

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE

"LEAVE IT TO GOD"
Does the path seem rough and steep?
Leave it to God,
Do you sow, but fail to reap?
Leave it to God.

If in doubt just what to do,
Leave it to God,
He will make it plain to you;
Leave it to God,
Serve Him faithfully today,
He will guide you all the way.

Simply trust Him, watch and pray -
Leave it to God,
- Greenville Kieft

Pete's Pickin's

I had a chance to get back to Wake Memorial Hospital and I found a few more empty beds. Maybe we are getting a little more healthy.

Mrs. Willie Lee Person, 1211 Cross Link Road, was much improved. Mr. Willie McKiver, E. Davie St., seemed just about ready to come home. Maybe, I ought not expect too much too soon.

Mr. Willie Arrington, Battle St., looked like he was ready to go to church. He might next Sunday. From down Holly Springs way comes healthy chants of "expecting to go home soon" from Mr. John King, Mrs. Maggie Cross. The same could be said of Oxford, Mrs. Lyons, at one time, lived at 510 S. Blount St. here in Raleigh. From the Fuquay-Springs side, the word came from representative, Mrs. Mattie McDonald, from Wendell was Mrs. Magdalen Whitley of Route 1, John Murray, from Lenoir there was Mr. Richard Brown, Wendell again came Mrs. Sarah Jones.

The Rev. John Thomas, pastor of St. John Baptist Church, Aberdeen was guest speaker at Oberlin Baptist Church last Sunday. Mrs. Nancy Shepherd, Bedford Ave., continues on the shut-in list. Your church friends especially wish for you a rapid recovery.

Mrs. Gussie McKinley, Stafford Ave., is much improved. Friends are happy to take note. Mrs. Lula Atwater, Everette Ave. is likely to be out any day now. Watch out friends, she'll see you soon. Mrs. Belle Stratford, Parker St., is doing "real-well". She'll most likely be present at Oberlin Baptist in a few Sundays.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, Dupree, Hadley Rd. left the city recently to return to her teaching assignment in Thomaston, Georgia. Mr. Cornelius Williams, with the U. S. Army at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, is visiting his wife, Mrs. Pauline Williams and family, at 511 Montague Place.

Mr. Caesar Brown, formerly of this city but now of Montclair, N. J. visited his sister, Mrs. Mattie Belle Wilder, E-14 Washington Terrace, recently. Rev. J. F. Epps, the progressive minister at St. Matthew A.M.E. Church, spent a portion of his vacation in Connecticut and points east visiting relatives and friends. He will fill his pulpit this week end.

Mr. Allie Jones, formerly of Montague Place and, at one time, a member of the old Polo Giants Baseball Club, was in town recently visiting relatives and friends. "Shag" as he was affectionately known, was some class left-felder. He now makes his home in New York City. The former Miss Vera Lewis, sister of Mr. J. D. Lewis, and Mrs. Luella Lewis, the mother of "J. D." were his house guests at their Macedonia acres residence recently. Miss Vera was at one time one of the famed George Mitchell Bathing Beauties at his Chavis Park Aquatics Show in the early days of the recreation program.

Later, she attended Hampton Institute and became an integral part of the creative dance group. She is now teaching in the public school system of Detroit, Michigan. His mother, Mrs. Luella Lewis, resides with her. Welcome home folks!
