Must Act Now: Fleming

RCA Meets Here Thurs. At The YMCA

BY CHARLES R. JONES
The Raleigh Citizens Association, which has not held a meeting this year, will meet at the Bloodworth Street YMCA Thursday, March 4, at 8 p. m.
The Rev. John W. Fleming, president of the organization, informed THE CAROLINIAN of this important meeting, adding, "We have been derelict in meeting. During this period of inactivity on the part of the Association, many things have passed by."
He continued, "It is not too late for us to redeem ourselves. Pertinent matters confronting the community need our immediate attention—the Poverty Program under the Economics Opportunity Act, how the Civil Rights Act sheds new light on what we have been trying to do, our stand on what to do about the city's blighted areas, the upcoming May elections—city council and school board, and proposed voter-registration campaign. All of these things need our attention."
The Raleigh Citizens Association has been active in many areas of Raleigh and surrounding community life. It was this organization that drafted, supported and urged a heavy turnout four years ago as John W. Winters became the first Negro City Councilman in Raleigh's history. It

HERO'S BURIAL GIVEN ALA. RIGHTS WORKER

Shoots Kin After 'Fuss' Over Auto

BURLINGTON — An Alamance County youth blew off part of his first cousin's face near here last Wednesday night, following an altercation over the use of a family car.
The dead boy, 17-year-old Douglas Elliot, lived on Route 2, Burlington.
His first cousin, who lived with Douglas, James Elliot, 18, is being held on a charge of first degree murder in the County Jail here, according to a spokesman in Sheriff John Stockard's office. No bond had been allowed James Elliott as late as Wednesday morning of this week.
Carl Crabtree, Alamance County Coroner, stated young Elliott was pronounced dead on arrival at the County Hospital, having taken the full charge of a 16-gauge shotgun, which reportedly tore away a portion of his face.

Marion Man Slain Trying To Register

MARION, Ala. (NPD) — In life, Jimmie Lee Jackson, 26, was just an average person, and average Negro with the average Negro's gripes. He was also a farmer who had joined with others of his race to push for the first class citizenship too long denied Negroes.
There was nothing special about him, but in death, he was ascended to the role of a hero in the integration movement.
Wednesday, Jackson was given a "Freedom Funeral," and

GIVEN HERO'S BURIAL — The body of Jimmie Lee Jackson, 26, who died last Friday as the result of a gunshot wound, received while he was attempting to register to vote in Marion, Ala. on February 18, is viewed by Negroes, who hold crossed hands as they look at their hometown hero, who was given that type of funeral in Selma, and burial in Marion Wednesday of this week. Ala., Miss. NAACP's Attend Charlotte Meet; Cite Atrocities

BY J. B. HARREN
CHARLOTTE — Mississippi and Alabama delegates to the 13th Annual Southeastern NAACP Regional Conference meeting here in the Queen Charlotte Hotel, February 25-27, told amazing stories of hardship, police brutality, even death, as the answer for their persistence in attempting to gain the unfettered use of the ballot in their states.
Charles Evers, brother of slain NAACP field secretary Medgar W. Evers, told newsmen he holds no bitterness against anyone because of the death of his brother at the hands of an assassin's bullet which struck Medgar W. Evers

MRS. LILLIAN W. McDANIEL ... national press to speak

Dr. Watson Anniversary Orator Sun.

Dr. Melvin H. Watson will be the keynote speaker here Sunday at 11 a. m. as the First Baptist Church observes its 153rd anniversary.
A nationally-known scholar, teacher and preacher, Dr. Watson is an associate professor at the Interdenominational Theological Seminary, and pastor of the Liberty Baptist Church, both in Atlanta, Ga.
He holds an undergraduate degree from Morehouse College, Atlanta, and received the B. D. and S. T. M. degrees from Oberlin College, Ohio. He also holds a Ph. D. degree from the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, California.

Ossie Davis Says Malcolm Was 'Prince'

NEW YORK (NPD) — "Malcolm was our manhood... our living black manhood. In honoring him, we honor the best in ourselves."
"He was a prince... our own black, shining prince who did not hesitate to die because he loved us so."
The eulogy, from the lips of actor-playwright Ossie Davis, was for the slain black nationalist figure whose death threatened to set off a "Black Mafia" vendetta.
Only a few hundred people were able to crowd into Harlem's Faith Temple Church of God in Christ—a converted movie theatre—where Moslem services for Malcolm were

Greeks End Capitol Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Leaders of Greek Letter organizations from throughout the nation held a two-day conference at the national headquarters of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity here recently, in an effort to coordinate the plans and principles that were formulated at the Community Assembly, sponsored by the National Urban League, Dec. 9-11.
The Greeks went into every ramification of the Anti-Poverty program with an eye as to how it can be propelled to reach the people for which it was designed. They were not only interested in Negroes, but built an image that

WEATHER

Temperatures for the next five days, Thursday through Monday, will average around 5 degrees below normal, and rainfall will be rather heavy on Thursday and Friday and again about Monday. The normal high and low temperatures for the Raleigh area will be, 58-35.

HIGHEST PAID NEGRO WOMAN IN AMERICA — New York: New York State Senator Constance Baker Motley, a former lawyer for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, raises her right hand at City Hall here Feb. 24th while being sworn in by Mayor Robert F. Wagner as Manhattan Borough President, the highest and best-paid job ever held by a Negro woman in the United States. She was elected to the post Feb. 23rd at a special session of Manhattan's eight councilmen. She filled a vacancy created New Year's Day when former Borough President Edward R. Dudley moved to the State Supreme Court. The $35,000-a-year position is another "first" for 43-year-old Mrs. Motley, who entered politics 13 months ago. (UPI PHOTO).

U. S. Cites Race's Ag Jim Crow

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Negroes in rural South have been consistently discriminated against and segregated in four major Federal programs administered by the Department of Agriculture, according to a report to the President and Congress released Monday, March 1, by the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights.
The 136-page report, "Equal Opportunity in Farm Programs," cites corrective action recently initiated by the Department but documents the agency's prevailing practice of following "local patterns of racial segregation and discrimination in providing assistance paid for by Federal funds."
This practice, the Commission reports, has results in sharp disparities in the amount and quality of services provided white and Negro farmers and their families by four agencies which serve rural residents at the county level. The Commission reported that 98 percent of Negro farmers in

Mrs. Motley First Woman President

NEW YORK (NPD) — Mrs. Constance Baker Motley former top lawyer with the NAACP Legal Defense Committee was picked last week for the coveted $35,000-a-year job as president of Manhattan.
She is the first woman to serve as head of New York's richest and most populous borough and becomes the highest paid Negro woman in elective office in America.
Mrs. Motley, now a state senator, was a late entry into the hotly-contested race. The post has traditionally gone to a Negro for the past several years.
Other candidates for the job included Civil Court Judge James L. Watson and Earl Brown, a writer and veteran New York politician.
The vacancy was created when Edward R. Dudley took his seat on the state Supreme Court bench last January 1.

Elijah Is Unharmed At Confab

CHICAGO (NPD) — "There is no chicken about Muhammad..."
The speaker was 67-years-old Elijah Muhammad who, exactly one week later, defied threats of a "Malcolm X fate" as he addressed his faithful followers at the final session of a three-day "Black" Muslim rally.
The Muslims held their annual convention in the huge and antiquated Chicago Coliseum, amidst perhaps the tightest security measures in Chicago history.
"We are going to guard him like he was the President of the United States," said a spokesman.

HOLDS NEWS CONFERENCE — Chicago: Close up of Black Muslim leader Elijah Muhammad during a press conference at his Chicago home Feb. 22. Muhammad denied any connection with the slaying of Malcolm X. Malcolm, the former number 2 man in the Muslims who defected and set up a rival movement, was a "victim of his own preaching," Muhammad said at the conference. (UPI PHOTO).

Nat'l Head Of NACW To Raleigh Sun.

On Sunday, March 7, the Raleigh Branch of the National Association of College Women will celebrate National Founders Day Observance at the First Congregational Church. At the morning worship hour Mrs. Lillian W. McDaniel national president of the organization, will be the keynote speaker.
Annually, branch organizations pay tribute to their founders and, at the same time, rededicate themselves and renew their allegiance to the principles and purpose of the NACW.
Prior to corporate worship service Sunday morning, Mrs. McDaniel will speak.

Jones Still In Jail After Dove Case Mistrial

Although Wake Superior Court Judge Leo Carr declared a mistrial last Wednesday night in the case of John Ulysses Jones, 59, of Lynchburg, Va., on a robbery rap, the defendant was still languishing in Wake County Jail early Wednesday of this week, in lieu of a $2,000 bond, according to Mrs. A. J. Proeschler, wife of the county jailor.

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES
Couldn't Dance With Woman, Shoots Her
Miss Mary Carolyn Patterson, 22, of 112 Camden Street, told Officers C. C. Heath and P. A. Dean, at 12:11 a. m., Saturday, she was dancing with a man called "Smitty" from Fort Bragg at Club 54, corner of E. Davie and S. Bloodworth Streets, when another man whom she did not know, tried to dance with her.
"Smitty" said no, and the man, who hails from Bragg, also, said: "I will shoot it out, then." He fired two shots, one striking Miss Patterson in the right hand, travelling from her thumb to the little finger, where it emerged.
She was admitted to Wake Memorial Hospital for overnight observation. The "stranger" had not been apprehended at press time.
Wouldn't Move From Highway, Man Beaten
William Powell, of 1304 E. Denton Street, reported to Officer E. C. Nipper at 5:33 p. m. Saturday, he was crossing New Bern Avenue at Park Street, when a car stopped and Robert Ramsey, 22-year-old white man of 2127 Bowell Rd., got out of the vehicle and hit Powell over an eye with his fist.
The cop also talked to Ramsey, who declared, "He was standing in the middle of the highway and I asked him to move." He further stated that Powell cursed him, provoking him out of his car to hit and cut Powell's eye.
Powell signed a warrant, charging assault and battery, and Ramsey's warrant alleged disorderly conduct. Both men were then arrested.
