And we are often disappointed and disillusioned when things don't work out our way.

We must remember always that each person has his own mind and soul, and lives his life according to his own inner light. If we are to understand other persons and have happy relationships with them, we must be willing to accept them as they are—and not as we would have them be.

The way to be happy and at peace in our human relationships is to give other persons the same freedom of expression and the same freedom of action that we want for ourselves. In this attitude of mind and heart, we find that most persons are interesting and enjoyable as they already are.

We develop an appreciation of the distinctive and individual traits of character that different persons possess. And we are free from the emotional tension that comes when we try to make other persons conform to our own ideas and patterns.

Every person is an individual... every person is a child of God... every person is equally beloved by God, one of His creations. We cannot, therefore, criticize one of God's creations — we cannot remold one of God's creations. Instead, we must bless these children of God and radiate only love and understanding to them—and in that way we shall be expressing our love and appreciation to our Father.

"Beloved, let us love one another; for love is God." — I John 4:7.
