Durham Native To Get Award At N.C. College

DURHAM -- Miss Joyce L. Perry, a North Carolina College senior English major from Durham, has been named the student recipient of the col-

MISS JOYCE L. PERRY
leg's James E. Shepard Hamilton Watch award for 1966. The award will be conferred at the college's seventeenth annual Awards Day Friday, May 6. Established in 1947 by the Hamilton Watch Company in honor of the late Dr. James E. Shepard, who founded the college, the award honors the NCC teacher and student who "make the most significant contribution to the school during the year of the award." Dr. Theodore R. Spelner, chairman of the college's Department of Geography, was voted the faculty recipient by the faculty, and Miss Perry was chosen following campuswide voting by students.

Miss Perry, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Perry of Raleigh, is a graduate of Durham High School, where she was a senior "superlative." At NCC, she has been basileus of Alpha Chi Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, and she is currently president of the Women's Assembly, and a nominee to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

$108,382 Grant Given Winston-Salem State

WINSTON-SALEM -- Winston-Salem State College was awarded a grant of $108,382 by the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) to operate an Upward Bound Program for a 12-month period beginning March 30, 1966.

Dr. W. Archie Blount, vice-president of the college and director of the program, made the announcement of the grant last week.

The grant is one of the first of 55 made by the OEO to fund programs for disadvantaged youth. Its purpose is to develop the potential of disadvantaged youth and motivate them to attend college. Two hundred such grants are anticipated under Title II-A of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

"The Program at Winston-Salem State College," Dr. Blount said, "will involve one hundred 10th and 11th grade boys from Winston-Salem and Forsyth County. They will spend eight weeks on the campus beginning June 20 where they will receive academic work, counseling and cultural and recreational activities. During the 1966-67 school year they will receive followup counseling and cultural and educational activities."

The staff for the program will number around 20 and they will come from the college and the local secondary schools.

No person qualified for the program will be denied participation because of race.

Rex Jarrell, assistant director along with public school officials and a sub-committee of the advisory committee are now recruiting students for the program. Students who participate will receive a $10.00 a week stipend during the summer and $4.00 a week during the 1966-67 school year.

Dr. Ross To Speak At Bennett College
