GREENSBORO -- Bennington College's Dance Troop, bringing a repertoire of original works by students, will appear in the Bennett College Little Theatre on Feb. 21 at 8 p. m.

The Vermont Institution, which opened in 1932, elevated its dance division at the outset of party with other academic divisions, a status that is a novelty in the collegiate world. As a result it quickly became a major center of modern dance. In the group are 10 student dancers, most of whom have had years of dance training, some with professional dance experience before enrolling in college.
