WIFE "SLICES" MATE Jacob Robinson, 43, of 863 Hadley Rd., told Officers B. W. Peoples and C. R. Stinson at 12:01 a. m. Friday, that he was riding in the family car with his wife, Mrs. Lucille Robinson, 51, same address, and "We got into a fuss. She then cut me with a knife."

Mr. Robinson, who was treated at Wake Memorial Hospital for an elbow wound, flatly refused to sign an assault with a deadly weapon against his wife.

ATTACKS OFFICER AT STATION

Officer James E. (Sonny) Lane, of 2231 Garner Rd., reported at 5:26 p. m. Saturday, that he arrested James Curtis Blaylock, 23, of 511 S. Bloodworth St., for resisting arrest and assault on an officer, after young Blaylock "pushed and kicked" officer Lane at the Raleigh Police Department, with his hands and feet.

4 TEENAGERS "JUMP" MAN Exodies Ruffin Price, 42, of 129 Star St., informed "the law" at 2 a. m. Saturday, he was walking north on N. Carver St., and upon reaching the intersection of Carver and E. Edenton Sts., four teenage boys "jumped me and beat me

Mr. Price received cuts on his left ear and scratches of the forehead. He said he was attacked for "no reason at all. I didn't know any of the boys and can't identify

ADMITS CUTTING MATE

Mrs. Iredell Christine Staten, 37, of 540 E. Davie St., told Officers Otis L. Hinton and E. Curtis Winston at 9:45 p. m. Saturday, that she cut her husband, Emmanuel Staten at their home. Staten, also 37, suffered a cut on his right ring fingers, after a quarrel.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Staten were arrested on charges of assault with a deadly weapon.

BEATEN, PUSHED OUT

Mrs. Barbara Dunn, of 600 Freeman St., reported to Officers Norman Artis and L. W. Murphy at 11:32 p. m. Sunday, that her husband, John Dunn, 28, same address attacked her with his hands and fists and pushed her out of the door. She signed an assault and battery warrant and he was arrested at his home.

WOMAN AWAY, THIEVES TAKE T. V.

Miss Denise Mitchell, of 548 E. Martin St., informed Officers Norman Artis and James E. (Bobby) Daye at 12:32 a. m. Monday, she was away from her home from 3 p. m. Saturday until 12:38 a. m. Sunday, and someone "stole her television set from her bedroom.

The gray and white T. V. was valued by Miss Mitchell at * * *

POINTS GUN AT MAN'S HEAD, "CHICKENS OUT"

Plummer Baskerville, 20, of 800 Tifton St., related to the cops at 12:20 a. m. Sunday, how he was threatened by a man,

The complainant said he was attending a party at "Mary Wilder's home, 1201 O'Kelly St. (Method), when he and Vernell Pitts, of 210 E. South St., allegedly took a pistol from his pocket, held it against Baskerville's head, told him "He was going to kill me, but did not

A warrant was signed against Pitts, who reportedly lives in a green rooming house, in back of Goodson's Grocery Store, 700 S. Bloodworth St.

WALLET 'GRABBED' FROM PORCH

Miss Joann Bennett, 21, of 823 S. Bloodworth St., told Officers Hinton and Winston at 8:59 p. m. Friday, she was sitting on her front porch, but his success today."

Miss Bennett stated she was gone for a couple of minutes," and when she returned, she found both her $5 in money and wallet missing.

The young woman added, "Money is always being missed at our house because several families live at this address." However, all of the families living there 'knew anything a-bout the theft,' said "the law."

BOYFRIEND DAMAGES

Miss Rachel Mozell McDougald, of 319 Fowle St., reported to Officers Norman Artis and "Bobby" Daye at 11:53 p. m. Friday, her boyfriend Ineal Judd, 37, of the 900 block of S. West St., came to her house, kicked out the front window and damaged her back screen door and the glass in the back door. She said she would sign a warrant later.

Miss McDougald reported this followed an argument over another woman.

Mrs. Henrietta Douglass, of 848 S. Haywood St., told two cops at 3:18 a. m. Saturday, she observed William Tell Johnson, 26, of 909 S. East St. break into her apartment by forcing the kitchen screen and window open. She said he later came out of her apartment by way of the back door in the kitchen.

Mrs. Douglass stated she observed Johnson from 22 Nash Terrace with Mrs. Margie Bridges, apartment renter, as a witness.

Johnson was discovered by officers at 12 Lincoln Terrace with Miss Etta Norris, and she declared he had been at her Chavis Heights Apartment for ten minutes and also stated Johnson did not break into Mrs. Douglass' apartment.

Johnson, however, was arrested on charges of residential break-in.

Nothing was reported on the police files as missing from her apartment, however.

Two Films Available

Two films have been given to the North Carolina Adult Film Project. The North Carolina Chapter of the American Institute of Architects has given a film entitled NO TIME FOR UGLINESS and the North Carolina Advancement School has given STILL ACHIEVING, STILL PURSUING.

The first is a picture that contrasts good and bad design in our cities; it can be used by all city planning groups, city and county managers, architects, and any group that is interested in the orderly and beautiful development of North Carolina's cities and towns.

The second is a documentary account of the history and purposes of the North Carolina Advancement School in Winston-Salem; the film was originally prepared by WFMY-TV in Greensboro as a television program.

In fact, Elegant-Teen was and now is again the only magazine for the young people of our community.'

As a result of his interest, Powell formed a combine of friends and business associates to purchase the rights to the two publications from Elegant Publications, Inc., which had run into problems that forced a discontinuance of the two magazines. The purchase consumated on May 12, 1966.

The initial success of the nev publishing venture was assured, Powell stated when Hearst Magazines International Circulation Distributors agreed to distribute the two magazines. The first printing of each publication totals 150,000 and Elegant guarantees 100,000 on each ma-
