

AWARDED FOR MERITORIOUS SERVICE - Mrs. Ernestine P. Hamlin, wife of the late Dr. J. T. Hamlin, is shown receiving a plaque given by Eta Sigma Chapyer of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. It was awarded Posthumously for his long and meritorious service rendered the chapter. Mrs. Hamlin receives the award from George Stokes, Jr., president of the

FACES KO TREAT

LONDON -- British Empire heavyweight champion Henry Cooper will have two objectives when he tangles with Americanborn, Muslim-orientated world heavyweight champion Cassius (Muhammad Ali) Clay for the title May 21. Cooper, who wants to duplicate his knockdown of Clay in 1963 on a more permanent basis, says he will try to flatten Casius early, and then hopes to collect about $140,000 in fight purse and retire to a grocery store he now owns and operates. Clay got off to the floor in the 1963 bout to cut up "enry" and stop him on a technical knockout.

Tips Unlimited

BY MRS. B. A. RIVERS A THIRTEEN YEAR -OLD

SPEAKS OUT FOR GOD Last week the students of my 7th grade reading class were asked to select a phrase from a list given them, add words of his own to make the phrase into a complete statement and develop a short paper from his statement. This is the way one student completed and developed the phrase "If I Could."

If I could just be as God would have me be, I would be so satisfied.

I am sure I hurt God often by doing the wrong thing and just saying very bad things. Sometimes I stop and think, who am I hurting my neighbor. myself or my Savior God?

I wonder if I could be an angel here on earth and live a truthful life like the angels in heaven? Maybe if I only tried God would help me. But then how would I explain to my friends what I am really trying to do, and what would they say and think of me?

Finally one day maybe I too could see the great hand writing in the sky or a ladder descending from heaven above. Maybe I could then grasp His hand or climb the ladder and go to God's house.

Oh, how happy I would be, if I could go up to the mountains and talk my problems over with Him just like Moses did. I would tell him everything I would like to do, ask for help, guidance and forgive-

I know this sounds queer to all I would know how to make Digest.

God happy and satisfied. -GLORIA LASSITER

The Governor Morehead School As I prepared this article for the press a news reporter was commenting on radio about the wealth and power of this great nation. And I thought how truly great we could be, if only we would take this youngster's advice and put God first in our

PERSONALS

PATIENT AT KEX HOSPITAL Mrs. Carolyn Young, of J-10 Washington Terrace, is a patient at Rex Hospital. Mrs. Young was scheduled to undergo surgery, Monday. All her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery, and will be looking forward to seeing her out again real soon.

Ibituaries

MR. GOERGE W. I HUMAS Funeral services for Mr. George W. Thomas, of 1201 E. who died at Wake Lane St. Memorial Hospital Tuesday of last week, were conducted from the St. Matthew AME Church Sunday at 3 p. m. The Rev. John Frederick Epps, pastor, officated and burial followed in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Helen E. Thomas, Raleigh; one son, George W. Thomas, Jr., Raleigh; and three brothers, Messers Alexander Thomas, Floyd Thomas and Sam A. Thomas, all of New York.

Imported

CANADIAN WHISKY

IMPORTED

Canadian 3

MACNAUGHTON

CANADIAN WHISKY

A BLEND

Distilled and blended under superission

of the Canadian Gowsnmont

AGED SIX FULL YEARS

John Mac Naughton Ca Bd Hontreal P.Q. Canada

CANADIAN WHISRY, 4 BLEND . 8 TEARS OF D. 88 8 PAGES - COCCHERIEY IMPORTS CO. N.Y. N.Y.

A PRODUCT OF CANADA

MACNAUGHT

MENTAL ILLNESS "More human suffering has some people, however, it is resulted from depression than If I could only speak from any other single disease,' and perform the act of life Dr. Nathan S. Kline, Laskerthat God would like, I would award winner for mental-health be so satisfied and most of research, states in the Catholic

Refused Service

(Continued from Page 1) Mrs. D. E. Lefler, owner of the restaurant, was contacted by a CAROLINIAN newsman Tuesday of this week for her version of the refusal of sitdown service to so notable a pair as these.

She said: "They were sold sandwiches to take out."

When asked whether she believed in obeying the Civil Rights Act, which forbids racial segregation in public places, she replied, "I don't know what I believe in."

Further investigation is expected in this case.

Other establishments in the town of Norwood are completely integrated and an on-thescene survey by a CAROLINIan representative Sunday, revealed that this is the first time any complaint had been made in the area.

Children in the area also attend integrated schools.

Professor Chao and his top science student completed the trip to Catawba College, read the papers, and were regarded with high esteem, then they returned to Fayetteville State.

"Focus On Goals" (Continued from Page 1)

Mr. Abram explained the role that legislation had played in the civil rights battle up to this point: "We have been able by law to get masses of Negroes on the voting rolls and into the voting booth. By law we have been able to get some Negroes into previously allwhite state universities and into some previously barred jobs. Law has prevailed over the discrimination practice of many restaurants and hotels."

St. Mark's

(Continued from page 1) City where he and other ministers of his delegation will have an audience with Pope Paul

He is also a member of the AME Zion Community, studying the plan of unification of the three Negro Methodist bodies and attended the General Conference of the CME Church, held recently in Miami, Fla.

Catholics

(Continued from Page 1) so reported is the rallying of religious forces in both rural and urban centers in the U.S., Latin America, and Africa, to alleviate community ills.

The survey was released at the end of a three-day conversation between representatives of the American Catholic Bishops' Commission on Ecu-menical Affairs and the North America Area of the World

Alliance of Reformed Churches. Held at Fordham University, the conversation was the third of its kind between Roman Catholics and United Presbyterians and, for the first time, involved members of other churches of the Reformed tradition -- the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the United Church of Christ, the Hungarian Reformed Church, the Reformed Church in America, and the Presbyterian Church, U. S. (Southern).

In addition to the survey, the seven-member delegations from each of the two co-sponsoring groups also discussed the relation of Scripture and Tradition to divine revelation and its transmission and the content of a jointly-produced brochure, called "Worship and Study for Roman Catholic and Protestant." The brochure, tentatively scheduled for publication in the fall, is designed for joint Bible study and wor-ship on the local level.

Watts In (Continued from Page 1)

wyler, 25, and entered her husband's right side. He was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital.

Mrs. Deadwyler was taken to another hospital, where doctors determined that she was suffering "false" labor pains, but admitted her for treatment of an infected kidney.

Soldier Killed

(Continued from Page 1) two weeks to reach his destination, and he arrived in the area on about Monday, May 9. He had been in service for 7 months and 12 days when he was killed.

His father, who was wounded in World War II, begged the youngster not to volunteer as did his three uncles, all of whom have seen prior military service.

He is survived by his parents, two brothers and three sisters.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete, but will be conducted from the St. Annah Freewill Baptist Church, Willow springs at a time to be announced, and burial is expected to take place in the National Cemetery here with full military honors.

Extension Worker (Continued from Page 1)

bury, holds degrees from Bennett College in Greensboro and Cornell University, Ithaca, N. She has also studied at North Carolina State University and is currently attending the University of Chicago.

Before assuming her present position, Mrs. Brown was a district home economics extension agent in Mecklenburg county, and home economics teacher at Madison High School, Mad-

DC Voting

South Western area. The part played by the Civil Service Commission in the voter registration program was explained by Wilson M. Matthews, Director Voter Service Task Force. William L. Taylor, Staff director, U. S. Commission on Civil Rights, explained the relation of his commission to the Voting Rights

After lunch, which was served in the Courtyard of the Justice Building and attended by the Attorney General and Louis Martin, Vice-chairman, National Democratic Executive Committee, the entire group boared busses for the White House to hear and meet President Johnson.

The White House meeting was held in the Rose Garden. The President was lavish in his praise for the representatives who had journeyed to Washington from 10 Southern states to attend this conference.

The President said that although the Congress had passed the 1965 Voting Rights Act and he had gladly signed, the 800,000 Negroes who had registered since he signed that act into law were induced to do so through the efforts of the persons he was addressing. In emphasizing the magnitude of that effort, President Johnson said that 800,000 persons represented more votes than were cast for President Milliard Fil-

He then recounted some of the outstanding achievements of his administration, Medicare, Rural Beautification, the Poverty programs and many others, "but," said the President, when the history of my administration is written 100 years from today, I hope it will declare that my greatest achievement was signing the Voting Rights Act into law." "Because," continued the President, "that law signaled the beginning of freedom for all Americans." After his speech, the President greeted the Conference representatives with a friendly handshake and a word of personal welcome and greeting.

In addition to North Carolina, representatives from S. Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, Arkansas, Virginia and the District of Columbia were present for this Conference.

BACK FROM VIET NAM -The two soldiers above returned to Raleigh last week after spending one year in action in Viet Nam. In top photo is Sgt. Robert Taylor, and in the bottom picture is Pfc. Bobby Jones, of 20 Franklin Terrace (Chavis Heights), shown holding a little girl on the street in Saigon. Sgt. Taylor graduated from the John W. Ligon High School here in 1961, while Pfc. Jones is a 1964 Ligon grad. Both expressed relief to be away from war action.

BERING STRAIT LANDMARK The westernmost point on the North American continent is Cape Prince of Wales, Alaska. * * *

ACROPHOBIA The fear of high places is

I'S NATIONAL FOOT HEALTH WEEK THAY IS THE

Club News

WORLD FELLOWSHIP GROUP The World Fellowship Group of the East Raleigh Branch of the YWCA met at the home of Mrs. Marie Macon, 1010 Coleman St., Monday night, May 16.

The devotion was led by the chairman, Mrs. Mary Sapp. The meeting was opened by singing the theme song, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee" followed by scripture, prayer, and "In Christ There Is No East Or

AT DC VOTING RIGHTS CONFAB - President Lyndon B. Johnson is shown in top photo greeting Mrs. Kathryn Y. Shepard, of 424 S. Bloodworth Street, this city, Monday in Washington, following a conference on voting rights held in the Justice Building. In bottom picture, left to right are: William B. King, Pine Bluff, Ark.; John R. Williams, Austin, Texas; U. S. Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach, who called the meeting; Mrs. Kathryn Shepard, James A. Shepard, both of Raleigh; Julius R. Haywood, Raleigh; and Charles A. Mc-Lean, Winston-Salem.

After the business meeting, the hostess served delicious chicken salad on lettuce, apples, cheese biscuits, cake, frappe, nuts and mint candy.

Member present: Miss Claine Christmas, Miss Beatrice Martin, Mrs. Eva Williams, Mrs. Lovie Ellis, Mrs. Edna Trotter, Mrs. Kittie Cumbo, Mrs. Marie Macon, Mrs. Daisy Robson, Mrs. Flossie Grant, Mrs. Genobia Dunston, Mrs. Mary Sapp, and Mrs. Lucille Griswold Paige.

SOUTH PARKS FLORAL COMMUNITY CLUB INSTALL

The South Park Floral and Community Club installed the following officers Sunday: Mrs. Mabel B. Jordan, president; Mrs. Helen Williams, vicepresident; Mrs. C. A. Langston, secretary; Mrs. Ester Haywood, corresponding secretary; Mr. William Bryant, treasurer and Mr. C. A. Langston, chaplain.

Mrs. Mahalia Albea, past president and founder, was presented a plaque for outstanding leadership.

Civil juries rarely function in any major country except

A NEW DIMENSION

In Luxury Apartment Living! Come Out And See Saturday & Sunday

From 2 to 6 P. M. INROCK APTS.

JOHN W. WINTERS & CO. Phone 828-5786

130 Fayetteville St.

Grand Reopening Sale Free Gifts While They Last

SUMMER

Val. To 10.99

Sizes Petites - Jr. Missy - Half Sizes

5-300

Tailored Roll Sleeves

SAILOR SHIFT

Sizes 7 to 15

REG $6.99

REG $2.99

VISCA STRAW

Enjoy Exciting Meals!

The Great Freezer Circus proudly presents its Main Attractions the incomparable, no-frost freezer and refrigerator-freezer! They make all others old-fashioned!

Still the roars of the "Ringmaster" in your house with wondrous, tantalizing, exciting meals from your own freezer. Enjoy the fresh-frozen goodies that can range from the denizens of the briny blue to the bracing taste of game from the Smokies. Not to mention the luscious, lipsmacking delights soon to come from fresh, ripe fruits and tender garden vegetables.

Freezer Treats are Lipsmacking Good!

With a bit of showmanship and your own freezer, you can do wonders for menus and save time and energy, too.

So hurry! See the new food freezers and refrigerator-freezers at a nearby appliance dealer's.

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!

CAROLINA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY An investor-owned, taxpaying public utility company

