SLASHES BOTH WRISTS
Hubert Barbour, Jr., of 514 Dorothea Drive, called "the law" at 2:10 a. m. Sunday. Officers L. L. Toole and D. C. Williams, who answered the call, found that Mrs. Catherine Cotton Barbour, 25, had cut her wrists after a domestic quarrel with her husband. The woman was taken to Wake Memorial Hospital with one-inch lacerations on her wrists. Due to her condition, the cops were unable to question her, but investigation is pending.

WIGS STOLEN IN BREAK-IN
Mrs. Mary Louise Whitley, of 323 N. Tarboro Rd., informed Officers T. T. Street, Jr., and Joseph Winters, Sr., at 8:28 a. m. Friday, that someone broke the glass in the front door of Whitley's Beauty Shop, same address, sometime after 9:15 p. m. Thursday and stole ten wigs, two wiglets and two braids. The total value of the stolen merchandise was set at $1,200.

RED WAGON TAKEN FROM HOME
Mrs. Doris Perry Battle, of 705 Newcombe Rd., told Officers Otis Hinton and E. Curtis Winston at 5:56 p. m. Saturday, that someone took her son's red radio wagon from the rear of her home sometime Friday night. Mrs. Battle said she last saw the 24-inch wagon about 1 p. m. Friday.

It was valued at $6.99 and had a Penny's brand name. NABBED FOR SHOPLIFTING
Wilbert Smith, manager of McLellan's Store, 230 Fayetteville St., told officers at 3:12 p. m. Saturday, he saw Miss Catherine Elliott, 21, of 203 Cooke St., conceal one green knit sweater, valued at $4.44 under her coat. He signed a warrant, charging shoplifting, and she was arrested under a bond of $50.

WOMAN BEATEN, ROBBED
Miss Mildred Mozilla Sanders, 30, of 1210 Pender St., reported to Officers N. A. Carter and O. C. Pratt at 12:08 a. m. Saturday, she met a boy at Burnett's Grill, W. South St., and he asked her to go to The Cave with him at about 11:30 Friday night. She said as they were walking along the street, he suddenly pulled her into an alley, beat her with an umbrella, then stole her $2 pocketbook containing $1.50 and ran.

The woman exhibited a bump on her head. Her assailant is believed to be about 19 or 20 years of age, according to the report. SAYS FEMALE KNIFED HIM
Roscoe Gunter, 33, of 108 Stronach Alley, told Officers P. G. Jones and R. F. Perry at Wake Memorial Hospital at 12:02 a. m. Sunday, that his girlfriend, Miss Novella Jones, address unknown, cut him after a quarrel at his house.

Gunter, who suffered a two-inch laceration near his left eye, extending to the upper left cheek, signed a warrant, charging assault with a deadly weapon. Police files listed Miss Jones' address as possibly being the same as Gunter's.

CHARGES HUBBY THREATENED HER
Mrs. Jessie Watson Mial, 54, of 320 S. Tarboro Rd., informed Officers Otis Hinton and E. Curtis Winston at 6:32 p. m. Saturday, her husband, Jermain Mial, 58, came home and threatened to cut her neck with a butcher knife. She said she then ran in the front room and out of the house. Mrs. Mial said, "He thought I was going with another man." Mr. Mial was arrested on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

CLUB 54 OPERATOR ARRESTED
Miss Sally Jo Williams, of 913 Page St., told Officers Norman Artis and James E. (Bobby) Daye at 1:55 a. m. Saturday, that she was at the Club 54, E. Davie and S. Bloodworth Streets, when she got into an argument with John Stewart, operator of the club. She said Stewart assaulted her with his hands and fists. The woman signed a warrant, charging assault and battery, and Stewart was arrested and placed under bond.

Sunday, that Wilbur Lee Evans was in the soda shop, got mad, and tore two tables from the wall. He said the tables had been made into the wall. Burnett was unable to give a reason for Evans' anger and subsequent actions. He signed a damage to property warrant and Evans, 20, of 323 S. East St., was arrested.

Only Minor Progress Made In Race Relations-Prexy

GREENSBORO -- An audience at A&T College was told last week that no progress was made in race relations for sixty years following reconstruction.

The speaker was Dr. Vivian Henderson, an author in the field of economics, now president of Clark College, Atlanta, Ga. He spoke at regular spring convocation held on last Tuesday morning in the Charles Moore Gymnasium, a program also a part of the A&T observance of Negro History Week. He said there were no race relations prior to reconstruction, except on a "master to slave basis," and the developments in race relations for the ensuing sixty years were controlled by Jim Crow laws. He said during the period immediately following reconstruction, during the 1880's, "and until 1940, there was no progress in bringing equality of opportunity to the American Negro." He continued, "For almost sixty years, there was stagnation, and even retrogression."

Real progress has been made only during the past two decades. Continuing, he told the group, "Reconstruction marked the first time that Negroes tried to gain equality, and since that time there has been only a zig-zag course towards accomplishment. Referring to the progress accomplished during the recent civil rights struggle, the speaker warned, "It is not enough to talk about equal opportunity -- that opens the gates; but it takes other changes to walk through these gates." He said, "Despite gains, the economic gap between Negroes and whites continues to widen." "The way it is now going," he said, "we would end up with a lot of civil rights, but empty stomachs." He warned the audience that there is developing a Negro middle class, but there has been no progress for the little man at all.

Crippling last year prevented some 29-million Americans from leading what is termed a "Normal" life, reports the Easter Seal Society. The figure represents about 15 out of every 100 of our population and, despite the advances of medical research and scientific findings, continues to grow at an alarming rate.

The automobile enables families to get away from it all briefly, and for that reason it tops the list of desirable possessions.

Ingle Talks On Medicare For Elderly

Most Federal Agencies in Raleigh were closed for George Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, since it is a National Holiday. The Raleigh Social Security Office was open on that day and will serve the public as on any other day during the week. John Ingle, District Manager of the Raleigh Social Security Office, said that the reason the office is open on this National Holiday is to give those 65 and over who have not filed for Hospital Insurance Benefits and Medical Insurance Benefits an additional opportunity to come in to complete their claim for these benefits.

Ingle pointed out that those who reached age 65 in 1965 and before will have only until March 31 to sign up for the Medical Insurance Benefits. If they do not sign up by that date they will not again have an opportunity until October, 1967. If they wait until October, November or December, 1967 to sign up their benefits will begin with July, 1968. In addition there will be an increase in the $3.00 a month premium rate for late filing. Ingle urged all of those who have reached 65 to be sure to come in to the Social Security District Office for an explanation of their rights under the new Medicare Program.

Evaluate DBC For National Accreditation

DURHAM -- An inspection team composed of university and business college representatives recently visited and inspected Durham Business College's new quarter-of-a-million dollar school plant. The one-day visit provided an opportunity for evaluating practically all phases of the college's program. The inspectors were particularly concerned about the instructional equipment and the varied use made of specific items. Interviews with students and instructional personnel rounded out the visit. Actual accreditation status will not be known, however, until April, when the commis-
