Thirty-Three Colleges Will Share In Proceeds

DALLAS, Tex. — The United Negro College Fund is to receive all proceeds from the "Miss Tan America Coronation Pageant" to be held at the Memorial Auditorium in Dallas, Texas, on Saturday, April 10th.

The UNCF provides financial assistance to 33 Negro Colleges in the United States. The Student Senate of Bishop College, Dallas, will receive the proceeds and make the presentation to the UNCF.

The "Miss Tan America Pageant" is the first nationally coordinated Negro beauty pageant. The Coronation Pageant will feature the regional and state winners from local competitions held in 66 cities across the nation.

The young ladies are competing for the title "Miss Tan America — 1965" and for college scholarships, a screen test, recording contracts, and modeling assignments. The competition categories are evening gown, swimsuit, and talent.

The famed Bishop College Choir will be featured, along with other professional acts.

Chorus Of Hillside High Heard Here

The Hillside High School Chorus, of Durham, under the direction of Raleigh native, Ernest Massenbarg, presented a concert at the First Congregational Church, Sunday, April 4, at 5:00 p. m.

Music on the program included such numbers as: The Lord's Prayer, Hallelujah, Plenty Good Room, and Brother James Air.

Accompanists were Miss Lana McClary, Miss Phyllis Jeffries, and Mrs. Dorcas C. Reeves. The final number, The Battle Hymn of Republic, was accompanied by the Hillside Band Ensemble. The audience indicated, in an impressive manner, its appreciation of the eloquent music.

The concert was one of many annual programs sponsored by the Young Women's Club of the church.

Bluefield's Prexy Speaks On "Mixing"

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. — Bluefield State's president recently participated in an Institute on Integration in Higher Education.

Dr. L. B. Allen was a featured panelist in the Institute on Integration in Higher Education which was held April 1-2 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He was one of several presidents programmed for addresses and discussions.

Specifically, Dr. Allen was assigned to the topic "Purposes, Problems and Possibilities of Integration in the Negro College." Other topics included: "Negro Colleges and Southern Higher Education"; "The Role of Negro Colleges in American Higher Education"; "Policy Making in Negro Colleges"; "Changing Aims"; "Changing Patterns"; "Possible Cooperative Denominational Programs"; "Possibilities and Problems of Exchange Programs"; and "Purposes, Possibilities and Problems of the Colleges Founded for Negroes."

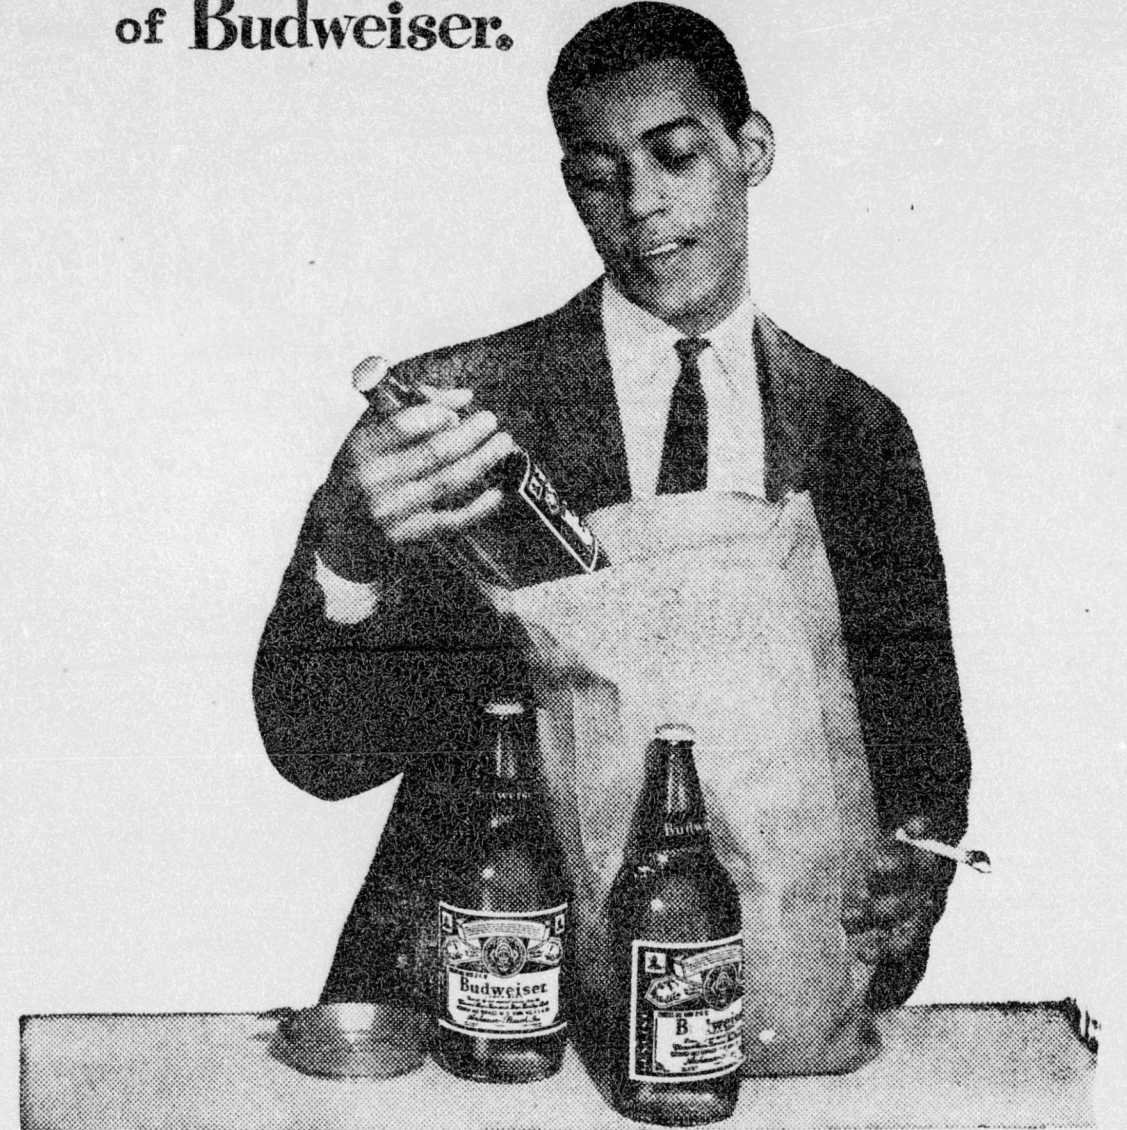

The Institute was sponsored by the National Council of Churches. Approximately 200 educational and denominational church leaders were in attendance.

Ral. Bus. College

The Raleigh Business College held its regular assembly on Friday, April 3. Mr. D. H. Keck, associate director, gave the students some words of admonition, about their personal growth, responsibility, decency, and the proper citizens the school would have them be.

Recent additions to the Raleigh Business College "family" are: Jimmie McNeil, Angier; Misses Mary Merckson, Rocky Mount; Barbara Morris, Garner; Janice Pierce, Hallsboro; and Etta Pearson, Smithfield.
