

FROM RALEIGH'S OFFICIAL POLICE FILES

THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

SAYS BROTHER CUT HIM
Raymond Mitchell, 43, of Rt. 2, Raleigh, came to police headquarters Saturday and signed a warrant against his brother, Jesse Mitchell, 50, of Rt. 5, Raleigh, alleging that Jesse cut him on top of the head with a pocket knife at 1515 Poole Road.

Raymond Mitchell had several lacerations on the top of his head. His brother was "hauled off" to Wake County Jail and placed under a bond of $200.

NAB TWO IN STREET FIGHT
Officers Norman Artis and M. G. Clifton reported at 3 a. m. Saturday, they observed Miss Jeanette Louise Fowler, 21, of 419 Dakar St., and Miss Loretta McKnight, 19, of 503 E. Lee Street, fighting each other at the corner of E. Davie and S. Bloodworth Streets. Miss Knight is said to have damaged the officers' walkie-talkie by kicking it. She was charged with engaging in an affray, damage to city property, valued at $10, and disorderly conduct; while Miss Fowler was charged with engaging in an affray.

TOOTHACHE

Don't suffer agony. In seconds get relief that lasts with ORA-JEL. Special release formula puts it to work instantly to stop throbbing toothache pain, so safe doctors recommend it for teething.

COKE MACHINE DAMAGED
Eugene Johns, Jr., of 853 Newcombe Road, manager of Eugene's Gulf Service, 1827 Garner Road, informed Officers O.H. Hinton and E. Curtis Winston at 7:03 a. m. Friday, he closed the station at 9:30 p. m. Thursday and returned at 7 a. m. Friday to discover someone had broken the Coca-Cola machine, which was located outside the station.

Mr. Johns said $20 in damage was done to the machine and a small, undetermined amount of change was taken. A metal instrument was used to force entry.

SAYS 3 WOMEN BEAT HER
Miss Janet Louise Fowler, 21, of 419 Dakar St., told Officer C. W. Jones at 3:34 p. m. Sunday, she was attacked by three women at the intersection of Alston and Davie Streets (The Bottom).

Miss Fowler, who suffered bruises about the face, stated she would come to headquarters later and sign assault and battery warrants.

CHARGES ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Mrs. Mary Martha Martin, of 732 C Quarry St., signed a warrant at 11:53 p. m. Saturday against Douglas Martin, same address, for assault and battery, claiming he struck her with his hands and fists at 700 N. State Street. No motive was given.

Martin was arrested by Officers John Baker, Sr., and James E. (Sonny) Lane.

SEEK ALLEGED SHOP-LIFTER

Officers were informed by Miss Elouise Etes, employee of Patterson's Record Shop, 116 E. Hargett St., at 7:56 p. m. Friday, that she saw Archie Johnson, 21, address unlisted, who works at the Raleigh Country Club, take and conceal under his coat, three record albums. Thomas Adcock, of 910 E. Edenton St., said he also observed Johnson conceal the merchandise.

CAR'S BATTERY STOLEN

Mrs. Judith Ann Andrews, of G-17 Washington Terrace, told "the law" at 10:44 a. m. Saturday that someone removed the battery out of her 1965 Chevrolet, parked near her home, between 12:30 a. m. and 10:15 a. m. Saturday. The battery was valued at $25.

HELD FOR SHOOTING GUN

Edward Coolidge Jones, 36, of 2303 Stafford Ave., was arrested at 2:57 p. m. Sunday and charged with discharging firearms, after he reportedly "shot wildly" in the 300 block of E. Worth St. with a .22 calibre pistol.

Financial Aids Officer Appointed At NC College

DURHAM -- Wallace C. Blackwell, an Air Force veteran of the Korean conflict, has been appointed to the position of student financial aids officer at North Carolina College, William Jones, business manager, announced this week.

A native of Roxboro, where he received his elementary and secondary school education, Blackwell holds the B. A. and M. A. degrees from North Carolina College. He has taught in Johnston, Granville, and Person county school systems.

As student financial aids officer, he will supervise the office which administers the financial assistance programs and projects of the college. These include scholarships, loans, work-study projects, and student employment.

Blackwell is married to the former Miss Doris Smith and they are the parents of two sons, Reuben, seven, and Jay, four.

SCLC Has Added Some 20,000 Voters

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. -- A sustained voter registration drive started here on last December 22 by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has added almost 20,000 new Negro registered voters to the Jefferson County rolls.

SCLC President, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., has termed the registration drive, "The most significant ever to take place in the South."

A local minister, the Rev. Calvin Wood, declared early this week in a private unity meeting with prominent Birmingham leaders, chaired by Dr. King.

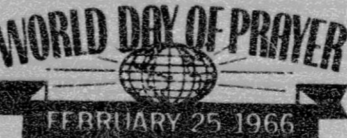

"Birmingham calls itself the Magic City. Magic has appeared on the streets of Birmingham the last few weeks when thousands of Negroes registered to vote for the first time."

In the same breath, however, Rev. Wood added: "But we had to work to make this magic. In the early hours of the morning, SCLC workers and local citizens were driving and canvassing, and all the other or-
