The band, directed by Richard R. L. Jones, assistant professor of music, is scheduled tentatively to appear in concert in Albemarle, Sunday, May 9.

Winners Are Named In State Drama Festival

BY RICHMOND STEWART
The State Drama Festival came to a close Saturday night after three days of top rated one-act plays, presented in the J. W. Ligon High School auditorium. Thirty-two schools from all over North Carolina were represented with awards being given for the best plays and actors. "Infanta," by W. Charlotte High, received acclamations from everyone.

C. C. Lipscomb, executive secretary of the N. C. Drama Festival, released the names of the winners Monday.

In the triple A division, Dillard High of Goldsboro, took top honors for its play, "Laity," with West Charlotte's "Infanta," a close second. The best actress award was won by Miss Victoria McLaughlin in "Infanta" with Miss Virginia Massey of Second Ward, Charlotte, netting second prize. Frederick Wiggs was considered the best actor for his part in "Laity" and Joseph Campbell's role in "Infanta" earned him the second place award.

The best supporting actress was Misses Doris Frazier of "Infanta" and Olivia Hardy of Scotland Neck in the "Queens Meet" took second. The best supporting actor was Aaron Purdie in Darden High's "The Wall," with Bobbie Dunant in a close second for his role in "Infanta."

The winners in the Double A division were Frederick Douglas High School's "Golden Slippers." The best actor's award was presented to Edward Mitchell for his role in the cry of the Crows," presented by W. S. Creech High School, Miss Barbara George, of Central High, was acclaimed the best actress in "Madam Vulture." The supporting actor and actress awards went to Miss Brenda Speight, of South Greene High and John Summer of Unity High School.

METHOD NEWS

BY MISS DORA D. STROUD
CHURCH ACTIVITIES
Christian Tabernacle
METHOD—All who were present at the Christian Church Sunday, April 4th, were highly entertained spiritually by the sermon and music. Rev. J. M. Harris, the pastor, spoke from St. Matthew, 28:39. His subject was, "Go A Little Farther." Mrs. Allen presided at the piano. Holy Communion was given at this service.

St. James AME and Oak City Baptist Churches
Regular morning worship service is held at Oak City Baptist and St. James AME Churches each second Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Rev. J. N. Sheares is pastor at St. James AME and Rev. Leatha Debnam is pastor at Oak City Baptist. Music for both churches is furnished by their junior choirs.

Prayer Service
Prayer service is held each Monday and Wednesday nights. Monday night meetings are held in various homes and Wednesday meetings are held at the Church.

Church School
All members and friends are most cordially invited to attend Church School at the Baptist and Methodist churches in our community. Mr. A. W. Sherrill is superintendent at Oak City Baptist and Mr. J. C. Atwater is superintendent at St. James AME Church.

Missionary Circle
The Missionary Circle of St. James AME Church will meet Sunday, April 11, at 4 p. m. Rev. Mrs. Mary Frazier is president of the circle.

Sick
We are so proud to say that Mrs. W. R. Gaynor has recuperated from an illness she suffered for the past weeks. She was able to attend her Church School Sunday morning and rendered music for the occasion. All of our sick ones are improving. They appreciate all kindness shown them.

Berry O'Kelly High School PTA
The Home Economics Department of the Berry O'Kelly High School had charge of the entertainment for the last PTA meeting. The group put over a fine Fashion Show which was appreciated by a large number of parents and friends.

Ladies Club
Mrs. Dorothy Medlin and Mrs. J. O. White will entertain the Ladies Willing Workers Club Thursday night, April 8, at Mrs. Medlin's home. The two ladies' birthdays will be celebrated after the business session. All members are urged to be present.

Visit in Washington, D. C.
Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Bethea, Mrs. Goldie Atwater, Misses Karen and Renea Bethea and Peggie Parrish spent the weekend visiting relatives in Washington, D. C.

FRIENDSHIP
A friendship is a precious thing. Too precious to destroy; A hasty word can spoil it all, and crush life's greatest joy.

To have a friend is to be blessed. Life can never be grey; If you're a friend to take your arm, and help you on the way.

A friend will share your failures, and will share your triumphs too; There is no thought of jealousy, In friendship that is true.

So if you've quarrelled with your friend, Take up you pen today and write a little Friendly note you'll know just what to say.

Don't hug your foolish pride. Sometimes its weakness to be strong; It doesn't really matter who was right, Or who was wrong.
