THE CRIME BEAT

BY CHARLES R. JONES

BATTERY "LIFTED" FROM AUTO

William Nick Lucas, of 578 E. Lenoir Street, told Officers T. T. Street, Jr., and Joseph Winters, Sr., at 6:55 a. m. Monday, that someone removed the battery from his Oldsmobile, which was in the parking area on S. Hayward, just south of E. Lenoir.

The $21 battery was "lifted" sometime after 8:30 p. m. Sunday.

MAN SHOT ON WAY HOME

Allen Willis, Jr., of 613 Delany Drive, informed "the law" at 12:10 a. m. Saturday, that he was headed home when a 1956 Chevrolet Station Wagon pulled along side him and the several occupants of the vehicle started a quarrel.

Mr. Willis said he was shot in the leg, just above the knee, by one of the occupants of the black and white car, but did not recognize any of the persons inside. The weapon used was believed to have been a .22 calibre rifle.

WOMAN SAYS THREE ATTACKED HER

Mrs. Carrie Alston Eason, of

TOOTHACHE

Don't suffer agony. In seconds get relief that lasts with ORA-JEL. Speed-release formula puts it to work instantly to stop throbbing toothache pain, so safe doctors recommend it for teething.

411 E. Lenoir St., reported at 7:36 p. m. Monday, that Miss Rosa Pickett, of 201 S. East Street, and two other persons, including a girl named "Edith," whose last name she did not know, and a man, attacked her at the East St. address by reaching her on the back.

She also complained of pain in the shoulder. This incident took place at 11:30 a. m. Saturday.

RINGS STOLEN FROM HOUSE

James Edward Lassiter, of 316 S. East Street, told Officers John Baker, Sr., and James E. (Sonny) Lane at 5:58 p. m. Friday, he left home about 7:30 a. m., and returned to find someone had entered his house, ransacked the drawers and dresser and stolen two rings: a Princess ring, valued at $39; and a birthstone ring, which cost $32.

The officers noted, "No sign of a break-in."

SON BEATS MOTHER

Mrs. Zula Alberta Wilson, of 808 S. West St., informed police officers at 9:42 a. m. Saturday, that her son, Clarence Edward Wilson, 26, of the same address, "came home after he had been drinking."

The complainant said Wilson then started beating her about the face and head and refused to let her out of the house. She signed a warrant and young Wilson was "hauled off" to jail under a bond of $300.

The incident is reported to

NAB GIRL ON CITY DAMAGE RAP

Police officer E. Curtis Whiston reported at 1:55 a. m. Saturday, he placed Miss Artis Marie Stallings, 18, of 1507 Cross St., under arrest for disorderly conduct, and after she got into Car 57, she began kicking the inside panel of the right rear door.

The young woman was then charged with damage to city property in the amount of $20. The arrest was made at the intersection of E. Davie and S. Bloodworth Streets.

SAYS HE WAS THREATENED

Perry Lindo Crutchfield, of 623 Quarry St., informed officers at 2:38 p. m. Saturday, he was at 9 Lincoln Terrace, the home of Max McCarr, when McCarr went upstairs and returned with a pistol, and pointed it at him as he stood on the porch.

Crutchfield said he had asked McCarr for some money owed him and a "fuss" started.

The complainant signed a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon and McCarr, who denied the charge, was arrested.

MAN FACES ASSAULT CHARGE

Miss Mozelle McLeod, of 510 E. Martin St., told Officers D. Brinson and R. Clayborne at 2:09 a. m. Sunday, that James Lee Hines, 25, of 702 E. Hargett Street, Apt. 5, struck her in the face with his hands and fists.

The woman, who exhibited bruises on the left side of her face, signed a warrant, charging assault and battery.

HAD LOADED GUN IN HAND

Mrs. Ella Henly, of 13 Lincoln Terrace, signed a warrant against Argo Sanders, 53, same address, for threatening her with a shotgun at 6:59 p. m. Saturday.

When arrested by Officers R. B. Callahan and W. M. Parker, Jr., Sanders had the .12 gauge loaded shotgun in his hand. He was "whisked" away to Wake County Jail on an assault with a deadly weapon rap, and the shotgun was confiscated.

DRINKING WOMAN BEATEN

Mrs. Lovie Morgan Collins, 45, of 1700 Pender St., reported to officers from Wake Memorial Hospital at 4:25 p. m. Saturday, she was in her back yard and her dogs began to bark, "and I thought someone hit me in the face."

Mrs. Collins said she had been drinking and saw no one before or after she was struck. She declared she did not get "knocked out."

The woman suffered a one-half laceration on the left side of her face, causing the area to swell.

SHOT IN HIS OWN HOUSE

Henry Clay Drewry, 51, of 111 Seawell Avenue, told Officers M. G. Clifton and B. C. Nipper at 7:30 a. m. Sunday, that Charles Jones, 20, of 218 N. Heck Street, shot him while in his home.

Drewry admitted that he and young Jones had been drinking together for about two hours, when Jones started shooting at bottles in the room. Mr. Drewry said when he asked Jones to stop shooting, he shot him in the lower left thigh with the .22 calibre pistol.

A warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon, was signed against Jones by Officer Nipper.

CONVERTIBLE'S TOP CUT

Worth Durwood Spivey, 30, of 657 Coleman St., informed Officers Norman Artis and James E. (Bobby) Daye at 7:52 a. m. Sunday, he parked his 1963 Chevrolet convertible in front of his apartment, and later discovered it had been cut on the top in two places.

Spivey said he knew of no one who would damage the car. He estimated his loss at $100.

CHAPEL HILL AUTO DAMAGED

Mrs. Daisy Bell Sanders, of 102 N. Merritt Rd., Chapel Hill, reported to two cops at 12:05 a. m. Sunday, that while her red tudor 1964 Chevrolet was parked in front of 556 E. Edenton St., someone cut off the stem of the right front tire, causing the air to leak out.

The incident occurred about 11:45 p. m. Saturday. Damage was set at $1.

SHOOTS WOMAN THROUGH WALL

Mrs. Laura Mae Smith, 47, of 1324 Pender St., told "the law" at 9:20 p. m. Sunday, that she and George Carson Kelth, 43, of 1326 Pender, had a "fuss" over their children and he shot through a hole in the wall of his house, into her house, the shotgun blast striking her in the left wrist.

Mr. Kelth was arrested, under a $500 bond on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, and the gun was confiscated.

CONSTRUCTION TO BEGIN ON TWO NEW BUILDINGS AT SHAW U. - Pictured here are two of the buildings slated to be built under the redevelopment plan at Shaw University. Construction is slated to begin in March on both a nine-story Women's Dormitory (top) and a Student Union-Dining Hall (bottom). A sum of $1,900,000 was received from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for the construction of these buildings. (See story).

Shaw University Receives $1,950,000 Loan For Two Buildings

Shaw University received notification here Thursday that it had been awarded a $1,950,000 Federal loan from the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development for construction of a Women's dormitory and a Student-Union-Dining Hall. The announcement of the loan was made by the university's president, Dr. James E. Cheek.

The construction of these two buildings is another step toward the completion of the institution's massive redevelopment plan. The first structure in the master plan, the Administration Building, is already completed and occupied.

$1000 Grant For Library At Bennett

GREENSBORO -- A grant of $1,000 to the Helgate Library at Bennett College by the Association of College and Research Libraries -- a division of the American Library Association -- was announced this week.

The Bennett grant -- one of 78 selected from among 373 applicants -- will enable the college to gain a matching grant of similar amount from other sources, thus making possible the expenditure of $2,000.

A&T College Given Grant Of $33,000

GREENSBORO -- A & T College has been awarded a matching grant of $33,000 by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation of New York City.

Announcement of the award was made this week by Dr. L. C. Dowdy, President of A&T College. He said the funds are to be unrestricted and may be used for any purposes to advance the cause of education at the college.

To qualify for the full amount, A&T will be required to raise, through its own resources, an amount equal to or exceeding the total outlay. The Alfred P. Sloan Foundation will match gifts, dollar for dollar, by A&T Alumni; one for two, for gifts received from sources in North Carolina; and, one for three, for gifts received from out-of-state donors, in any combination.

Come in and take on a tiger!

The only thing that looks low-priced on a Pontiac Tempest is its price sticker.

And that's removable.

Take it off, and there's just a pure, unabridged Pontiac: crisp, Wide-Track style and handling. A handsome interior. Plus the effervescent performance of a new, overhead cam 6 engine that puts out with all the spunk of an 8, yet saves like the traditional 6. And of course, being a Pontiac, Tempest allows you the luxury of choice—with options in engines, transmissions, suspensions, practically everywhere. And like all Pontiacs, Tempest also has a standard safety package with items like seat belts to buckle—front and rear. (That ought to do for now. We'll tell you the rest when you get here.)
