

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE

MY GROVE
My friends to me are glad-source trees, that bear a thousand fruits, They take alike the storm and breeze
And firmer strike their roots.
My friends to me are living trees, that bear their living fruits, When my heart's weary, ill at ease, They sing like golden lutes.

—Sneed Ogburn.
We solicit your prayers, that God may soon heal our wounds."
