Mrs. Cofield To Preside At Jack-Jill Talks

NORFOLK, Va. -- Delegates from Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina will attend the Mid-Atlantic Mothers' Regional Conference here June 18 and 19 of the Jack and Jill of America, Inc.

The organization, with chapters in most of the 50 States, is primarily for supervised social and cultural activities of sub-teen and teen-age girls and

Headquarters for the conference will be the Admiralty Motor Hotel, on Military Highway, with the mothers of the Norfolk chapter serving as hostesses. ! The theme of the conference will be "World Demands -- Jack and Jill Plans." The two-day (See MRS. COFTELD, P. 2)

O'Neal Moore, who was shot in Creed Rogers, drove along a Rogers was injured in the attack. Governor John J. Mc-Keithan, in deploring the act, has offered a $25,000 reward for others involved in the plot. Being held for murder in the brutal slaying was Ernis R. Mc-Elveen, 41, of Bogalusa. Sheriff J. C. Knippers, of Walthall County, Miss., said the suspect was arrested in Tylertown, Miss., 25 miles northeast of Bogalusa, and was being held on a murder charge. He refused to waive extradition. Authorities said the Nego deputies were shot from a truck that passed them near the community of Varnado.

They were hired b Dorman A. Crowe to patrol Negro areas. This move had brought angry reaction from the Ku Klux Klan in the area.

The slaying brought added tension to the Bogalusa area. Earlier, mobs armed with clubs and pipes attacked Negro civil rights pickets and Columbia, the town's main street, resembled a battlefield until police arrested 28 persons--15 whites and 13 Negroes.
