

The two other defendants.

William Orville Easton, 41, and Eugene Thomas, 42, both of Bessemer, along with young Wilkins, stood with upraised right hands and entered the formal innocent pleas before a judge.

Sitting at the counsel table was Robert M. Shelton, Jr., imperial wizard of the United Klans of America, Inc., along with Klan attorney Matt H. Murphy, Jr., of Bir-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

- Rights Will Spark Elks State Meet

ELIZABETH CITY-Civil Rights will spark the opening of the 1965 meeting of the Improved, Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World here Sunday night when three of the State's most active leaders, in that field, will receive plaques for the parts they have played. Kelly Alexander, Charlotte, pres., N. C. Branches. NAACP: Rev. Fred LaGarde and Golden Frinks. CORE ambassadors will be the recipients in a ceremony that will spell out the goal of Civil Liberties Department, keynoted by Dr. A. D. Moseley, former head of the department in the state Alexander Barnes, director of Civil Liberties, will preside over the ceremony. He has just returned fron an extensive tour

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Newspaper Represented At Nat'l Talks

Rorton's Cash Store PAGE 3 Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New Carolina Motor Sales York City-Advertising represen- Roy's Drive-In Cleaners tatives of newspapers served by Community Florist Amalgamated Publishers, Inc., na-Nelson's Wayside Furniture Co. tional advertising agency, closed Madame Armstrong the first annual advertising work- PAGE 5 shop, here Saturday, after a two-day session The CAROLINIAN John W. Winters and Co. day session. The CAROLINIAN, PAGE 6 Raleigh, N. C., was represented by Raleigh Seafood James Sanders Tile Co. Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. Alexander Barnes and S. E. Clark-Biltmore Hills

The workshop was presided Amburn Pontiac, inc. ident of Amalgamated. The ses- livey's of Raleigh sions featured experts in all phas-es of marketing and selling. Mon-Hudson-Belk-Efirds of Raleigh roe Gensler, Advertising Director, Ready Mixed Concrete Co. New York Journal American, talk-ed about meeting the issues in a highly competitive market. He at-PAGE 8 tempted to show the advertising Colonial Stores tempted to show the advertising men how to meet and beat the competition with a pointed sales PAGE 9 PAGE 9 (CONTINUED ON PAGE 1 A and P Stores

FIRE BOMB SUSPECT BOOKED - New York: David L. Raleigh Malone (left), 23, suspected of hurling a firebomb at the altar of St. Patrick's Cathedral here April 22nd, is held by a detective while being booked early April 23rd. The blazing Molotov cocktail injured two women, one seriously, and shot flames 10 feet into the air. Malone was charged with arson, felonious assault and desecration of church property. (UPI PHOTO).

City-Wide Election Set For Next Tuesday

ADVERTISERS

A highly important and significent city-wide election will be held in Raleigh next Tuesday, May 4.

For the first time in history, candidates for membership on the Raleigh Board of Education will have to subject themselves to voter approval. The terms of two members of this five-member board, Negro Atty. F. J. Carnage and Mrs. J. L. Stough, do not expire until 1967, leaving the remaining three seats to be filled by the will of the voters on May 4th.

na Motor Sales

PAGE 2

-CAROLINIAN

Two incumbents, Cliff Cameron royd and Howard G. Miller. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

BUY FROM THEM

First Federal Savings and Loan Ass'n. Hunt General Tire Co.

Carolina Builders Corp. Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Ralei, h

Unistead Grocery and Transfer Co.

Mechanics and Farmers Bank

Taylor Radio and Electrical Co. Lincoln Theatre Dunn's Esso Service

Terrace Insurance and Realty Co. King Cole Motei Gem Watch Shop White's Oil Co., Inc. PAGE 13 Fisher Wholesale Co.

Smitty's Bait and Tackle Shop PAGE 16 Sanders Motor Co.

Tire Sales and Service Co.

Lightner's Funeral Home R. E. Quinn Furniture Co.

Estates Building Co.

Community Drug Store

Ridgeway's Optician. Inc.

Community Drug Store Southern Bell

PAGE 11 Wood's 5c and 10c Store

L. V. Norton

PAGE 10

PAGE 13

PAGE 14

Raper's Market

KWIX

ri, with registration at 4:00 P.M. and continue through Sunday.

and Maurice Theim are seeking to cover every phase of the work of retain their seats. Others bidding for election for the three seats at stake are, Mrs. Virginia K. Newell, William Duff, W. Casper Hol-

The three-day meet will be presided over by George W. Miller, District Representative, and will the organization. The Friday night session will be devoted to social affairs. A "Cocktail Sip" is scheduled for the Capitol Room of the Carolina Hotel from 8 to 9. It is

The new police of the Ra-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

This Friday

BY ALEXANDER BARNES

and CHARLES IRVING, JR.

Members of the Omega Psi Fra-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Mrs. Newell Plans Talk With Ladies

Mrs. Virginia K. Newell, a successful candidate for the Board of Education, in recent primary election, will be the guest speaker at an open meeting of the Raleigh Women Voter's Council, Saturday, May 1st, at 5 p. m. at the East Raleigh Branch of the YWCA, 310 E. Davie Street. The public is invited. The Voter's Council wholeheart-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Lester Maddox Acquitted In Ga.

ATLANTA (NPI) - An all-white jury last week acquitted segregationist Lester Maddox on charges last summer

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

Night Set Here Friday

including incumbents have expressed a desire to appear before the association's public forum. This group includes persons seeking seats on the Raleigh City Council and the Ra-

At this time, the public will be given the opportunity of not only

hearing the various candidates say

why they believe they are qualifi-

Candidates who have not yet indicated a desire to appear

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

WEATHER

Temperatures for the next five days, Thursday, through Monday, will average 5 to 10 degrees below normal. Rainfall will average about a half an inch Thursday through Monday. The normal high and low temperatures for the Raleigh area will be, 76-52. It will be cool most the period.

leigh School Board.

to the office sought.

The Raleigh Citizens Association Several of the candidates, has extended an invitation to all Mrs. Koontz won the A.B. degree from Livingstone College, candidates seeking election in the Salisbury, and the M. A. degree city-wide election to be held in from Atlanta University, Atlanta, Raleigh on Tuesday, May 4th, to speak to the members of the associ-Georgia. She has also done further study at North Carolina College at ation and to the general pulic on Durham, Columbia University and Friday, April 30th, at 8 p. m. a the

An ardent educator, Mrs. Koontz Dr. DeVane olds membership in a wide assort-(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Addresses City's NACW

> Dr. Carl E. DeVane, chairman, Divison of Social Science, Shaw University, rendered a distinct service on Sunday evening, April 25. at the regular monthly meeting of the Raleigh Branch, National Association of College Women. The meeting was held at the Home Economics practice cottage, cornner of Wilmington and E. South Streets. The organization, in its continuing effort to bring current information and take advantage of available opportunities to refresh and challenge its members with their responsibilities to measure up and function more effectively, gained a

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

SEVEN LIGON STUDENTS TO ATTEND GOVERNOR'S SCHOOL - The J. W. Ligon High School will have seven students participating in the Governor's School this summer. The school was established three years ago by former Gove mor Terry Sanford as a summer training of pointing a pistol at a Negro who institute for students demonstrating certain academic abilities during the school year. Students tried to integrate his restaurant who will attend are shown, from left to right: Miss Antoinette Foxwell, mathematics; Johnny Williams, voice; Bernard Davis, dramatics; John Leake, dramatics; Paul Jervay, art; Miss Dorothy Battle, string; and Larry Harris, vocal.

trate on the streets of Durham

> These youngsters were curious to know if there were a possibility that a law culd be passed to prohibit such a gathering anywhere in America. They were at a loss to know what their government was doing to curb movements of such nature here in America while it was trying to intervene in Viet Nam.

among men had no right to dem-

Another significant part of the obed-demonstration was the part played by a white student, who had not shaved for sometime. He wore a makeshift outfit, which appeared to have been hastily put ed for the public positions they together, but compared with some seek, but in addition, the audience of those worn by the Klansmen, will be free to question the candilooked rather favorably, except dates about any matte r pertaining that he had the words, "Love Thy

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Man, Woman Fight; She Is The Victor

of the period, but there will be some warming Friday and Satur-Officer Joseph Winters, Sr., reported at 3:48 a. m. Saturday, that day. Scattered showers is expected about Thursday morning, then mostly general rain. More showers there was "a misunderstanding at 209 W. South Street," and a fight are expected during the latter developed between Richard Frazier, 19, of 19 Hunter Street, and Rudolph Brown, of 718 S. Dawson Street Miss Judith Rebecca Haywood, 27, of 602 S. McDowell Street, "put Frazier out several times, but he kept coming back into the house.

Finally, a struggle between Miss Haywood and Frazier ensued, but was climaxed when she shot him in both legs with a .32 calibre pistol.

Young Frazier was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for his wounds. Miss Haywood was "hauled off" to the Wake County Jail, charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Invites Stranger To His House, Is Robbed

William Lindsay Pearson, 25, of 604 E. Martin Street, told Officer D. A. McLeod at 1:07 a. m. Saturday, he "invited a short, fat colored man with short hair to my house to spend the night with me." and as he was preparing for bed. he placed his wallet with $18 in it on a drawer beside the bed, hen went into his bathroom. "When I came out." said Pearson, "both the money and the man were gone." Declaring he didn't know the nan's name, the complainant said the alleged thief is believed to be working at Joe's Sport Shop, S. Wilmington Street.

(CONTINUED ON FAGE 3)

Mrs. Elizabeth D. "Libby" Koontz

will keynote the Sixth Annual Women's Day Program in the Saint day, May 2, 1965.

Indiana University.

ternity from the two Carolinas will converge on Raleigh Friday afternoon for the 1965 annual meeting which will get underway at the Raleigh Memorial Audito-

LALLAH D. KOONTZ