Grambling Cager Named To 26-Man U. S. Squad Which Will Play Russia

GRAMBLING, La. (Special) — Wilbur Frazier of Grambling College, a familiar face on most 1965 ALL-AMERICAN basketball teams, has been selected on a 26-man U. S. squad from which a team will be picked for a series with Russia. The American team will play the Soviets at Las Vegas, Nev., April 19, in the first of five games. Other games are scheduled in Seattle on April 21, San Francisco April 23, Los Angeles April 25, St. Louis April 30, and Indianapolis, tentatively, April 28.

Frazier is the only Louisiana player on the squad. The team was announced by John McLendon, National AAU Basketball chairman. McLendon said the squad will assemble April 9 either in San Francisco or Denver for drills. Hank Vaughn of Akron will coach the team. The squad includes Bill Bradley, Princeton; Larry Brown, Akron Goodyears; Vern Benson, Cal Fowler and Don Reid, Armed Services All-Stars, National AAU champs; Rod Holst, Al Dillard, Randy Richardson and Flynn Robinson, Denver AAU; Roger Brown, Dayton; Dave Stallworth, Arkansas City, Kan.; Bob Ray Garey, Bartlesville, Okla.; and Warren Fouts, Akron, Dan Wolthers, San Francisco sonville, Fla.; Don Anderson, Augsburg (Minn.) College; Ed Mills, Lewis (Ill.) College; Bobby Rascoe, Bartlesville; Cecil Tuttle, Akron; Art Williams, Long Beach, Calif.; and James Brovelli, San Francisco.

Leader Of The 4 Tops Gives Away 20's Instead Of 1's; Very Embarrassed

CHICAGO — You should have seen the look on Levi Stubbs' face (leader of The Four Tops) when he came up $400.00 short. While The Four Tops were appearing at the Regal Theatre in Chicago, Illinois for a ten-day engagement, the popular group got plenty of response because Levi really stuck to his words, "I'll Give You All My Money," while singing their Motown hit recording, "Baby I Need Your Loving." When the crowd started screaming, "Give It Here! Give It Here! Levi, thinking he had the dollar bill pocket, reached in the wrong pocket and started distributing $20.00 bills. Unaware of the fact, after the show, Levi order champagne and dinners from a nearby delicatessen for the rest of the group and

ATA Interscholastic Tennis Tourney Set For Winston-Salem State May 13-15

WINSTON-SALEM—The American Tennis Association will hold its 14th National Interscholastic Tennis Tournament May 13-15 at Winston-Salem State College, Winston-Salem. Together with Coca-Cola Bottling Company and the ATA, Winston-Salem State will sponsor the event, which is expected to be one of the best in the 14-year history of the tournament. Dr. E. Walter "Whirlwind" Johnson, Lynchburg, Va., who along with Dr. Hubert Eaton, Wilmington, ATA president, is the guiding light for the tourney, is already busy putting on the final touches and lining up young high-school tennis aspirants from all over the country.

Dr. Johnson is especially enthusiastic about the fact that the ATA interscholastics is a qualifying tournament for the big one—the United Lawn Tennis Association's national interscholastics to be held at Williams College (Massachusetts) in June. Lenward Simpson, Wilmington, N. C., and Luis Glass, Jackson Heights, New York, two of Dr. Johnson's most promising players sponsored by his Junior Development Program, are already considered a cinch to play in the USLTA interscholastics as at-large players. He predicts that Charles Parks, the Phoenix High School (Hampton, Va.) lad, last year's winner of the ATA interscholastics, will make the grade and play in the USLTA tournament at Williams College.

On the feminine side, Bonnie Logan seems to be way out in front of the pack. Bonnie, the pride of Hillside High School in Durham, North Carolina, not only won the ATA interscholastics last year by defeating Sallie Elam of Armstrong High School, but also achieved what no other girl her age has done by becoming the ATA's women's singles champion at the tender age of 15.

She also won the girls' under-16 championship. As a sterling product of the ATA's Junior Development Program, Bonnie, according to Dr. Johnson, will play in some sponsored tournaments in the country this year.

If Bonnie wins the ATA interscholastic three times in a row, she will equal the feat of another outstanding product of the Junior Development Program—Carolyn Williams, also winner of the ATA women's singles title in 1961.

Coaches and players should send entries to Dr. R. Walter Johnson, 1008 Fifth Street, Lynchburg, Va., no later than May 1.

April 12th, at 11:15 p. m. (EST). Marvin, who is fulfilling an engagement at Basin Street South in Boston, Massachusetts, is enjoying the success of his latest hit recording, "I'll Be Doggone," which is currently surging upward in the national record charts in the No. 25 position.

STAR IS BACK WITH THE BOOKS—Richard "Dickie" Westmoreland, former star halfback with the A&T College Aggies, now star cornerback with the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League, returned to college last week to complete his last quarter of college work. Westmoreland will graduate in June, following the completion of student teaching, a requirement for a degree in his field.

San Diego Charger Star Will Be Student Teacher

GREENSBORO — Richard ("Dickie") Westmoreland, former star halfback with the A&T College Aggies, now star cornerback with the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League, is back in college again.

He enrolled last week at A&T College in what should be his final quarter of college work. With more than the minimum hours required for graduation, Westmoreland returns to participate in the student teaching program, a requirement for a degree in his field.

After three weeks more of orientation procedures here on the campus, he will be assigned for practice work at one of the nearby high schools, and with the completion of what will be eligible for his degree in late May.

Westmoreland has just completed his second year in professional football.

Breaking into the starting lineup with the Chargers in his first season in the fall of 1963, Westmoreland was named "Rookie of the Year," on his team, was runnerup for the league title and was selected to the AFL All-Pro second team. That year his team won the AFL championship. In his second year, last season Westmoreland was selected to the AFL Coaches All-Pro Team, and was selected to play in the AFL All-Star Game held at Houston, Texas in January. He led his team in pass interceptions, with eight.

"I am doing OK," Westmoreland said, "but I want my degree, for I plan starting on graduate work in California during the off-season beginning next year."

Happy about the fact that another Aggie star and his former teammate, Willie Beasley, will join him on the Charger squad next season, Westmoreland had nothing but praise for Beasley.

"The Charger front office is impressed with Beasley," Westmoreland said, "and I am sure that he will make the squad." He explained that what Beasley has and what the Chargers need appear to make a happy combination. He had in mind the fact that Beasley has good weight and extraordinary speed.

Westmoreland, who works as an insurance counselor for a leading California insurance company in the off-season, received leave to complete his education.
