

"THAT'S A STRIKE?" -- Philadelphia: Giants' Willie Mays looks dejected as Phillies catcher Bob Uecker prepares to recapture a Jim Bunning fast ball that squirted from his glove. Willie was called out on strikes in 6th inning of game in which Bunning fanned 11 enroute to 6-1 win. Umpire is Shag Crawford. (UPI PHOTO).

CATHOLIC PRIEST PLAYS THE BANJO -- Chicago: This swinging interfaith, interracial quartet composed of banjo-playing Catholic priest, Rev. Joseph J. Dustin; Pentecostal preacher at guitar, Rev. Samuel Patterson; Episcopal father famous for his Dixieland piano playing, Father Robert E. Owen, and a Rabbi who blows sweet music on the trumpet, Rabbi Daniel Friedman, made their debut here June 6 by entertaining patients at the Rehabilitation Institute. First performance was dedicated to National Conference of Christians and Jews. (UPI PHOTO).

Elwin Roberts, NCC Speedster, To Run In Puerto Rico Event

DURHAM - Edwin Roberts, North Carolina College's fleet-footed sprinter, will represent his native Trinidad in the Central American and Caribbean Games in San Juan, Puerto Rico, June 13.

Last week, Roberts, who was named the most valuable athlete at the recent WTVD Track and Field Championship in Durham, won the 200-yard dash at 20.6

in the NAIA Championships in Sioux Falls, S. D.

Before leaving for Puerto Rico, Roberts will participate in the NCAA College Division Track Championship at the University of Chicago, June 10-11, where he will defend his crowns in the 100 and the 220.

Three other Eagle track men, Lionel Urgan, Norman Tate, and Paul Wilson, will compete in the National AAU Championships in New York City, June 24-25.

Entertainment Hues and Cries

BY NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

SIR POITIER

LONDON - Actor Sidney Poitier is presently on location in England to film the movie "To Sir, With Love." But it isn't the first time. His initial London-based venture was in "The Bedford Incident" for Columbia. This time, the Academy Award winner-for his role in "Lilies of the Field" -- portrays a teacher who tries to build a sense of self-respect of East End teenagers.

PLATTER FAME
LAS VEGAS - Shirley Bassey, the British singer currently making appearances throughout the United States, is also making it on the platter. Her single, "Don't Take the Lovers From the World," is to be released soon. And she expects to cut an album in New York soon.

SERENADE FOR A HEAVYWEIGHT -- New York: Top-ranking heavyweight Ernie Terrell (left) plays his guitar and sings to heavyweight boxer Doug Jones June 6, at a press luncheon in a midtown Manhattan restaurant. Terrell's next meeting with Jones will be contested July 15, at the Houston, Texas, coliseum. (UPI PHOTO).

George A. Coburn Makes Hole-In-One At Tee-Off

George A. Coburn, of 705 Calloway Drive, made golfing history at the Tee-Off Club on Friday, June 3. While playing with George Foxwell and P. R. Jervay, Coburn made the first "hole-in-one" ever on the fourth hole of the nine-hole Tee Off course. The Tee-Off Club, located on Rock Quarry Road, provides wholesome recreation for all golfers.

Cavalcade of HATS

Through the years, famous men have been associated with the hats they wore. And too, some hats are closely linked with history-making events that changed the course of all our lives. See if you can recognize the following "headline hats" selected by the research institute of the John B. Stetson Company. (See answers below.)

1 The owner of this much-photographed hat overcame a serious illness to become:

- a) An actor (Lionel Barrymore)
- b) Inventor (Thomas Edison)
- c) President (Franklin D. Roosevelt)

2 This dashing young man "wore many hats" during his lifetime. He is:

- a) Beau Brummel
- b) John B. Stetson
- c) Winston Churchill

3 On Broadway, the wearer of this straw hat loved a girl named "Amy." He is:

- a) Ray Bolger
- b) Maurice Chevalier
- c) Eddy Cantor

4 This movie hero swapped his fedora for a classic Stetson Western hat. He's beloved cowboy:

- a) Tom Mix
- b) Hopalong Cassidy
- c) Hoot Gibson

ANSWERS

- 1-c) 2-c) 3-a) 4-b)

Auditions Set For Students Of Drama At Winston

WINSTON-SALEM -- Auditions will be open to drama students on the high school and college age levels at the North Carolina School of the Arts from June 15 to June 30.

Doctor Osvaldo Riosfrances, dean of the drama school, will be at the school to interview students and hear their auditions for admission in the fall session, September 1966, of the School of the Arts.

Dr. Riosfrances said that he would visit major cities in North Carolina for auditions if 20 or more students apply in such major areas as Asheville, Charlotte and Raleigh. He will accept a few additional students who are exceptionally talented in drama, and he will hold auditions for as many students as wish to be considered in order to find the most talented.

All students who are interested in applying for drama should send requests for appointments immediately to the Dean of Admissions, North Carolina School of the Arts, P. O. Box 4657, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Drama auditions will also be held at Atlanta, Georgia from July 1 through 7 and in New York during July and August.

WHAT YOU CAN'T say in a few words hasn't been well thought out.

Choir Director At College Is Feted By Group

WINSTON-SALEM - A group of former members of the choir at Winston-Salem State College honored Dr. James A. Dillard, choir director, at the beginning of the second half of the choir's annual concert last Sunday.

When Dr. Dillard entered the stage to begin the second part of the program, he was suddenly joined by Mr. Lawrence D. Billups of Washington, D. C. In his hand Mr. Billups carried a plaque and a gift, a polaroid camera.

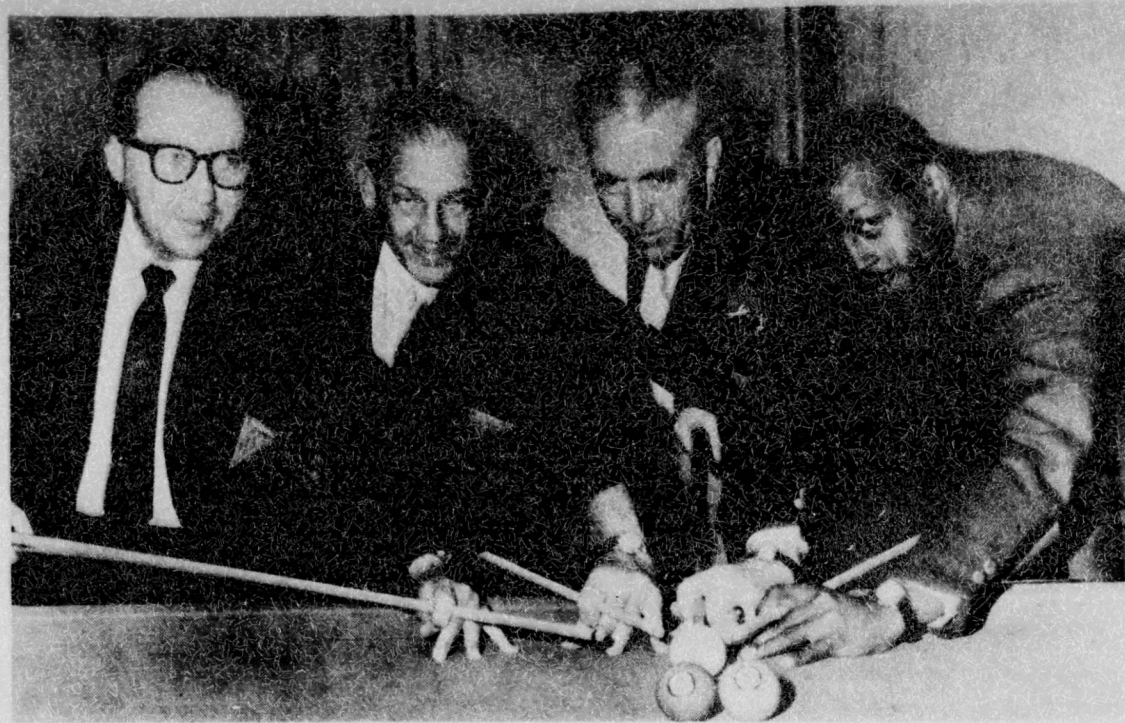

Before Dr. Dillard could regain composure, Mr. Billups began to speak: "Whereas Dr. James A. Dillard has served Winston-Salem State College faithfully for the past 25 years, and whereas he has..." At this point, Mr. Billup's words could not be heard because of the applause from the choir and the audience.

When it came time for Dr. Dillard to respond, he was almost overcome with emotion. He said:

"Had it not been for the more than 1700 students who have sung in the choir over the years, you in the audience, you of the faculty and staff, had it not been for each of you, this would not have been possible."

The second half of the concert also featured the rich baritone voice of Robert McLeod, a former choir member, who was guest artist. Mr. McLeod is a teacher in Washington, D. C. and is also a voice student there.

After the program, things returned to normal as more than 30 former choir members joined the choir first in singing the Alma Mater and the audience in shaking Dr. Dillard's hand.

SHOOTING FOR TOP BILLIARD MONEY -- Chicago: Shooting for $2500 in first place money in 1966 National Open Pocket Billiard tournament beginning here June 8 will be this foursome, among many others. Included are, left to right: Jimmy Caras, Springfield, Mo., Joe Balsis, Minersville, Pa., Irving Crane, Rochester, N. Y., and Cicero Murphy, Brooklyn, N. Y. Tourney is sponsored by Billiard Congress of America. (UPI PHOTO).

WINNERS IN FASHION SHOW - Winners in the recent Fashion Show, sponsored last week by the A&T College Department of Home Economics, model the garments they constructed. The girls are from left to right: Rhodena Snow, Ocala, Fla., first place; Clement Oliver, Ocala, Fla., second place, and Joanne Gollisby, Greensboro, third place. The Show was conducted under the supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Sanders, instructor in clothing.

STUDENT MAGAZINE ISSUED -- Sandra Page, seated, of Durham, prose editor of Ex Umbra, North Carolina College's student literary magazine, distributes copies of the newly-released publication to Valjean Griggs, left, and Plummer Burgess, both of Winston-Salem. The magazine, whose name is Latin for "out of the shadows," (because it seeks to bring talented but unrecognized students' talents to light) contains fiction, poetry, artwork, and photographs.

IBM Announces Subscriptions For Its Shares

NEW YORK - International Business Machines Corporation has announced a subscription price of $285 a share for its proposed offering of 1,324,136 shares of capital stock to IBM shareholders.

After the registration statement has become effective, the share for each 40 shares held. Period for the subscription offer is June 1 to June 21, 1966.

Rights to subscribe will be mailed to IBM stockholders on June 3. They will expire at 3:30 p. m. (New York time) June 21. Forty rights and payments of the subscription price are needed for the purchase of 1 new share. Rights will be traded on the New York, Midwest and Pacific Coast stock exchanges and price quotations will be reported.

The offer is being underwritten by a group of investment banking firms managed by Morgan Stanley & Company, Bankers Trust Company, New York, will act as subscription agent for the exercise and sale of rights for stockholders.

Trouble-free with a capital "T"!

If you own a cheap power-mower now, you probably know all about expensive repair bills and miserable summer Saturdays. You're probably ready for a trouble-free TORO.

Come on in and see one!

That's the 1966 Whirlwind® by TORO

"We Service What We Sell" ... as little as 10% down.

HILL'S INC.

1720 N. BLVD. U.S. 1 NORTH 833-4884

Seagram's Extra Dry Gin

$3.70 4 1/2 QT. $2.40 PINT

SEAGRAM-DISTILLERS COMPANY, N. Y. C. 90 PRDF.

It Pays To Patronize Carolinian Advertisers

Cliff McKinney
YOUR
Schlitz Salesman
SAYS...

Thank You for Your Great Acceptance of America's First Premium MALT LAGER.

I Knew You Would Like This Great, New, Bold Taste. ENJOY IT!

—Distributed By—
FISHER & CAREY WHOLESALE, CO., INC.

402 N. McDowell St.

Raleigh, N. C.

