Ligon's Little Blues Trample The Bulls Of E. E. Smith, Fayetteville

"We looked like the ball club we really are in the second half," said happy Ligon Coach Harvey Heartley. His Little Blues had just romped to a 85-61 decision over the Golden Bulls of E. E. Smith High in Fayetteville last Friday night.

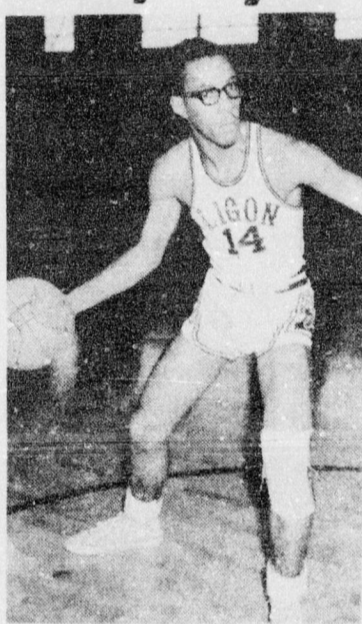

It was the fifth straight win and the eighth in 10 starts for the Ligon cagers, James Melvin had his best night of the season for the Blues as he pumped in 22 points to take scoring honors. Jimmy Robinson had 19, Jesse Clements pitched in 15 points and William Cooper added 10 to the Ligon output. Clements also had an outstanding night on the boards hauling 22 rebounds.

Ligon took command of the game in the third period with a pressure defense that forced the Bulls into numerous turnovers and the Blues hit many uncontested lay-ups.

"This was a good win for us. The pressure is always on the visiting team and when we can win one on the road the victory is always a little sweeter," Heartley added.

The Little Blues trailed, 16-14 at the end of the first quarter but went into the half with a 35-34 advantage. In the third period they outscored the losers 20-12, and in the final frame had a 22-15 advantage.

In the preliminary game, the Ligon juniors dropped a 41-35 decision. Ligon's next game

KISSING HIS LUCKY BALL - San Diego, Calif. Charlie Sifford kisses the hole-in-one ball that won him a new car recently. He holed out on the 18th hole at Stardust County Club, and was presented the keys to a new Oldsmobile. The 18th hole is a par 3 190-yarder, and this was Sifford's first hole-in-one in tournament play. (UPI PHOTO).

325 Will Compete In Miami

MIAMI, Fla. - Early entries point to a record field for the 13th Annual North-South Golf Tournament, Feb. 23-27 at the City of Miami Country Club course, Richard Gardner, tournament director, announced.

Gardner said some 325 will compete for honors in the professional and amateur divisions.

Fifteen flights for amateurs will include four women's and two seniors. All flights will carry first, second and third place trophies.

Jackie Robinson, of baseball's Hall of Fame, has notified officials he will defend the amateur title he regained last year after losing to James Holway in 1963.

He was unable to compete in 1964 due to a knee operation.

Word also was received from Nathaniel Starks, of Ft. Benning, Ga., pro winner in 1965, that he again will shoot for the $800 top prize money.

Lee Elder of Washington, D. C., winner in 1963-64, is in Miami practicing for the event, with local pros of the area.

Others expected to compete are Pete Brown and Ray Bots, both PGA touring pros, former pro champ Ted Rhodes of Chicago, Cliff Brown of Nashville, Zeke Hartsfield of New York and Willie Brown of Houston.

Ann Gregory of Gary, Ind. will defend the title in the women's division which she won last year by 16 strokes.

CHECK UP - New York: New York Yankee General Manager Ralph Houk examines catcher Elston Howard's arm here, January 19. Howard, whose injured right elbow marked the beginning of the end for the Yankees in the 1965 American League pennant race, signed his 12th contract with the club, condition as excellent. ## Ernest E. Goodman, Howard Publicist, Heads NCAA Body

KANSAS CITY, MO. - The appointment of Ernest E. Goodman, director of public relations at Howard University in Washington, D. C., as chairman of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's public relations committee for 1966 was announced Sunday by NCAA executive director Walter Byers.

In his new post, Goodman will head a group of 12 college publicists who plan promotional activities for the 645-member athletic association. He succeeds Baaron B. Pittenger, Harvard University sports information director, as committee chairman.

The public relations committee is responsible for NCAA press relations as well as promotional programs relating to advertising, faculty and internal relations, television programming, relations with professional teams, and cooperation with allied organizations. The group also develops a series of news and feature stories on college athletics for news media and another series for use in game programs and other publications.

Other information directors named to the public relations committee by the NCAA Council at its meeting in Washington, D. C. last week and announced by Byers today include Ernest A. Roberts (Dartmouth), James I. Tarnan (Pennsylvania State), Robert M. Hartley (Mississippi State), Joe McLaughlin (Dayton), and Harold Keith (Oklahoma).

Also Robert Cheyne (Arkansas), Frank W. Soltis (Arizona), Thomas C. Hansen (Athletic Association of Western Universities), Fred W. Stably (Michigan State), Ted Emery (Northern Illinois), and Walter D. Splain (Colgate).

Wiles Hallock, NCAA public relations director, serves as advisor to the committee. Goodman has been a member of the public relations committee since 1964. Since that

ERNEST E. GOODMAN
