

GABBING About Town

BY MRS. A. H. THORPE

"It's not how long you have lived, that makes a life time - But what you have done." RECEIVED PLEASANT NEWS

It was a great pleasure to have heard from a very good friend of ours, and a former employer of The CAROLINIAN and radio station WLE and WSRC. It was reported that our friend is doing as he called it, "Just great" in the Motor Town. He is now employed as a disc jockey at Radio Station, WCHB in Detroit, Mich. We don't have to reveal his name for all his friends to know whom we are talking about, but for the benefit of others, we will say, its none other than Raymond "Dr. Jocko" Henderson. He is still saying "Ray, keep up the good work and we are still rooting for you."

Homecoming will be observed at the Rand Street Christian Church, in Garner, on Sunday July 10, at 2:30 p. m. Bishop S. W. Williams, his choir and congregation of Durham, will render the service. Dinner will be served. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Rev. James M. Harris is the pastor. BELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS

ers, and how to "find yourself" - your personal qualifications, interests and abilities - for jobs. The speaker for the occasion was Mrs. L. C. Latimer, Counselor in Wake County Schools. She stated that we first must be interested in and have some ability in a particular area, know what values one will gain, and possess a pleasing personality. The speaker asserted: "We all need each other in all types of jobs and careers. See if you can decide whether you are the alert person, average or below average. After finding yourself, then you can make the best use of yourselves." She mentioned that there are 40,000 job titles and we have to prepare for each type. Leaflets and bulletins were given out especially to up-coming seniors and to the 1966 graduates. She also mentioned that the average person will find himself much quicker. People who are successful watch all of these points. A question and answer period followed.

The class closed on Wednesday, June 29th in the Home Economics room. Mrs. E. D. Toole was the instructor. Ethel Goodson, a student in the class, presented Mrs. Latimer a small token from the Youth Group. The following class members attend the final special discussion period: Gwendolyn Alston, Barbara Barnes, Gloria Butler, Earline Chaplain, Mary Damar, Margie Dunn, Claudia Goodson, Ethel Goodson, Roberta Jackson, Gloria Long, Patricia McCoy, Faye Mial, Beaufort Mial, Dorothy Nowell, Junna Patterson, Carolyn Peterson, Ida Stagers, Henrietta Thomas, Florence White, Loretta Watkins, Brenda Watkins, June Williams, and Shirley Williams. Bertha Asbury and Ann Green were absent.
