

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

Mrs. Johnnie Mae Tucker, of 192 N. State Street, told Officer R. V. Pearce at 9:15 p.m. Thursday, her husband, James Lee Tucker, came home drinking, "got mad with me and hit me with an iron pipe."
The complainant signed a warrant for assault with a deadly weapon. Officer R. B. Callahan rounded up Tucker and placed him in the Wake County Jail. Mrs. Tucker was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for her wounds.

WOMAN REPORTS BREAK-IN

Mrs. Mary Brown, 58, of 1606 Poole Road, informed Officer D. A. McLeod at 10:54 a. m. Thursday, that one of the tenants, who lives at 1616 Poole Road, a residence owned by Mrs. Brown, told her that she heard someone in the house about 11:00 p.m. Wednesday. However, she failed to inform Mrs. Brown of this.

The people who reside in this portion of the house are out of town and the complainant had no way of knowing what, if anything, was missing.

Entry was gained through a bathroom window on the west side of the house. However, no fingerprints could be found at the scene.

THIEVES HIT AMY'S GRILL

Arvell Parham, 49, of 216 North Haywood Street, reported to Officer James E. (Bobby) Daye at 6:09 a.m. Friday, that sometime after 11:30 p.m. Thursday, someone entered Amy's Grill, 532 E. Davis Street, through a window on the south side and stole the following items:

An 8-pound ham, valued at $8.80; 15 pounds of hamburger, $5.80; 6 pounds of bacon, $4.30; and 5 pounds of pork chops, $3.60.

The amount of money taken from the juke box was set at $10, and the damage to the building was estimated to be $10.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

Alfred Jones, of 8 Nash Terrace, reported to Officers T. T. Street, Jr., and Joseph Winters, Sr., at 7:17 a.m. Friday, that his 1956 green and yellow DeSoto was stolen sometime after 7:30 p.m. Thursday from the parking area of Nash Terrace.

"When I came out to go to work, the car was gone," stated the complainant.

Officers C. C. Heath and D. C. Williams recovered the vehicle Saturday on Spaulding Street. "It was in good condition, except the wires had been cut," their report stated.

The car, valued at $200, was returned to Mr. Jones. Officers had no leads on the identity of the culprit who stole it.

STORM DOOR RUINED

Mrs. B. W. Mason, 55, of 2009 Waters Drive, told Officer Ralph Clayborne at 5:52 p.m. Friday, she left home at 7:30 a.m. and returned at 4 p.m., to find that someone had thrown an unknown object and broken her storm door glass.

She estimated the damage at $15.

CLAIMS "RED" STRUCK HIM IN FACE

Harry Lee Booker, 17, of 721 S. Saunders Street, informed Officer H. M. Dupree at 10:55 p.m. Saturday, that he was walking with a friend in the 300 block of E. Cabarrus Street when a colored male, about 18, came up to Booker only as "Red," knocked up to him and struck him in the face with his fist.

The cop was unable to find "Red" at the time of the report.

DAMAGE AT LINCOLN THEATRE

Officer R. E. Keeter of the Raleigh Police Department reported at 10:50 p.m. Friday, "While patrolling I found the window to the box office of the Lincoln Theater, 100 block of E. Cabarrus Street, broken."

Entry to the box office was not gained, however, Manager Homer E. Sharpe was called by the cop, but Keeter he was not coming down. Damage was estimated at $50.

SAYS "BUBBER" SHOT AT HIM

Frank Ruffin, Jr., 17, of 896 E. Davis Street, told an officer at 12:32 a.m. Sunday, that while he was walking in the 700 block of E. Davis Street, "Bubber" Chavis, about 33, came up to him, accused him of throwing bricks at him, pulled out a pistol, then shot at young Ruffin, several times, "as I ran," stated the complainant.

Chavis is alleged to have pulled the pistol on Clyde Edward Ruffin, 18-year-old brother of Frank. Frank Ruffin signed a warrant, charging Chavis with assault with a deadly weapon. His last known address, according to the report, was 822 E. Hargett St.

STABBED IN BACK BY STRANGER

William Simpson, 21, of 217 Hoke Street, reported to Officer O. C. Pratt at 1:00 a.m. Saturday, he was walking on East Davis Street, "when I felt something hit me in the back," and for a while he was semi-conscious.

When he regained his senses, Simpson declared he saw a man, about 25, 6 feet tall, wearing a brown coat, running away as "I was laying on the pavement." His wallet, containing $55, was missing.

Young Simpson who was stabbed on the left side of his back with a sharp instrument, was admitted to Wake Memorial Hospital for his wound.

MAN BEATS TWO, IS JAILED

Miss Eva Bell Burton, of 202 Pugh Street, informed the cops at 1:10 a.m. Saturday, that Alfred Lee Hogan, of Hogan's Lane, assaulted Euline Grace Jones, of 5 Rocky Branch Drive, and herself with a 22 calibre rifle, by hitting Jones on the head with the butt of the weapon, cutting his head on the left side then he pointed it at Miss Burton and "struck at me with a knife," she said.

After a warrant was signed, Hogan was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail where he was charged with two counts of assault with a deadly weapon.

FOX SLAPS MAN'S FACE

Alphonsa Anderson, of 17 South Pettigrew St., reported to Officer Joseph Winters, Sr., at 1 p.m. Saturday, a man, whose first name he didn't know, but whose surname is Fox, assaulted him in the 1100 block of Hightower Street, by slapping his face and threatening his life.

The officer's report listed no further action.

STEALS GAS HEATER FROM OFFICER

The Rev. Howard Cunningham, pastor of the First Congregational Church, corner of Manly and W. South Street, told Officer T. T. Street, Jr., at 2 p.m. Saturday, someone entered the church by a back window that could not be locked.

The unknown thief cut the gas line and took a Kenmore heater, valued at $25 from the place of worship. The minister stated he had no idea what day the heater was stolen.

TRIES TO CUT MAN IN OWN YARD

James Robert Taylor, of 710 S. McDowell Street, reported to a cop at 3:55 p.m. Saturday, he was in his back yard when Walter Williams, of 503 1-2 Rosegarten Street, came into the yard and began swinging a knife at him.

Mr. Taylor knocked the knife

Cheryl Hamlin Crowned "Miss Jabberwock" At 25th Annual Program

The Raleigh Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority presented its Twenty-fifth Annual Jabberwock at Raleigh Memorial

MISS CHERYL HAMLIN... many attributes

Auditorium on Saturday night, Feb. 20. Fifty-seven young ladies from Raleigh and surrounding communities made up Delta's Pavilion of Outstanding Seniors. It was a night filled with many honors for the outstanding seniors of 1965.

The most coveted honor is that of "Miss Jabberwock." She is composite, nominated by senior participants and finally chosen by Delta on a criteria of scholarship, talent, personality, and service. The outstanding senior having accumulated the highest record of all points comprising the best all around girl is honored as crowned "Miss Jabberwock, 1965." This honor was won by Miss Cheryl Hamlin, senior at the J. W. Ligon High School, Raleigh.

As honorees in the Jabberwock, the girls had an opportunity to compete for scholarships and awards on a competitive basis. The girls were given a standardized who tied for the title of "Miss Academic," "Miss Scholastic," and "Miss Intellectual" were awarded on the basis of the scores made on this examination.

"Miss Academic" was Miss JoAnne Peebles, Cardinal Gibbons High School, Raleigh and "Miss Scholastic" was Miss Cheryl Hamlin, J. W. Ligon High School, Raleigh.

There were five young ladies who tied for the title of "Miss Intellectual."

Misses: Marjorie Beatty, Fayetteville High School, Fayetteville; Cynthia Ferrell, W. Ligon High School, Raleigh; Mary Harris, J. W. Ligon High School, Raleigh; Anthea Williams, J. W. Ligon High School, Raleigh; Patricia Turner, Garner Consolidated School, Garner.

Talent honors and scholarships were awarded to Misses Thelma Hall, "Miss Talent" of the J. W. Ligon School, first runner-up, Miss Cheryl Hamlin, of Ligon, second runner-up, Miss Cora Ray, of the Berry O'Kelly School, Method.

The Raleigh Alumnae Chapter awarded $1,250 in Scholarships to the honorees.

from Williams' hand with an iron pipe.

He also signed a warrant, charging Mr. Williams with assault with a deadly weapon and the would-be attacker was arrested.

CAR HITS CAR, FOUR MEN FIGHT

James Edward Turner, 42, of 132 Battery Drive, informed Officer Ralph L. Johnson at 4:07 p. m. Sunday, that Simon Edmundson, of 665 1-2 Quarry Street, and Charlie Munn, of the 700 block of Quarry Street, assaulted him and a friend, Alfred Jones, 35, of C-6 Washington Terrace.

Turner declared the incident took place after his (Edmundson's) car backed into Turner's. Jones received a deep cut from a "long-bladed pocket knife" on the left side of his head and was treated by Dr. C. L. Hunt at the hospital. He signed a warrant, charging Simon Edmundson with assault with a deadly weapon and Turner signed one, charging the same, against Munn.

Edmundson was arrested at police headquarters at 8 p. m. Sunday, but the warrant is still on file for Munn.

CLAIMS HUSBY USED BUTCHER KNIFE

Mrs. Ester Anderson, 30 of 740 Fitzgerald Drive, told Officer L. Godwin at 5:01 p. m. Sunday, that he was attacked by her husband, Talmadge Anderson, with a butcher knife at their home. She received lacerations on her right hand.

The complainant said she would sign a warrant on her mate Tuesday of this week after she had contacted relatives in Tennessee to make arrangements for the care of her children, because she declared, "I won't live with him after signing the warrant."
She received treatment at the hospital.

FINDS STRANGE HOLE, REPORTS IT

John Calhoun, 65, of 2560 Dandridge Drive, informed Officer J. P. Broadwell at 11:15 a. m. Monday, he found a hole in the utility room door at his house. Although the hole was next to a doorknob, it was not on the side where the lock is located.
Entry to the small room was not gained. Mr. Calhoun estimated damage to the door at $5.

MISS GERALDINE MOSELEY... accepts Wachovia post

RALEIGH BUSINESS COLLEGE

Miss Geraldine Moseley, a senior at the Raleigh Business College, has accepted work at Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Raleigh. Miss Moseley hails from Greenville, and is a graduate of Bethel Union School, Bethel, where she graduated third in high school in a class of 73 students.

While in high school, she was a member of the chorale group, president of the Drama Club, vice-president of the senior class, a member of the Crown and Scepter Club, and the 4-H Club. She was also the recipient of the Betty Crocker Home Economics Pin.

She entered Raleigh Business College in December of nineteen sixty-three where she is presently taking a course in secretarial science. In June, '64 she was awarded the B. F. She is a clerk-typist at Wachovia.

"How to Conduct a Meeting" was the theme for discussion by the students from the Charm Class at the weekly assembly of Raleigh Business College on Friday, February 19.

To conduct a meeting successfully, one must know the basic procedure. (1) The purpose of parliamentary procedure is to facilitate action. (2) Every proposition presented is entitled to full and free discussion. (3) The majority rules, however, the minority must be heard. (4) Only one item should be discussed at a time. (5) Justice and courtesy should be granted to all.

The students who participated were: Misses Cassie Alston, Henderson; Louise Anderson, McClellanville, S. C.; Carolyn Y. Jones, Garner; Elsie Jones, Zebulon; Tassie Thornton, Wake Forest; Geoulia Sturdivant, Dolena Allen, and Erma Harrison, Raleigh.

HONOR ROLL

The registrar's office announces the honor roll for the fall quarter: Misses Dolena Allen, Raleigh; Geraldine Moseley, Greenville; Geoulia Sturdivant, Raleigh; and Yvonne Taylor, Charleston, S. C.
